Impact of Minimum Wage Hikes on Restaurants: Evidence from Review Texts

Shantanu Khanna

August 20, 2021

1 Random Samples of review texts for high and low values of text-based adjustment outcomes

In the first section of this appendix, I provide a random sample of restaurant reviews for each of the six outcomes. I draw a random sample of 100 reviews each for values of the outcome above the 99th percentile (high values) and below the first percentile (low values). Note that a 100 randomly drawn reviews are still less than 0.1% of reviews between any two percentiles.

1.1 Price Outcome

1.1.1 High Values

- 1 The.worst.customer.service.ever. Had to get a manager to refill the very expensive beer stein the initial server sold us on. Very disappointed.
- 2 Great service. Polite and helpful. One of their employees came out from behind the register just to help get me a better deal and save me money. Thanks hakim!
- 3 Between Sharon, Canton, and Stoughton lies one of the best ice cream spots in the US. Superb ice cream, milk, and other dairy products.... Can get crowded, but always has more lines open than Bubbling Brook, which is a plus (yet Bubbling Brook is better in my opinion, and much closer for me, 4 mins from my house).
- 4 So let me be honest.... the only reason we even went here to begin with is because of the replies to the negative reviews lol. Seemed like he did his research and cared what the actual guest thought. We ordered pizza, pasta and wings. All 3 were really good. The pizza is the best in Dallas/Gastonia for sure! The delivery was much faster than others. We even sent our friends there!
- 5 Me and my g/f shared a shrimp fried rice which was tasty and flavorful. We also enjoyed the sushi. Crab stick tempura, California roll and spicy chicken. Recommend all.
- 6 I don't know what to say other than this place is fantastic! The best, home style Korean food I have ever had and for an amazing price. I will definitely be a regular!

Thank you for opening in my neighborhood!

- 7 My personal favorite brunch place in Portland. A little on the pricy side ($50 per person) but worth every penny spent. $10 bottomless mimosas are a great bonus!
- 8 Possibly the best breakfast in Phx or even Arizona. Crispy potato bowl, Arepas, Shepard's Biscuit!?! Everything is delicious. Even the water is better than anywhere else in town, that's right, the water gets five stars too. Just get there and see for yourself, you won't be disappointed.
- 9 Solid. Huge portions of creative bar food. All beer is excellent and the service is some of the best around. Typically very busy, even on week nights. Beware the smoked wings...HUGE!
- 10 Okay selection, odd aisle set up. Staff is friendly enough. Store seems cluttered often. Some basic items are extremely over priced. Find myself going down to smiths more often, even though this is just across the street from my house
- 11 Terrible process so that a simple bagel order waits behind other complicated orders— it required 15 minutes of waiting
- 12 I love it. I even love the annoying stuff, like how the place doesn't really have room for serving dinner —and— being a bar —and— those thrones. Who cares? The smaller the room, the better the party. Great DJs and drinks. I go there as often as I can motivate to trek to Cambridge.

13 Probably my favorite delivery around. There is always one girl who answers when I call, and she is super polite. She's very helpful if I have questions and is thorough with the order. They always say 30-45 minute wait, yet I don't think I'd ever waited more than 30. Very prompt. 5 stars for food and service -1 cause they're not open Sunday, but I don't blame them.

14 After my last review I went back with a gift card and had a couple more pleasant experiences. The drinks definitely never fail to impress.

15 The fried chicken is what dreams are made of! The food and drinks were worth the money and the calories!

16 This was even more than what other reviews had said about it. The melt in your mouth porterhouse was unbelievable. Jamie, my server was very attentive. And I believe Kevin the manager / owner? Was also very attentive. I will come back here even without the trail ride. Food and service is amazing

17 By far the best bagels this far from the Big Apple. Efficient counter service. Delicious!

18 Was here over the weekend, I imagined that accommodations would have been hard but in 10 minutes we were seated (party of 4)

The wine list is fantastic, extensive and diverse. A large selection of tapas complements well any choice of wine or aperitifs your party might have ordered.

The atmosphere was lovely and exciting and offers friendly staff, plus it's great to meet new people. I highly recommend the paella. Also the Jamon Mangalica was exquisite and totally worth the money.

19 I wish the selection of champagnes was a bit larger, but I suppose the size of the place doesn't allow for much expansion. They have all the standards in stock, prices are lower than a lot of other spots in the neighborhood, and everyone that works here is always helpful when I am feeling adventurous and want to try a new wine. They also sell Sparks and beer by the can, and if whatever you are looking for is sold out on the floor, they'll gladly pull it for you from the stock in the back.

20 By far and away THE WORST Reuben sandwich I have ever had.

21 Poor service, quite expensive, small portions and average food. Not going there again.

22 I'm willing to spend my money here, but their card machine constantly breaks. So, I'll try a different location.

23 *Only two-story gay club in Orlando

For Parramore, Stonewall is now the nicest establishment on that side of town. They added an open-air second floor which is also accessible via elevator. On the outside, LED lights illuminate so you can't miss it! I'm glad they put some money into a once run-down bar/club. This has the possibility to be another successful LGBT establishment in Orlando.

24 The wait staff were wonderful, the restaurant very nice. My husband had the salami and cheese pizza which was excellent. I had the heirloom tomato salad. The tomatoes could have been more flavorful. Overall will return and try other menu items.

25 Amazing tacos, gets busy but worth the wait. All their tacos are quite flavorful. The shrimp and steak are my faves here.

26 Best chicken and waffles I've ever had. How can you go wrong w a waffle that's got bits of bacon and chives in every bite. Go for brunch and get the chicken and waffles. Even the chicken is cooked perfectly moist.

Also had the blueberry French toast. It was fluffier and less dense than you usually expect of French toast. All of it was good. Wish I had space in my stomach to order everything off the menu.

- 27 Best Gyros in the land. Friendly and efficient staff. "Efxaristo!" Cravable
- 28 We went here for dinner and ordered several rolls and edamame for dinner. All of the rolls were fantastic and the prices are great. The only downside to this restaurant were the chairs. They are painful to sit in and all four of us were extremely uncomfortable... we contemplated standing up for dinner. Groups of two can sit along the wall in the acrylic chairs and have a better chair experience.
- 29 Some of the best pizza in Atl. A little pricey for pizza but I left full and satisfied off my husky
- 30 This was an odd experience bordering on unpleasant. I will leave more detail once I have processed this weird 30 minutes of my life. Food was ok. Potatoes probably reheated in microwave. Shaking my head.
- 31 This business has been in Brookhaven for many years. In the same complex as Mellow Mushroom and Hudson Grill. They sell / serve baked goods, i.e. cookies, cakes, cupcakes, small tarts, cheesecakes, along with some sandwiches, coffee and tea.

For the Brookhaven area, it is our go to place for take home dessert. The cheesecake, whether original or flavored ones, e.g. with peanut butter, Grand Manier...etc. is very good. A good balance of the egg and the cream cheese components giving a great texture. Slight tang. Not overtly rich.

We recently had a strawberry lemon tart. The filling is right on mark with a balance of the strawberry jam-like filling with jelly like lemon component. The pie crust part is not my cup of tea though. It is less flaky and more doughy / bready, more dense than I'd prefer.

Over all a great neighborhood bake shop. Always something new for us regulars to discover.

A NOTE ON PARKING: With some very popular businesses in that complex, parking is sometimes very difficult to come by, especially for wheelchair / handicap parking. The latter is virtually non-existent. The closest accessible parking may be more than half a football field length away. Beware...

- 32 To everyone that has St. Phillip at less than 5 stars, please. Do not miss this. Do not be led astray. Go now.
- 33 I was disappointed with the service and the food. The burger was smaller than expected and not much flavor, the onion rings were cold, the fried green tomato was ok. I'd rather go to five guys any day.
- 34 loved the curry one. expensive though. hard to justify getting one.
- 35 Best value in Vancouver for gelatos!

Decidedly better taste than La Casa Gelato, and larger than the mini scoops at Bella Gelateria. All for cheaper than the above-mentioned and it tastes great! $5 for two scoops; no extra charge for waffle cone. Highly recommend the Pistachio.

CASH ONLY.

- 36 Their food is fantastic. Catch 22 is a great place to spend the evening, starting with dinner and then for some great live music. It's a great place to spend a Saturday evening!
- 37 the food here is so disgusting!! not to mention expensive!!! i prefer applebees... no joke!!!! nasty nasty no thanks
- 38 First time here & our table got free muffins. They were delicious! Everything on the food menu looked delicious not pricy at all. The waiting was about 20 minutes but seem less time. Customer service was great! I got the groupon deal totally worth it!!!
- 39 I don't even know how this place actually constitutes real food. Absolutely atrocious. Wasted of 15.00 for the most inedible food I have ever even attempted to eat. I'm pretty sure what I got (orange chicken and sweet and sour pork) was not even real meat.
STAY AWAY.
- 40 There were 3 people in there when I got in and I still waited an hour for food only to find out their sandwiches had gotten even smaller, used to be my fav place to eat, now is overhyped, overpriced and lazily staffed, so dissappointed
- 41 $8.92 for one Large Iced Vanilla Latte. The coffee was very good and enjoyable but the baristas were rude. They need some friendlier folks working this little place.
- 42 Awesome food! Super cute atmosphere. Really yuppie and a touch pricy.
- 43 The portions are deceiving if you haven't been there before. They show you the bowl for a small portion as well as a large portion, they refrain from telling you that even though those are the bowls used, they don't actually fill them. Based on this, I ordered a small portion and probably had three great bites before I was finished. Not worth the price for a run-of-the-mill atmosphere and less than stellar food. My husband and I both agreed even Olive Garden would have been a better selection.
- 44 Good food and atmosphere. Better when not crowded, like on a weekday when everyone else is working. Gets crowded other times and can get loud. Seafood omelet options, yum.
- 45 IDK guys should I complain about being straight ignored at the bar while 5 subsequent female patrons get served first? Probably not. But what I WILL do is go next door and spend my money. Peace Byitches!!!
- 46 Yum...good tacos and chips & salsa! Great location in Cityscape...very popular!
- 47 Service, staff & food were fabulous! It is pricier than the average breakfast but it was worth it. You definitely got what you paid for :)
- 48 A great buffet with very affordable cost. They always have turkey ham and chicken. The one thing they could use is hot fresh rolls.
- 49 Chocolate Mousse and traditional were incredible! Chocolate mousse is definitely something more unique than what you would expect from a cannoli. I tried my friends traditional and the shell was a - lot different than the mousse which was more flaky. BEST cannoli i've ever had, hands down.

- 50 Awesome burgers and fries. Super friendly service, and a clean eating establishment. Did I mention the burger's are awesome? Fries are super tasty as well. In my grand rating of Burger joints I've visited... In-N-Out is greater than Five Guys is greater than Steak and Shake is greater than Shake Shack.
- 51 I had brunch here with friends a few weeks ago. The service was great. Our waiter was hilarious and attentive. The food was decent. The restaurant is a lot bigger than one would guess because of the seating in the back and downstairs.
- 52 Way too expensive of an oil change... $47! Go down the street to Brake Masters and save $15. Service was fast but ouch!
- 53 Worst place to go in Vegas... save your money and time... they're not even owned by Wym so they don't care about hospitality. I rather spend my money to the actual owned Wym restaurant were service and food is actually good. How are they successful? Wym should've never let them open and ruin their reputation. Won't give them a year.
- 54 Spend your money here!! Mimosas were great and food was even better. Excellent service! I live across town but will be back due to the excellent service.
- 55 Honestly probably top 3 of the best chicken and waffles I have ever had! The waffle was so light and crispy yet fluffy on the inside and the chicken was seasoned to perfection!
- 56 Seriously the best place I have ever eaten. I dream about this place. Pricey, but, amazing food.
- 57 Had dinner here Sunday night while visiting in Madison. Very good food but the atmosphere was more like a family restaurant than a place you go for a nice meal. Lots of noisy kids. I would return but with different expectations.

In response to the owner's response below, I doubt there's much you can do. There were three tables of loud and misbehaved children. Nothing you can do really. We were there near closing and I thought the kids were out a bit late and likely tired and cranky. Maybe have a quieter area for couples without children? We will return because the food was delicious but I'll come in expecting a family restaurant rather than a quiet place where we can talk.

58 Very nice casino. We came solely for the gondola ride.

Tip: If nobody is in line for the ride don't pay the $110.00 to have the gondola to yourselves. Pay the 28.00 and haul ass over they won't make you wait and you'll get the boat to yourselves for half the price

- 59 Delicious fried scallops and clams. Decent soft serve and convenient location. A bit on the pricey side but considering the location it's to be expected.
- 60 The food is very good but too pricey. A meatloaf lunch sandwich is $14. Half order ribs is $18
- 61 Great food and large quantities. Definitely go here over The Rock across the street. Faster service and more for your money.
- 62 The "A" Team was definitely working tonight! Efficient service from the cooks to the staff. gracias.

63 Bones is one of my favorite restaurants in the country. Excellent steaks...I have never had a anything less than a perfectly cooked, high quality cut of meat there. I recommend the bone-in filet.

The appetizers are great, the carpaccio is my favorite. Their sides are as good as their steaks...I really enjoy the Brussels sprouts (some of the best I've ever had). The truffle mashed potatoes are amazing as well.

Excellent wine list...a price range and vintage suitable for all customers.

The service is never anything less than top notch.

64 Montri's has been a welcome return addition to the Kitsilano dining scene. We live very close and go often and are always happy with the great Thai food, attentive service and they have a more interesting wine list than most Thai restaurants.

Every dish we've tried has been very good and we will continue to be regular customers.

65 After making no less than 6 reservations around town for my mom and I's visit to Phoenix, we ended up at The Covenant, and even luckier, we ended up in Esther's section. The food and ambience were wonderful, but Esther's service was unparalleled. Seriously, we left feeling like we'd known her our whole lives because of her warmth and welcome. In a world where good service is sometimes hard to come by, Esther rewrote the rules and blew us away. If you're looking to make dinner plans, look no further than The Covenant.

66 Better than its nearest competitor and the first location with BACON!

P.Terrys is great and I'm so glad there's a more convenient location to work!

Chickenburger + fries is my weapon of choice.

67 Love the roast beef and cheese on sourdough! This location is close to my work so I'm a frequent flyer. I have always had great customer service here as well as their other locations. Ya the prices are more than your Subway $5 foot long but you get what you pay for!

68 The food here is alright, nothing to rave about. The service is good and they check back with you often enough so you know you haven't been forgotten, but not often enough to be annoying. I don't recommend the fruit cup/bowl, as the fruit isn't usually quite ripe.

69 In Waltham often for business meetings. Solea was recommended by my clients so we went for early drinks and dinner. Our waitress was helpful with the selection...and convinced us to try the Samgria! Great choice! Everything is Tapas style so be prepared to share. The food was good, the service was above average, the ambiance was the best!

70 Got more than the normal good food and prompt service at Chelsea's Kitchen this morning at Terminal 4 at Phoenix Skyharbor Airport.

I typically stop here for a meal before going through security to catch my flight out.

This morning I inadvertently left my cell in the hired car. Khristopher, my waiter at Chelsea's Kitchen, let me borrow his cell phone for 15 to 20 minutes so that I could make some calls to track down the driver and ask him to turn around and bring my phone back to the airport and meet up with him. I recovered my phone and prevented what would have been a very difficult trip (I know, what did we ever do without these things).

Summary: Above and beyond service — thanks Khristopher.

- 71 Please come by and see the manager Marcus. He is incredible and his hospitality off beyond measure. The experience was the most pleasant I give this place a 10 all day
- 72 Food is always great and affordable. But they are always out of something!!! Something's are on the menu and they don't even serve them. Will keep coming back because the food is great.
- 73 Convenient to my house, but I don't love this market. The aisles are crowded and then they put displays in the aisle making them that much narrower and difficult to navigate.
- 74 Not on par with Aviva (just down the food court), but a solid option and it costs less than Aviva. A great variety of choices and everything tastes fresh and delicious.
- 75 The service and food from cocktails to appetizers to main dishes to desserts were excellent. Portion sizes were perfect allowing us to try appetizers and desserts too. Most importantly the restaurant was very careful to manage multiple food allergies and served a special dish for me.
- 76 Huge selection of ciders, of which you can try all of them for $22! The cider with passion fruit juice was a standout (though much much more tart than I was expecting) as well as the tepache (semi-sweet made with pineapples!) — I'm also pleased to see Rev. Nat's in many more taprooms in Portland and in Washington!

I'm knocking off one star because an employee was a teensy bit pretentious about their cider. The overall atmosphere was very laid back and welcoming, but he was a bit annoying.

- 77 Food is very good and chicken is above average. Prices are really too expensive for what they offer. Potstickers are unbelievable! Cost for 3 people was like a steakhouse.
- 78 Came here even though the reviews were less than average. Ordered the bun bo hue and the special. Both were saltier than my balls after working out at the gym. Asked the waiter for a straw considering how dirty the cups were and was told they didn't have any straws. The table next to us miraculously had a straw. Feel free to come to pho Hùng for subpar food and trash service.
- 79 This is a difficult spot to rate. On one hand it is GREAT to have a falafel place in Wellesley (especially because I'm vegan— and there's close to nothing for me to eat here). On the other hand, it's pretty pricey. Victor was very kind to my wife and I, even letting us taste a sample before buying our wrap. He was also very chatty and likable! Thumbs way up! The cost however was pretty exorbitant— for one wrap and one soup it was about $13.50. I guess we're in Wellesley so what can I expect? This entire town is overpriced. But in all, I am thankful that his business is there and I will go again but not as often as I would if it was a little less expensive.

80 Most incredible meal I've ever had. Pricey but worth it!
Definitely would make my way back if I'm in the Scottsdale area again!

81 I was introduced to Carmel's because of #CoffeeWeek (CoffeeWeek.org)...glad I was! Great service, delicious food, and loved the Iced Toddy. I'll be back for sure....but most likely not until the heat of Summer passes. The air conditioning either wasn't working or wasn't really functional, so the temp was a little uncomfortable. But the staff, food, and coffee more than made up for it!

82 Never disappoints. Katie was our server and provided nothing but excellent service, making our dinner even more enjoyable. A place that I recommend to any and everyone. We will be back!

83 Pricey, yes, but worth every penny!

I'm not the biggest fan of red meat but I seen someone getting their fancy steak plate and just had to have it! Nice, upscale atmosphere, very unique decor, supper was delicious, and desert was outstanding. Would definitely recommend, at least for special occasions!

84 Worst nightclub experience in vegas I have ever had! The staff is rude, security makes you out to be a criminal drug dealer. Outlandish drink pricing, Too crowded, bad space management, could go on and on. Neither me or any family will ever waste money and time on this club again. I suggest you find another venue for any concert you want to see here, you will over pay and be treated badly.

85 received the wrong dishes, and charged for items not received. service was so disappointing we left without eating anything other than the crispy chicken - which was tasty but not substantially different than anything from kfc. maybe this was an off day but I wouldn't go back.

86 The first time I came one year ago, the staff were pretty mean and had a difficult time communicating. However now the staff better trained and they do their jobs just fine. The food is great, sometimes they give you bigger portions if they are about to close. And no taxes, so prices on the menu are the real prices.

87 Sushi is very fresh and the portion is perfect! The service is also very great, the employees are so sweet. However I wish it was a little less pricy for not being able to pick more than 3 vegetables

88 Food is more expensive but their customer service is so fantastic and they let you sample absolutely everything that I'm willing to pay a little extra. I've never had a dissatisfied experience here.

89 My favorite breakfast spot got even better today.

Sydney waited on us and she is the best waitress EVER. Got our order spot on and repeated it all back. Was very attentive checking in on us the right number of times. Very helpful with everything we requested, and made the whole experience enjoyable.

90 The food is amazing but the wait and the service left something to be desired. We were quoted a shorter wait time than we actually had and there was no place to wait inside on a cold rainy morning.

I'd definitely order the Kiss my Grits again but I'm not sure it's worth the wait.

Pro tip: get your name on the waitlist before going but expect your wait time to be longer than quoted.

- 91 Never been here, but heard so much about the chicken wings. Very busy even near closing time. Well worth the money. Great food for sure.
- 92 Awesome coffee and lunch options! The samples are a great way to try some of the unusual treats before you buy them. I will continue to frequent this place!
- 93 Stay away. There is something wrong with this business at all levels: food, service staffing, management. Until they fix whatever is broken there is no reason for you to spend money or time here.
- 94 Carolyn S...you sound delusional and ignorant. I have been a long time patron of Baraonda whenever I'm in Atlanta and I've found them to be nothing less than accommodating and pleasant on every visit.
- 95 Great place to eat and atmosphere is amazing. I wore jeans and they didn't snub me. Pricy but totally worth it.
- 96 Wish there were a 3.5 star option. This place had solid food with some great flavors. Have had some delicious dishes here but also a few duds along the way. Definitely worth visiting if you're in the Cambridge area. Somewhat on the pricey end but by comparison to a tavern type location it's worth the minor upsell for a rather inventive menu.
- 97 Stood in line for 10 minutes as the guy at the window talked with the customer ahead of me not acknowledging me or taking my order. They had already ordered and purchased. Watched the whole drive thru line get their orders. Decided to leave since he was too busy talking to even attempt to take my order.
- 98 Muy fantastico!!! Mr. Triny is a very friendly guy and sells some of the best Mexi hotdogs. $3 a dog is a great price. Stop by, say hi and wave to the passing cars! They don't know what they're missing!!

Update..... After 1.5 years, the dogs are now $3.50 and STILL kick @ss!!
Crispy bacon on the dog, messy and delicious!

- 99 Obviously place was busy but all the ladies in there were working hard even though there was a difficult customer! Good job
- 100 Widely expensive but so damn good, definitely not recommended for the budget conscious but for the reckless rest of us, dive in.

1.1.2 Low Values

- 1 Sat at the bar because they were very busy at 330 pm. A good sign. Place was full of Mexicans, another good sign. Nice Mexican draft beer selection. Good chips and dip. The food was very good and service was very good. Had live music as well. Atmosphere is also good.
- 2 First time at this location and yes I know it's cheap pizza. This location though, is badly beyond cheap pizza. First time I've ever experienced this at a LC'S, terrible. Zero stars!!!!
- 3 Place always delivers. Solid beer, solid pizza, solid meatball sub, etc. They don't have gluten free pizza, but they will in July.

- 4 Had great breakfast. The omelette was super. The pancakes were delicious. Coffee was decent, good service, very good overall.
- 5 Great atmosphere and friendly staff. Good food and nicely paced service. Decent and well priced wine selections.
- 6 Tanesha is the best bartender around she's very nice and easy to talk to! She's constantly smiling and is very good at what she does! I definitely come here just for her!!
- 7 Great staff

Nice decor

Parking is free on weekends

- 8 Great food from the trailer in the back and good beer selection. Chef in the trailer is good.
- 9 The food is decent, and decently priced for the area. However, I wasn't a huge fan of the setup – everything is done at stations, and feels like a cafeteria (but isn't priced as such). I have seen this type of restaurant style done REALLY well in Chicago, and it just didn't work nearly as well here.
- 10 great service, nice decor prosciutto appetizer was good

minestrone soup OK

Gnocchi was very good

RigatoniToscano was OK

Creme Caramel was excellent

- 11 Not bad for a little Hole in the wall breakfast diner! I had the pancakes which by the way are huge, fluffy, and delicious. Turkey sausage had good flavor. The home Fries are decent. And the scrambled eggs were made just right.

Good service by the waitress. I would recommend this place to any person wanting breakfast.

- 12 Food is good but greasy overall for a quick stop at the mall I'd go again...cool ways to make comfort food better.
- 13 Very good spot food was awesome drinks were good service was great the food and the presentation were excellent!!!!
- 14 Damn good americano + eclectic music + solid wi-fi = good f'ing cafe
- 15 Good food, good service. Very attentive. I had a lobster sandwich that I could come back and get 7 days a week, it was fantastic. My wife had a chicken burger that was fine. Definitely a good place for lunch
- 16 Nice small place, no cover charge and beautiful dancers. Drinks are nice and cheap too.
- 17 Great coffee and great atmosphere! :)
- 18 Good ambiance, good dinner 3/5

Berk, Dorfy and I were at the Pinon Grill restaurant on Saturday night for our long-needed girl night out! Berk and I stayed at the Millennium Resort at Scottsdale, where the Pinon Grill is located that weekend.

We started with two appetizers – baby ribs and mozzarellas and tomato salad. We were really impressed by the ribs and the salad! Good job on that! On the entree, we had the scallops + grill shrimps dish, buttery sea bass dish and a steak dish! The seafood was good but only so-so in their steak. Overall, I think with the price of every dish (average of $28–$30 per dish), the quality of the food was average. Service was good, but not above the par compare to other fine dining. Not above average with the price. Desert time!... we ordered a fruity cream brulee and a very chocolaty chocolate cake! They were good! Berk and I hit the sack after a good dinner and good laugh. Good restaurant with good friends on Saturday, but a bit doubtful I will check back again in the near future! Too many good options out there! :)

19 Nice server. Good service.

Very yummy pizzas with good flavors.

But a bit of a soggy bottom under the crust.

20 Excellent service by Kaloni and food was great! First time at restaurant. Will definitely be back. Quick and good how do you beat that!

21 Macaroons on point! We took a ton home and had the macaroon ice cream sandwiches which were also to die for.. my favorite part and good priced! The food was pretty good as well very different. Next time I will order the pho and see what the rage is about!

22 Delicious and cheap. The steam dumplings are the best homemade dumplings ever.

Six dishes of food was only around $30

23 peanut butter anything is good. and the soft serve & ice cream here is darn good. took me over a year in boston to taste this local goodness but am surely a fan.

24 Best ranch dressing in Pittsburgh! Good beer selection, good food, good place to meet with friends.

25 Unfortunately, this only passes for good Thai food to those who haven't really experienced good Thai food. Really, all dishes I tried were just mediocre – will keep searching for good Thai in the Cleveland area. I guess I was spoiled by living in NYC.

26 Kept waiting in a line for a Buffett at entrance for 20 minutes ... No excuses!!!)

Dumb dumb

28 Food is decent. Good environment. Had Sunday brunch here with friends and we left feeling pretty satisfied

29 Service was bad, no offer of second drink.., was definitely not gourmet. Greasy burgers & heartburn. Would not return for free dinner.

30 I love the Tropic Treat and Apple smoothies both are good and good for you. The sandwiches are also fresh and I love that they don't skimp on the avocado.

31 Food was really good. They accepted the YELP discount without question. I will definately go back.

32 Love this place! Good food – yummy burgers and wraps, cheap beer, and I've never had to wait for a seat.

33 A nice place to relax with friends, grab a beer and watch the game, or just grab a quick bite at lunch – this restaurant is classy while still laid back. I've only been once, but their Crab Cakes were delicious, and I received pretty good service. Not great – but good.

- 34 It's a country style diner, seems to be a local hangout food was good, service was quick. About $8-12 for lunch.
- 35 Nice Mom & Pop restaurant to dine at good food quick service... Will be dining here again
- 36 Burger is excellent, TVs are plentiful and a decent beer list. The service was very very good. However it was a slow night.
- 37 Excellent food! I had a really good hanger steak and green salad. Very good menu. Good drinks menu. I would definitely recommend this restaurant to anyone. Very family friendly with excellent service. Good food!
- 38 Went there with a group of nine on Thursday for first time. Group had wings and burgers and all were great. Great service, good beer, and good atmosphere.

Several from group plan on going back so very good sign. I definitely will go back.

- 39 Super cool decor, definitely entertains while you wait on the food. Good service, good quality food and good portions. Loved the dessert. Overall, nice place.
- 40 St. Louis Ribs were awesome! Best ribs I've had in a while. Peach dumpling (cobbler) was really good, not too sweet!
- 41 Service is good, food is ok, ayran-yogurt drink was with added water. Plates are super old that's why they look dirty.
- 42 Very good to excellent food and beverages. Good service. Pretty dim lighting. The first time I visited, I was seated for dinner at the bar — in front of a very large protruding pipe. Ridiculous idea! No room at the bar for dining — ask for a table.
- 43 The food is good the drinks are good. But what really sets this place apart are the employees! Holy crap! Summa the best people you'll meet. That's why I come back just about every day.
- 44 Just a solid place to grab some beers with friends. Good food and good beers...
- 45 Came here on a visit to Vegas. We were all craving thai food and went off reviews closest to our friends house.

This place had pretty good food. Pad thai was really good and the rice as well. Papaya salad was fresh and refreshing.

I just wish the green curry and pad see ew were a little bit more sweet. But otherwise, good (takeout) thai food. Would definitely go back. Service was very good too.

- 46 good burgers, a wide variety of stuff, excellent fries, and good prices. i will be stopping in whenever i'm at the cedar lee!
- 47 Good German food with a wide selection of German and bavarian foods. Lots of handmade pastries as well.
- 48 Great service, food was good only good Chinese food around Aurora check it out if ur in town
- 49 Love this place. The Dagwood and hard hat are both awesome and cheap for the portion. Definitely recommend.
- 50 Good food, good beer, nice people. I had the tuna soft tacos which were very good. The burgers looked great — next time. Can get a little loud, but that's OK (for me at least.) We'll be back. Got to swing by for the weekday $14 - 6 PM oyster special. Can't beat that.

- 51 Good teriyaki chicken bowl for a decent price. They don't have the best spicy teriyaki sauce but it isn't bad. Glad this place is in the area and will be back for sure.
- 52 Very convenient to our location. Good has an authentic fill with good portions! I also enjoyed jasmine tea.
- Love the spring rolls , egg rolls and the vermicelli bowls with Pork , beef , shrimp And egg rolls . The combo fried Rice was also excellent. My new fav!!!
- 53 Not a bad place of been in Ballantyne forever. One of the original Ballin time hotspots you kick around here decent wings very good beer and the staff is decent parking can be a bad.
- 54 Love it here! Good wifi , good drinks , good Caesar salad. Two thumbs up. The only thing that's a little weird is the layout—feels kind of unfinished. I've come here to work several times , and will definitely come back.
- 55 Great place to have sushi , scallops nigiri was good with little twist of fried garlic on the top . Sashimi combo have good selection of fresh good fishes. And last but not least sake menu is awesome .
- 56 I stayed in the area for the weekend. The Airbnb owner suggested I try this place and I was pleasantly surprised at how good it was.
- 57 The food and service was awesome. I had the Cajun pork chops and the seasoning was just right. All the sides were great and for desert the strawberry pie was wow .
- The prices were very good, my first time there , definitely not the last.
- 58 Holy shit! Hidden gem, giant fresh bowls of nutrients that taste as good as they are for you! Enjoy! Guilt free!!
- 59 Don't come here. Had a glance at the kitchen and the dirty oven. Ugh...so sad for pizza. I thought this place was good and clean.
- 60 Yardhouse is always a good time. There was about a 30 minute wait to get a table but that's to be expected after a Cardinals game. The beer was good, the food was just alright , hence the 4 stars. Service was also good.
- 61 Nice staff. The coffee was good. Loved the location of this cafe. Ambience and decor is great. Keep up the good work!
- 62 Disappointed! I really wanted this to be my Saturday breakfast place. Waited 1 hr for meal ... Bad bad coffee. Good food once it finally came. The search is on for Saturday breakfast.
- 63 Lazy Dog never disappoints! I go to their locations in Southern California whenever I am there in business. I brought my relatives here to the location in Las Vegas. They are from Philadelphia. They loved it! Very diverse menu for all sorts of palates. And, a very good selection of gluten free items in the menu. My cousin from Philly is gluten free and really appreciated the attention to GF offerings that Lazy Dog offers. Our server , Christian , who also randomly is from the Philadelphia area was great! And very attentive to the needs of not only the adults in our group but the little children too! Thank you Lazy Dog!
- 64 Very nice and friendly staff. Food is always fresh and yummy. Good neighborhood spot for romantic quick getaway with my hubby.
- 65 The place is in between A-Ok and I'm a fan , I take pizza pretty seriously. Customer service was good, the price was okay, the pizza was fresh and the location was great with parking.

- 66 1st visit , young girl sitting on counter with feet on counter with no shoes , yuck, always out of donuts here , always poor service . Never again for me, Krispy creame here I come
- 67 Just ordered crab wontons and orange chicken. The wontons were stale and very fishy , the chicken was low quality and over cooked. Overpriced as well
- 68 Watery coleslaw and rubbery fish. Good service and good drink menu.
- 69 This place is good. The beef bulogi (sorry for the spelling) is my favorite. Not as great as certain places downtown but for a Scarborough sushi joint , pretty good. The bento boxes are good too and I don't mind the maki rolls. Overall a good place to grab a meal.
- 70 Bad service , never come again , the order person was no patience at all. VERY BAD! She was nice to English speaker customer. (I speak mandarin anyway)
- 71 Came here back when I lived in the area for a couple of decent veggie rolls. Some seating , cheap prices and decent customer service.
- 72 Bad service bad food. Never again , if you are thinking about going here do yourself a favor and change your plans.
- 73 Very good Chinese and Korean food! My husband and I love their lunch specials! The food is tasty and service is great. The workers are friendly and welcoming. Great location , parking , and food. Will be back (again
- 74 Good craft beer ,especially IPA's. I like the Oompa Loompa, and a handful of others. Food is very good ,big ass portions lol
- 75 Shit service. I stood in line for an hour and a half. Made me a halfway decent overpriced salad. Gave me 3 falafel instead of 5. Not impressed.
- 76 Great pizza , cheap prices! Will definitely be back!
Staff is friendly and food came out quick.
- 77 Great happy hour! We came for drinks after work which were all pretty good. We didn't eat but the food looked good and the prices were decent. The wait staff was attentive and we never went without a drink which is always appreciated!
- 78 Doesn't offer complementary water cups. Extremely slow staff. Unprofessional staff. Unclean facilities. Low quality food. Doesn't offer complementary water cups. Extremely slow staff. Unprofessional staff. Unclean facilities. Low quality food. Doesn't offer complementary water cups. Extremely slow staff. Unprofessional staff. Unclean facilities. Low quality food.
- 79 1st time here. Had stuffed mushrooms which were very good. Had veal parmigiana with a side of spaghetti. Creme Br le for desert. Very good meal.
- 80 Excellent friendly service. Food is just ok, not good enough for us to return. We had Fettucini Alfredo (sauce tasted and looked like a mix) and baked ziti. Ziti was over cooked but the meatball was pretty good.
- 81 Nice friendly service and food order arrived quick and fresh n tasty ramen xo tail and ramen mince pork was yummys...
- 82 Really good Italian in a very charming space. Good for a quiet dinner. Very good wine list. Friendly staff.

- 83 Always a friendly environment. Best tacos around! My daughter n nephew are 10-6 love the menu, a good variety for children as well as adults! Nice family restaurant decent prices.
- 84 Good place. Full service bar. We ordered the margarita pizza. Good drinks and awesome strawberry shots. Friendly waiter. I'd definitely go back.
- 85 They deliver. They're friendly. I think they're pizza is some nice hand tossed goodness. Chewy, crunchy, cheesy, and good sauce.
- 86 Cheap rolls. Decent service. All I want is a cheap yellowtail roll and tuna roll. And this place does it!
- 87 Good burgers.

Wife has regular beef with pepper jack.
 I had pimento cheese, bacon, mayo, and BACON JAM!
 Whoa. The Bacon Jam gets the extra star!

Good Fried Pickles. Ok fries.

- 88 Food was great...just a little pricey in the end.

Appetizers:

Calamari - pretty good. Get the Rhode Island style with the peppers.
 Tempura soft shell crab - this was pretty damn good.
 Kumamoto oysters - delish!

Entrees:

Our friends ordered the lobster roll and seafood trio. They said the lobster roll was decent and the seaweed salad was the best ever. We shared the steak and shrimp combo. The steak was super tender and flavorful...and the grilled shrimp was absolutely delicious.

- 89 Very good burgers, fries, and shakes. Other people have said they have good steak and cheese sandwiches. Parking situation is not very good.
- 90 Wow, just watched the girl who takes the pizza out of the oven and puts them on the bar tie up her hair wipe her nose and and clean pizza she dropped on the floor without washing her hands and just keep touching food contact surfaces. This place should be closed. Totally dirty.
- 91 I am staying at the Hampton Inn and stopped in to get a burger before the MNF game. The staff were really nice and promptly asked to seat me.

I ordered their regular cheeseburger with fries. For $9, this was a really good deal and it was prepared well.

I appreciate the good service that I was given.

- 92 A unique take on Italian coastal cuisine. Good use of ingredients. Shrimp Ceviche with coconut is awesome. Lots of good flavors and presentation.
- 93 Spring burger is soo good! And I love the big booths an decent drinks.
- 94 Chicken DRY and cheap. Guy behind the counter was a jerk. Bad service and terrible food. Avoid.

- 95 A hole in the wall spot with incredible tacos and service. A great place for a quick lunch!
- 96 My colleagues and I all got different gyro plates. they were all hella good and very reasonably priced. The place was clean and staff was friendly.

If I lived in the area this would definitely be a routine stop for me. Good luck fellas , .

- 97 Love the California Roll and Miso Soup, cheap prices too.
- 98 Zz
- 99 Very nice space. Service was good but they were closing soon and mine was the only table. Homemade veggie rice soup was excellent as was the coffee. BLT was very good but a little pricey at $9.95. Overall very satisfied. I will be back.
- 100 Mmmm yummy in my tummy!!! Got the regular chicken katsu plate and it was GOOD!!!! The chicken was super crispy and cooked perfectly! Katsu sauce was really good and had the perfect amount of spice! Wish I had the recipe for their macaroni salad , mmmm!!
I'll definitely be back next time I'm in Vegas!

1.2 Efficiency Wage (Friendliness) Outcome

1.2.1 High Values

- 1 Food was good, a few things have changed menu- wise, since the move from the old diner. Hostess was not friendly or inviting. The face of a restaurant really is important to create the vibe of the dining experience. Decent service, could be more friendly.
  - 2 Great food! Enchiladas are excellent. The posole is outstanding! Salsas are best we have had in the valley
  - 3 I came here in a raining day, and ordered a soy latte to go. The owner said "it is so cozy inside, why not staying?" It is a nice warm coffee shop.
  - 4 The Starbucks here in the morning goes by super quick. Very friendly and fast. Love it when the workers work well together. A+++ :))
  - 5 Nice staff friendly service taste great
- First visit had cheeseburger and chips I think I recommend the fries over the chips
- 6 Love this place. Friendly, comfortable, and great food. Looove the veggie burger. Kids go for the pasta, salad, and beans. Outdoor patio in summer.
  - 7 Been there twice. The food was fresh and tasty. The staff was friendly. I hope it stays that way.
  - 8 Definitely a good spot for Mediterranean/Afghan in the East Valley. Great portions, super friendly service and really tasty grub!
  - 9 This location is so unique! The old house and separate patios makes for a comfortable environment. The Bourbon menu is excellent and the service is friendly and professional.
  - 10 Great food and customer service. The host, waitress and cashier were extremely accommodating and friendly. Also love coming here and sitting at the bar. Love the rotating $5 happy hour specials! Especially impressed with the 16 year old working there that was very pleasant and great at his job! One of our local favorites!
  - 11 Food was delicious - very fresh and appealing. Our server Sierra was great - extremely friendly and personable. She deserves backstage passes to NKOTB @ Fenway this summer!! We will be back :)
  - 12 Stopped in for a margarita they only serve beer had a few chips and salsa were good and service was fast and friendly will return
  - 13 Family friendly and good Food! They have games and decent prices it doesn't get better. We are in orlando for vacay and came here twice already. Give it a try you wont regret it. Btw all the staff is super friendly with beautiful smiles and welcoming personalities.
  - 14 We love our local MOD! Great pizza, friendly staff, and they support the local schools with fundraisers.
  - 15 Yummy breakfast sandwiches and fresh donuts! Service was great and friendly. I can't wait to go back!
  - 16 A great place to grab a burger and fries for cheap. Mushroom Swiss is my regular. Quick friendly service too.
  - 17 Great little place at the bottom of the landmark towers on central and Camelback. Great beer options and friendly staff.
  - 18 Authentic, tasty Italian food with attentive, friendly service.

While the seats are worn-in and the decor is nothing fancy, Franco's has a cozy atmosphere with an intimate feel. The servers are all very friendly, and most importantly, the food is very tasty and flavorful. I had a pizza and a pesto pasta with Italian sausage. I was thoroughly satisfied with both dishes, and I will definitely be back to Franco's for some authentic Italian cuisine!

19 I love this place ! I deliver here weekly and the employees are all friendly and always willing to help !!!

20 If you want good, healthy tacos, this is the place! The line gets long, so get there early! The place is extremely clean and the employees warm and welcoming.

21 Food was excellent for a buffet.

Great variety and fresh.

Lots of staff and some were friendly.

Would go back

22 Went there while visiting Calgary.

Everything was great there, fast and friendly service and the food was very good.

23 Such a friendly and warm atmosphere! My friend and I visited for the first time; Abraham and everyone else are so welcoming!!! We sat at the one of the traditional tables and ordered the veggie special. It's meant for 2+ people, and we weren't able to finish all the food. So good and definitely recommend/will be coming back when I'm in the area again. Thank you for your hospitality!

24 BEST BISCUITS AND GRAVY IN VEGAS...thus far in my food journey!! Scrambled eggs were fluffy and the family owned, friendly vibe is amazing!!

25 This is real BBQ. Smoked and tender and delicious. Very friendly and helpful wait staff. Spicy green beans are great 26 Service was great wait staff friendly and food arrived fairly quick. However, food was just average at best.

27 It was fun! Historic house, nice patio, friendly service. Give it a shot!

28 Wow! Wonderful country cooking. Defiantly glad we chose to eat here.

The atmosphere is wonderful and the service friendly and excellent.

29 Clean, fast, inexpensive and omg tasty! Friendly service, friendly employee's. This is the only one I have eaten at here in AZ but it is by far a wonderful taste bud teaser! Fresh everything and not one messed up order in 8 visits.

30 Wonderful friendly service and super-yummy food. LOVE the pho (vegetarian) on a cold drab night.

31 Friendly and fast!! If you are ever in the area, you should definitely stop!!

32 Updated

33 Absolutely the BEST pizza I have had! Sal and the staff are awesome and friendly.

34 Awesome food! I recommend the Farm burger. Staff very friendly. Atmosphere has a nice vibe.

35 Fun place for the whole family, lots to do and kid friendly. Lots of designer shops and great restaurants.

36 Reasonable prices and friendly staff here. Not the best pho in the city but convenient in the area and good for a quick bite.

- 37 Great burgers: great selection and cooked properly! Nice, friendly service. Great value in Brookline/Brighton.
- 38 Great pies and skilletts!

They service is quick and friendly too.

I highly recommend, especially the key lime pie.

- 39 Excellent array of choices to build your own salad and not just a run-of-the-mill place either. Warm, inviting and cozy with awesome choices of menu options or totally build your own and see what you get while being freshly made. Huge number of dressings to boot. If you're a salad friendly person, this spot rocks!
- 40 Fast and convenient. Friendly employees and fast service. Open parking lot. The layout is pretty simple so you don't waste time finding stuff
- 41 Quiet comfortable and high class place .. the Double apple hookah was amazing .. I would recommend it .. the best hookah in Tempe
- 42 Awesome place. Thanks Omni Hotel for introducing me to a great distillery with tasty drinks and friendly, welcoming staff!!
- 43 Great food, pleasant atmosphere, friendly staff. Remember it's cash only.
- 44 Simple, fast, good, and friendly! This is one of my favorite places to eat. The staff is super friendly and food prices are cheap.
- 45 Totties on Scottsdale RD (T2) has the best cocktails. Kenta creates a new, lively, masterpiece every week!
- 46 Amazing gem in the Pearl. The food is simply amazing and the staff is always warm and welcoming. Give this place a try!
- 47 Friendly place to hang out wth some friends and get some drinks. I haven't ordered from here to sit down and eat but the bartenders are usually very friendly and attentive.
- 48 Went with a large group on Friday afternoon to watch NCAA basketball games. Sat in the balcony upstairs and had a great view of all 5 games on TV. Ordered the Yinzer-rogies, which were incredible. Great atmosphere for watching sports.
- 49 Fun, lots of seating, friendly staff, decent margaritas & food. Has a little bit of everything food wise.
- 50 Great vibe, super - over the top friendly and the coffee is the best. I am a die hard Starbucks fan, but this coffee was better than Starbucks and the people were just as warm and friendly.

Thanks for the great latte!

- 51 Great brews and friendly staff. I suggest trying a flight so you can get the full experience.
- 52 Tastiest lamb I've ever had. Friendly staff and management. Comfortable environment. Conveniently located in beaverton.
- 53 Best crab cakes I have ever had!! And I have tried many! Friendly, fast service. Bob will be back!!
- 54 First time here and the staff were super friendly and coffee was quick and tasty. Starbuck prices. Would definitely go back.
- 55 Came here on a Monday evening with my wife and one-year-old. The staff was extremely friendly and accommodating. We will definitely be back!

- 56 Black Rock is one of my go to coffee places in downtown Vancouver. Always friendly, and the coffee is always good.
- 57 I love their beef bulgogi and pork bone soup!!! Small but decent place. Always busy.. Friendly staff
- 58 This was an easy spot, super friendly staff, good food and amazing beer. Sit outside, nice little spot.
- 59 Nice 24 location w/ hot food, pressed sandwiches, quick and friendly employees. Try the $1 pizza available during the days, excellent crust.
- 60 I've had 2 Benny's. My friends have had 2 Benny's, and so on.... Every one PERFECTION! And pancakes so good, you don't need butter. Oh yeah... did I mention Great coffee? Amazing staff. Kid friendly, gluten free friendly, vegetarian friendly. This spot is not to be missed. My new fave breakfast spot.
- 61 Great beers and friendly staff! This was stop #1 on our self-directed beer tasting tour. The staff was really friendly and helped us plan our next stop. Very friendly guys. We will come back again!
- 62 The food was amazing. I had the lobster linguine - highly recommend. The service was fairly slow but the staff were friendly.
- 63 Love this place! Everything is so delicious and the staff is always so friendly! I will definitely continue to come back!
- 64 Super friendly staff and fresh coffee makes me very happy!! One of the perks of moving to this side of town.
- 65 I really enjoyed my experience at Aggie's the staff is friendly and the food was great.
- 66 Burgers yesss chicharon and beans noooooooo Friendly bartender with great drinks yaaaas
- 67 This place is awesome. The brothers are so welcoming and friendly, if you go often they will greet you by name.
- The pizza is excellent.
- 68 Had Japanese Whiskey with my buddy for the first time. Helpful friendly staff. Thanks.
- 69 Food was excellent, affordable, dessert was totally delicious. Staff couldn't have been friendlier
- 70 Best charcuterie in Toronto hands down,
The staff is helpful and super friendly and the drinks are tasty as well!
It's a Must try!
- 71 Great food. Varied menu. Knowledgeable and friendly staff. Great place before a show at PlayHouse, or just any other night.
- 72 Went there recently. Out of towners found this cafe with friendly service and great food.
- 73 Good food, friendly/helpful staff...when things go awry, and they do, they always try their best...food is good....cute place.
- 74 All top quality at this spot! Love the egg sausage and cheese breakfast bagel... Very friendly staff also
- 75 I've only showed up here on quiet nights and I really enjoy the atmosphere. I like that it's tucked away and they have a spaghetti night on Sunday which is a plus. Nice spot to sit outdoors on a warm evening.
- 76 Great spot! I loved watching the planes and listening to the regulars chat about their flying adventures. The food was simple and good, quick and friendly.

- 77 What a great surprise to find this classy gem! Amazing crepes and friendly atmosphere! Not to mention bottomless mimosas! Maggie is the best.
- 78 Great sushi!! Our go to spot here in the NW side of town. Quick, fast, friendly service and great atmosphere.
- 79 If you like corporate chains with corporate food, warm glasses and tons of TVs come here or skip the drive and stay in a strip mall in Broomfield!

This is an awesome illustration of how to serve fried mediocrity coupled with warm beer. Great for Parent's Weekend, especially if those parents are most familiar with strip-mall food. And did I mention the warm beer? So good.

- 80 Great food, fresh and friendly service. Best Italian restaurant in North West Las Vegas.

Inconsistent service

- 81 Best place ! Friendly environment !amazing food. And the space has a positive vibe :) my favourite spot in the area!
- 82 Great food, friendly service, food was prepared quickly, clean environment, lots of seating inside & outside – definitely recommend!
- 83 LOOOVE short leash! Great service, super friendly staff and delicious dogs!!
- 84 Pleasant experience in this location; I used the drive-thru. It was a busy Saturday evening and the staff was still friendly and efficient. The food was also well prepared. Will be returning to this location when I'm in the area!
- 85 Delicious and warm Cinnabon's! Got a traditional with bananas and strawberries was amazing!
- 86 Very friendly service and great prices!! Not to mention the food is AMAZING!! The steak and calamari bento box is delightful!
- 87 Great place for sushi, hot pot and all your Asian favorites. Owners are friendly and helpful. Try it, you will love it!
- 88 I love this place. The food is always good and the service is normal. Friendly staff.
- 89 It's a busy location, but they don't let that keep them from being friendly, accurate and the store clean.
- 90 Best Restaurant experience in my life! Ambiance, cleanliness, friendly servers, food was EXCELLENT and management super attentive!!! My new favorite place!
- 91 GOOD FOOD!

Fast and Friendly!

There is not usually a line unless you on Fridays when they have $5/Fridays

- 92 Try this place.... great atmosphere. Upbeat and clean. Staff is super friendly. Food is really good. I had a bowl of Ox Tail Pho. Prices are friendly also. This is a must do again !
- 93 This is now one of my favorite Greek restaurants! The atmosphere is nice and comfortable. The food was fantastic. I had the Spanakorizo with the chicken! It came with a small salad which was the perfect addition. The service was excellent and the owner is very friendly. Next time I am going to try the baklava for dessert.
- 94 Friendly customer service, good choice of music, and great quality of food. I'll definitely be back for AYCE! :)

95 This is a small tea place which is cozy and warm. It's more of a hipster vibe. The staff is very helpful and the afternoon tea is decent.

96 The food is really good and staff very friendly certain items tend to be a little too greasy but always yummy.

97 I dream about the cauliflower wrap and the French Fry wrap. The owner is super friendly and helpful!

98 A great 'Dive!' Expect to see AB here!

Burger special cheaper than MickeyD's.

Hangout close to medical complex. Sports bar and more.

Friendly staff.

99 This bar is very friendly with good energy! Food is good although somewhat slow when it is busy.

100 Portions are huge, the food is delicious, staff is friendly. Would come again.

1.2.2 Low Values

1 3 months have passed since my first review and my order is still wrong like 95% of the time. Seriously I think it's been correct twice. Ridiculous.

2 Service is terrible!!!! The staff completely ignore you and have no manners. I ordered some noodles with chicken and vegetables and got the most disgusting dish I've ever seen in my life. The noodles were so oily and bland and the chicken was boiled and chopped into messy disgusting oily pieces and the "vegetables" was some dirty bok choy. I threw it all away I almost threw up. How is this place in business? And why do they only take cash??

3 Came to Orlando for a week for business. Ordered food (4 rolls) from here at 11am she told me the food would arrive by 1pm. Called at 1pm through 2pm and the 20 times I called, they all went to voicemail.....

Finally they came around 2pm telling me they're really busy cus of the show (no shit that's what I'm here to work)

Their service is horrible and their food is too mediocre for them to be acting like that.

Hopefully this review speaks for itself.

If you like horrible service that takes 3 hours and cold food, then order here.

4 This is a pretty cool spot the meal was good the place was clean the people were very polite and courteous, would definitely recommend and visit again.

5 You do not yell at customers from across the restaurant telling them that the bar isn't open seating. You go over to them and politely tell them unfortunately the bar isn't open seating but we would be happy to put you on the wait list. Great managing!!

6 One of my favorites. Can't get enough of the singing and raw joke. And pints of Guinness.

7 $12 for a weak pour of Jim Beam on the rocks. Are you kidding?!
Totally ludicrous.

8 So rude...

The worker who the tallest and wear black glasses is so rude.

She always says something after somebody order beverage.

It is so uncomfortable....

9 Mickey Ds in a Gas Station. Need i say more??

10 The food was terrible, & the attitude of the people that worked there was even worse. Rude, rude, rude! No wonder the place is always empty. If you're thinking about eating there...don't. Two doors down is Londi's. Great food, great service.

11 Place has gone down the tubes. Never will eat here again. Rude employees and food hasn't tasted right

12 Bathrooms were disgusting, service was slow and horrible. The waiter was nice but forgot about us half Way through and we sat for 45 min waiting for a check. No manager ever addressed our concerns.

13 11:30 in the PM. All I wanted outta life was a /:;) $&@ hamburger. Kitchen can't make a burger after 11:30PM. Dumb.

14 The food is good, but it's way too crowded, and the people who go to this restaurant, on average, are loud and annoying and get worse as they finish their bottle of wine.

Overrated.

15 I just want to give this restaurant zero star! Rude manager and terrible service! Just terrible, truly terrible.

16 I took my sweater off when I was dancing with my boyfriend and the bouncer approached me to ask that I put it back on because my tank top was too revealing, however there were many girls there wearing a LOT less. It felt a lot like homophobic discrimination, so we left immediately. The posts on their FB page alleging racist attacks don't surprise me.

17 The food was okay but the service was awful. We sat down at a table previously occupied by two people and the waiter thought we were them and didn't wait on us. We had to ask him to wipe the table down and bring us menus. He never did bring our requested water. He brought food but we didn't have silverware and had to ask another waiter for some as our waiter disappeared until we finally asked for the bill. We were definitely an afterthought to him.

18 The service was really bad. We came at 930, 1 hour before their close...yet the waiter was very rude and sarcastic with us. I had to ask for water since they didn't serve. And when I asked for hot sauce, very rudely he was like anything else...food was okay, had to re order quesadillas since cheese wasn't even melted. I would never come again and try other Mexican restaurants in the area.

19 Called to place an order over the phone and the man answering was very rude. I'm staying at a hotel and there's nothing with the address of the hotel and the man on the phone wants to discuss the issue with another man and both are laughing. Saying things like "how she going to pay" "how she in a hotel and not know the address" laugh laugh. This business is horrible!

20 This place is a joke. Really terrible service and a kitchen run by light weights! I will never go here again.

- 21 Worst milk tea ever, the bubbles were all too soft and tasted ridiculous. And they refused to offer me a refund. How funny is that
- 22 I am just going to say 4 words.

Texas Martini & Queso Compuesto

I heart Chuy's. Keep Austin Weird.

- 23 Who doesn't love loud music, loud smyrnites, the greatest bartenders in Smyrna town! This place has served its purpose on more than one occasion. It's family, comfortable and the margaritas are the best!
- 24 The customer service here is horrible. I walked into the restaurant only to be greeted by a cashier who seemed too busy operating the register to notice me. After several moments there, she finally decided to take my order by awkwardly staring at me until I decided to say something. After placing the to go order, they gave me no directions as to where I could pick up my food, or where to wait, or any directions at all. The cashier simply printed the receipt and handed it to me. Throughout the entire transaction she never said a word. Terrible service.
- 25 First the food are test so bad! The scallops are tasteless! what I had ordered are all so bad! There manager is so rude! She made my lovely dinner into misery!! Bad experience! Warning everyone don't go there!
- 26 Super condescending service. We likely never come back. Pretty disappointing seems like a cool environment however rude service does not make up for decor. The guy was so rude infact I couldn't place an order before I lost all interest and dining there. Finding a new bartender/server would do the business a considerable favor.
- 27 Just ordered from here and the lady who was making my sandwich was apparently off work...because she left it sitting on the counter before it was finished and just walked away without saying a thing. The guy who ended up finishing mine was nice..but her attitude is ridiculous.
- 28 Unless you want the part owner to practically fall onto your table from being so belligerently drunk, and then try to fight your friend, don't come here. We just came to watch our favorite team, have some drinks, eat some food, and we felt like we were back at a sloppy college bar. Absolutely ridiculous.
- 29 I also got a nasty message from the waiter I had here so yelpers beware, save yourself the hassle and don't bother eating here. I have a friend who lives in the greenhouse apartments and she told me she never eats there either because of how bad the food is!
- 30 Food is really good, portions are big so opportunity to share or binge :-). Kids meals are excellent. Too bad there was a complete uncouth mouth breather moron behind us who swore and belched out loud the entire time. I mean seriously who belches out loud when they aren't 19 and at a frat party?
- 31 Five stars for the tea and selection and two stars for snotty hipster condescending staff. Really, greatest tea, but man the place is like an episode of Baskets.

- 32 Awww damn!! I couldn't wait for my Stromboli to show up via Uber eats. To my disappointment, my damn Stromboli was a spongy mess. What I thought was cheese was actually uncooked dough. Gushy play-dough. Fuck it. I ate the filling....carb free night I guess. Go keto
- 33 Had our engagement party here, and let me say they pretty much ruined it. RUDE bartenders, absolutely no help, made us change the date at the last minute because they had a wedding party that was paying them more. Didn't apologize. Awful. And the beer sucks too.
- 34 Drove up at 5:15 and sat in the drive thru for 40 mins. When I arrive I ask, "Busy night?" Glassy-eyed she replies, "Yeah." I look and there is NO ONE IN THE LOBBY. The employees were mulling about laughing and carrying on with each other completely oblivious of the fact that they were at work being paid to perform a job duty. People like this are a drain on society and are what gives Popeye's a bad name. Were are capable of better,
- 35 Basically food is bad here. Tried their breakfast lunch afternoon tea and dinner. It's consistent as the food really do that bad. Service is alright but the waitresses hygiene is bad. Rubbing nose scratching faces and hand you the food with their dirty fingers and thumb touching the surface of plate or inside of bowl.

On word to describe this store : AVOID

36 This by far THEEEEE worst BK ever!!!!

So I'm headed to work, decided to get a bigger and drink, older lady said she was rebooting her computer and will be -13 min, ok no problem, I'm early, another lady pulled to 2nd speaker, same speech, but it's been 3-5 min, she waited 1 min pulled to window and placed her order, so now I'm pissed not only did I wait patiently UNTIL I made it to the window, no apology just rush n rude, I said that was very unprofessional to have me wait all that time and let someone who came 5 min later to order before me and I STILL had to wait until she got her order. I asked for the Mgr his racist self didn't want to come to the window, the cashier told him I wanted free fries and I'm holding up her drive thru, he came over and told I need to make up my mind!!! I'm like for what???? He threw his hands up told me to leave his drive thru.

I would NEVER come back to this nasty prostitute infested racist location no matter if they gave me $1,000

37 Not a bad place for your bar hop along Dirty 6th.

Music was solid and the bartop is always available for girls to dance on!

Drinks were not price gauged either.

38 As I was ordering for my food to be DELIVERED!The guy was telling he doesn't know how long it will take my food to be delivered because their delivery was just now coming to work...? Umm okay.. and then 30 minutes later they called me back and tell me to pick up my food!!! Like aren't you known for you "FAST" delivery???

Shouldn't you always have a delivery person on duty?? Plus when I went to pick it up he charged me for delivery too!!! When I ask for the delivery fee back he sighed and said I GUESS..!!!! Wow screw that not eating here again EVER!

39 The food is good and the guy helping us was nice, he had a hickey in the middle of his throat and that was a little distracting but whatever. Another guy came out from the back and had a neck full of dark red bloody hickeys all over his neck, from ear to ear, and that's hella tacky and looks super trashy.

40 Just had lunch and ordered the special Beef noodle soup. I asked for the Pho rice noodles (ho fun) but instead got thin vermicelli. When I told them they gave me the wrong noodles, the waitress freaked out and started saying that vermicelli is Rice noodles and it is ho fun. Instead of apologizing, she kept yelling and trying to point out that I'm wrong. Obviously, she does not know her types of noodles. Store owner needs to train their staffs better.

Food was ok, more Chinese than true viet. One star for bad customer service and rudeness. Parking area is terrible.

41 SIT AT THE BAR!!! Food was subpar, but the bartender was amazing! I laughed the whole time I was there. The f*ing ugly truth is sometimes needed. Tampa will definitely be back for the service & guac.

42 Today was the third occasion with a ruined meal. Our office decided to give it a second (and final) chance today. The chicken in my salad was STILL FROZEN. The management is rude and unapologetic, no matter how many times, documented, that they have gotten our orders wrong. We will not be back.

43 I'm sorry but I haven't had this bad of a meal in a while. If you read my reviews they are all about good experiences. This is because if something is mediocre I don't even review it. I feel bad for the place and give them a break. This however was such a terrible food experience that I had to write about it. The food was just bad and tasteless and we had soup an appetizer and an entree each. Not only that but I personally had one of the more expensive entree's in the menu. The Tom Ka Gai soup was ok, the appetizer which were just dumplings btw were horrible. I have had better frozen dumplings if that tells you anything. My entree was tasteless and the small piece of what they claimed to be Pan-seared Sea Bass tasted more like Tilapia plus it was tough and tasteless. Very disappointing.....Ugh 44 Terrible service went to door and wasn't able to get service. When I called they answered and just said sorry we don't know why it said 2:30 am ..

That's just crazy to me.

45 If i could give zero stars i would. The most horrible customer service i have ever had. We got there at 7:20 pm, we got our sandwiches, soup, and drinks at 7:40 pm, we were the only patrons in the restaurant at the time. The sandwiches were cold having sat outside the toaster for about 10 mins while the employees could care less about them. The person who dressed our cold sandwiches was rude. The girl who initially took our order was so freaking rude and had tons of attitude i was prepared to walk out. I had to ask if someone was going to ring us up and she rolled her eyes at me, then when i asked about our soup, she sighed loudly, i said we can leave if thats a problem and she said in a snotty voice, not a problem and went and got one soup. Thats when i realized the other soup was sitting on a tray the whole 20 minutes we had been waiting, it was barely warm from sitting. I am disgusted with this restaurant and will never be back. The fact she couldnt complete our order without attitude says that this place doesnt care. All of them should be fired for such horrible service and attitudes. I hope you all go out of business!!

46 Reminds me of plane meals. Only worst than plane meals. Made me feel sick because it's not really fresh.

47 Raw shrimp was disgusting and dangerous!! Cold egg rolls and doughnuts too... warmer probably unplugged or broken. First and last time

48 I ordered a sandwich and there were literally no costumers in the store and they still forget about my order and remake the order wrong. When I ask to get a refund they said there were not refund due to manager wasn't there at the moment. Very bad experience and customer services.

49 Terribly rude delivery boy with cleft lip rude talking down to me disgusted that I was the Customer saying stuff like how did you find out about us in a way as if he was shocked I found them thier rice was greasy and had to much soy sauce the dumplings was ok but I won't be eating thier again seems like thier looking for more of a all American customer base my husband is white (marine) I'm black but if only you seen how rude he was to me and disgusted by me your mouth would have dropped eat here at your own risk

a compter de 12 personnes ce sympathique cafÃ  peut devenir un endroit prive pour votre groupe le soir

51 The old lady at the checkout is extremely RUDE! The manager is ever more RUDE! Stay away from this store at all costs!

52 They have the best prepared salads but I just can't see spending such outrageous prices just for the Whole Foods Experience... which is shopping among pretentious, arrogant, tree-hugging snobs that are rude and obnoxiously unfriendly...I'll shop in Marin for that!!!

53 Bad bad bad. Just waiting for someone to get sick. Really sick. Mongolian BBQ has been sitting all day. Grill was still clean and food not touched. Lettuce was brown and wilted. Noodles were dried out and turning brown. Beef and chicken had a white film on them.

54 Not bad, not great. I think I've just been spoiled by Los Tacos' carne asada. This place wasn't bad, but I probably would choose somewhere else first. Their burritos are full of beans and rice. I just want the meat!

55 I had the porchetta. It was Ok. Not much flavor. The meet was pretty greasy. I guess it just needed some salt.

56 Everything about this place was wrong. The staff was rude. The entire restaurant is dirty. The food is disgusting (soggy tempura, no flavour, under cooked shrimp, etc.). Needless to say that both my girlfriend and I got sick from this meal. Asked for a soft drink and was handed a dirty can, no glass. Served sushi that was prepared differently than described on the menu. Had to ask three times for ginger and wasabi. The entire restaurant was disgusting and dirty. I took pictures of the derelict state it was in along with the food stains on the walls and the carpet that looks like it can infect you with the bubonic plague just by looking at it. It seemed as if all the chairs and benches were different... this normally wouldn't really matter but they were all in terrible shape (pictures posted). DO NOT EAT HERE! There are better restaurants and if you absolutely want to eat at Kanda, eat at the one in Rosemere. It's not much further and at least they make an effort...

- 57 Such a sad looking Walgreens. This location is badly in need of a remodel. Plus, the floors were filthy and customer service representatives virtually nonexistent. Lastly, pharmacists were rude and condescending when I went to pickup my prescription.
- 58 waited for half an hour for a dish of Chicken Kobab! NO bread, NO salad, LITTLE meat. UNBELIEVABLE! Water smelt bad! The food tasted bad! NEVER go again!
- 59 had the chili and was quite bland. wife said Swiss chard dish was good. Annoying staffer at counter would yell out orders at top of lungs. Would try one more time...
- 60 DONT GO TO THIS LOCATION!

I have gone to this location several times and have had no issues. I am not sure if management has change in the last few weeks but, as of late this has not been the case. A few weeks back I went through the drive thru and was told to wait up front and they would bring me my food. Instead they have my order to someone else, forgot about me and made me wait over 15 minutes. Most recently I went through the drive thru again and placed my order. The boy taking my order told me he couldn't hear me, so I raised my voice. He cut me off told me not to scream then gave me attitude. I had to repeat my order again. I wanted to sub curly fries for the regular fries. I had to repeat this request. Now I've repeated my order twice. Then I said I wanted iced tea. The boy taking the order said his headset cut out. I repeated again. Then he asked me to repeat the order again because he couldn't hear the order. By this time I have told the boy my order 5 times. The first time, the second time for curly fries and THREE times for the iced tea. This was not a complicated order and the boy was very rude. I did not even stick around to get my food because of constantly having to repeat my order.

- 61 Ugly staff at 1/2 step. Horrible cocktails. I wouldn't recommend going to this place. They have very rude service. Overpriced. They don't allow pets at the bar. Take your business down the street. These guys don't deserve your dollars.
- 62 Food is good. I like their heavy taste. No stupid healthiness. Good Italian has to have plenty of butter, olive oil and cheese.

The guy who took my to-go order kept yelling at me "WHAT ELSE?" after every order I placed as if he was scolding me.

- 63 Ordered online and price was different from when they arrived when I phoned to ask why owner told me to f off
- 64 Jorge the waiter is HORRIBLE, rude the whole time we were there. To much to explain that's how BAD it was.
- 65 Non working phone, rude ass employees

Tried to give this place a second chance and seriously it's absurd.

- 66 A disgusting experience this noon sever with bad food. The manager who has the worst attitude claim that the spoiled food is due to the hot wet weather. I Would not come again
- 67 this was the most bland, tasteless philly I have ever had. Soggy, nasty bell peppers. maybe weekends are fine, but don't do it on a week night !
- 68 Terrible service. No one greeted us and waited several minutes to be seated. The place was empty. First thing I hear from the waitress is what do you want. Upon taking the tables order the rude waitress turns her back on me and walks away, as I looked to the menu to point to want I wanted. Disrespect rude staff that are lazy and uninspiring over priced food. Save your money and go somewhere else.
- 69 Food was ok...salad was great. Their music was too loud and that caused everybody to talk louder! I am not going to Firebirds to listen to piped-in music. Annoying, even after asking the waitress to lower the volume.
- 70 Ordered online for carry out gave me 20 to 30 minutes wait time (9:00pm) and I got there at 8:57 came to see the screen it said about 14'minites linger. Finally got my pizza at 9:20pm! Not happy!!
- 71 I love the food at falafel king but after my last experience there I doubt I'll be back. The girl that was a cashier was so rude, short with the customers and very inconsiderate. I felt uncomfortable even being there. Hands down the most uncomfortable and worst experience I've ever been around
- 72 Way overpriced! Steak was just so so, Margaritas way overprices especially for house booze.

Rattlesnake prepared horrible and the price ridiculous! After making reservations, still had to way for over 1/2 hour for a table.

Sides disgusting! Salad limp and lukewarm. Beans just awful. For a $27.00 steak you shouldn't have to pay extra for a baked potato.

- 73 Horrible service, understaffed & the managers were disgustingly rude. Pizza took 40 minutes to get to me and I'm never coming back here. This has got to be the worst Chuck E. Cheese ever. I had hair in my food it Was ridiculous ! I cannot believe they are still opened. Between the games were old slices of pizza and I even saw a roach! I'm disgusted and can't believe I brought my child here they do not deserve a star .

- 74 Great waitress! Great drinks! This would be a perfect 5 star review if it wasn't for one of the employees. The "manager" was absolutely ridiculous, it seemed as if it was a bother to her that we needed to use the bathroom. She was rude and after overhearing her talking badly about us she then began to harass and verbally attack the people I was with. Ive never seen a more unprofessional employee. Will definitely never be coming back here.

- 75 I miss this place. But only when it was Bub's. Loved those Bub's Balls and happy hour Euker games.

Now it has turned into some gigantic, open, concrete floored oval that the drunk kids can circle aimlessly around until they are drunk enough to run into another kid who is drunk enough to sleep with them.

Not that that is a bad thing for college. ;p

I just miss my little Bub's. I'm mad that you turned it into a bigger, uglier version of KAM'S!

76 Food is popping out of the Kitchen and the waiters look confused. My food came and the portion of the sliders are huge if you get the sausage, it's the size of a burger patty. The potatoes were good, and the presentation of the food all together was great. My waiter didn't come back and ask if I needed anything and the food was pricy. I won't be back again due to the price and service.

$25 for sliders and an orange juice.

77 This place sucks...they gave me shitty stale day old doubles. I called them out on it and they admitted to giving me staled doubles from early morning when they were right around closing time never going back there again.

78 I used to love Abels! Unfortunately, they recently hired a new manager. That manager is unqualified, sexist, and judgmental. I will not be returning.

79 The manager is a so rude like seriously, the food taste old and overlooked each time this place is weak

80 Food was only ok, order was incorrect. Prices ok. Service is awful. Older waitress was the rudest server I have ever encountered. Wait was extraordinarily long. Will never go there again and would never recommend to anyone.

81 By far the worst customer service I have ever received. I phoned in to see the wait time and the gal on the phone said they had a 1-5 minute wait. When we arrived ten minutes later, we were told it was a 3-4 hour wait. The hostess was very snotty and rude.

82 They started off with OK pastry and cake, now they are down to plain disgusting cheese cake and donuts-level produce, and they charge for their irritating pretense.

Avoid !

83 Extra creepy on karaoke night! Some weird customers come in...

84 Horrible Service, was referred by Concierge. Staff unhelpful. Screwed up the order and did not bring complete order. Manager unhappy.

85 The decor is beautiful. The service is exceptional. The music is club level loud, which is too loud for dinner. The food is somewhat pretentious. It appears that more effort is put into the presentation than the preparation. We were a party of 10 for the tasting menu. I don't recall how many course 6 maybe 7. Very difficult to carry on a conversation at a large table when the music is so loud. Presentation of the food is whimsical and fun. Most course were good, nothing exceptional. Deserts were ok.

86 Decent food, seems somewhat overrated. The staff members that took our order was semi-rude and seemed annoyed. Was let down in my expectations of this joint 87 Server with the pony tail is the Café is very rude. Why hire waiters who are not friendly to the customers? You loose money that way. The food is good, but the server with the pony tail needs to go, so rude and nasty to everyone.

88 Horrible experience. Extremely slow service, inattentive staff, very mediocre food. Only plus was the cocktails. To top it off, we were overcharged on the bill.

Stay away if you can.

89 Staff is rude and condescending. Nothing to write home about. Wouldn't spend my money here again...

90 The worst place in las Vegas the owners are rude the food is terrible! The actual location is DIRTY!!!! Avoid this place

91 The waitstaff was incredibly rude 8/17/10...so rude we decided mediocre sushi (at it's best) was not even worth having. I intend to not only discontinue visiting this establishment, but to ensure my friends and family do not either. Thanks for the horrible waitstaff Sushiland!

92 Definitely not worth spending your money and time there. Took me 15 mins for a take out, the food was disgusting nor did the chef filled up the container which annoys me.

93 The guy waiter so rude i ask for check when i have phone call and i ask again and he said oh my god right here wtf i'm the customer .you should learn how to do a waiter and why the owner still keep the rude people work there

94 Terrible customer service. If you like rude cashiers and boiled coffee you'll love this place.

95 This place should be called Cheeseball Factory. The food isn't spectacular but it's edible. You'd go here on a business meeting or you could get a couple of wacky cocktails. Other than that though, I'd stick to the cheesecake which is pretty giant in proportion.

I'm a total snob and a jerk so when I see people in here living their weird domestic lives and getting psyched on eating at a chain restaurant I feel sad inside and then make sarcastic remarks to try to hide how awkward it makes me feel.

96 I've had much better sushi. Surprised at the high rating for this place. The only plus was I didn't get sick!

97 Not worth the trip

Loud .. Noisy atmosphere

Not so great service

Shrimp quesadilla had lil canned

Shrimp and was barely edible

Soooo Greasy and hard to even cut!!

Yuck yuck yuck

Barely unable to converse

The chips were good but the salsa as another

Review mentioned tasted like it came from

A can!!!

Why do some places play loud music on top

Of the LOUD Noise?

Oh, did I mention how HORRIBLE

Of an experience ... Could not even finish

My food ... And NO I did not take it home!

Will I revisit this establishment? GUESS

LOL!!!!

98 Overpriced. Got me sick. The ribs tasted microwaved. 4 lil pieces. A scam. Id like my money back. Im on the toilet again for the 8th time tonight.

- 99 I was a Manager for Popeyes in 2000–2002 after Outback and right before buying my own Steakhouse. We made $60,000 a week and had the BEST FOOD ever! I moved to NC from Maryland 2 years ago and saw one and was excited! My favorite chicken! But the food was HORRIBLE! They should not have the name on the building, for the people here to think this is Popeyes is degrading for the Franchise. Im sorry to have to be so blunt and honest about the place but I love Popeyes NOT this one though!
- 100 My husband & I both got sick from the Friday night fish fry 5/17/19. The walleye & catfish both tasted spoiled. No crispy coating here folks— the fish barely seemed barely done.

1.3 Hygiene Outcome

1.3.1 High Values

1 I really didn't enjoy the meatballs with my spaghetti. They had no seasoning and were spongy with very little texture.

2 Tuesday night:

Male bartender upstairs provided the worst service I've ever had...anywhere. Maybe he was having a bad day, maybe it was Mabelline. Either way, it was so bad I decided to write my first Yelp review about it.

However,

The food there is pretty good, and the bartender downstairs was sweet and accommodating once I expressed how much frustration I had upstairs on the deck.

It wasn't all bad. He was really Just. That. Bad.

3 A bit on the pricey side. 7.99 for a tuna sandwich. come on. 13.00 for a little souvlaki. No. Thanks anyway. You can find the same stuff for much cheaper..

4 I got the wings. Great Sauce. Crispy Wings. The only let down was the price. $14 for a dozen wings seems a little steep. Thats like Room Service Prices.

5 Really bad food ... Good service though... Saltine crackers are the best food here

6 I am a fan of Ny style Pizza, but i do eat other styles as well. As long as the food is edible, I'm pretty satisfied. Having said that, I can say that this place has Awful tasting Pizza. They might as well have dipped their Pizza in Salt, it was salty as hell. Their Garlic Knots were salthy too, and very greasy. I can't understand how this place stays open. Its not NY style, and it just tastes bad period!!

7 This place is great! Very authentic and great flavors. I always order the hot and sour soup...so good! Fried rice is very flavorful and the seafood never tastes "ify".

8 Their pizza is bad!!! So bad that I would rather eat a Totino's party pizza over this and only pay a fraction of the price.

9 Terrible service, terrible food quality and horrifying prices! Seriously folks you can eat at PF Changs and have far better food, service and pay 1/3 of the cost! Truly the worst Hot & Sour Soup and Mongolian Beef I have ever tasted, in fact I could only eat a tiny portion of each. Steve Wym should be ashamed of himself!

10 Worst place I have ever been. The food, most importantly was horrible. The cob salad looked like a murder scene. The chicken looked and tasted boiled when I asked for grilled. What they listed as french toast was just toast. The waitress was very rude and didn't know what over hard eggs are. Never ever going there again. Oh and overpriced for crappy food.I wish I could rate it as 0 stars

11 This place is sooooo good. I even came for my homecoming once many years ago. I've never had anything bad. The service is always wonderful and my favorite dishes are the shrimp chow ho fun and their hot and sour soup is delicious (and vegetarian!). Obsessed.

- 12 Terrible even for a chain. The tortilla soup tasted like dishwater and was inedible. The quesadilla was acceptable, at best. I got nauseous right after eating and 3 hours later I still have a stomach ache.
- 13 I'm so confused by the high ratings of this place, maybe we went on a bad night? The bulgogi was served to us in a watery-greasy mess, barely recognizable as meat, the seafood pancake was thick and doughy, the kim chi was disgusting, and the jampong (spicy seafood soup) was basically shinramyun with some tentacles thrown in. Even the complimentary podi cha was so watered down I couldn't taste the barley.

On the bright side, it is cheap and the rice was good.

- 14 simply the best burger. The shakes are tops also!!

Fries, eh

- 15 Veggies rotten and smelly. 2.95 for diner/gas station coffee.

Waitress was pleasant though.

- 16 Update – the fries are still delicious. The service the last couple of times I have been there was less delightful. I got no greeting, just a dull stare until I ordered. I don't like to frequent places where I feel like I am a bother.

Past review – Delicious gyros. I had the nicest counter girl take my order the other day, And the fries with the special seasoning were hot, crispy and delicious. The restaurant is clean.

- 17 Ambience is good. That's about it. Service is below average. Food is subpar. Very small portion. Salad looks so tired and tastes tired. Meat is too rough to be chewable. Even fried calamari is unchewable. Disappointing experience.
- 18 Really great food, exceptional quality, value and creative preparation. However the service is truly terrible the wait staff is rude and incompetent. It's not fun to watch elderly people standing around waiting while there are empty tables.

Also, yes turn the crappy 80's music down, or better yet, off.

- 19 Not bad for a quick meal – noodles/rice/beef roll seems to be lukewarm only...
- 20 Terrible, from the owner down to the help. Dirty hands always touching your food! This place is a joke!
- 21 This place had TERRIBLE service and below mediocre food. I would NOT recommend coming here!
- 22 Fave spot for last min meals! Lots of pre-made options. Always fun samples including hot coffee. Great adult beverage options and often samples too! Produce is a little pricey for me but works when in a pinch.
- 23 This Wendy's is probably the worst I've been to and I've been to quite a few. Customer service was awful, there green tea was disgusting tasted like piss and water, the baconator fries which I Enjoy quite a lot were absolutely terrible they didn't even use regular cheese they used shredded cheese from the salads. All around bad experience definitely will not be coming back to this one.

- 24 Rude service , just wrapped up cold., Stale Stromboli, I get its airport food, but mix poor quality food, poor service and bad attitude and it's a real downer.
- 25 Horrible service and hot drinks. Also had multiple u tinsel that were dirty. When i spoke with the manager she commented that the dishes at times get dirty because of the queso. On top of all that, the food was smothered in cheese to cover the dense content inside.
- 26 Bad service. Bad food. Unethical. Lie about it being organic and locally sourced. An employee who worked there told me most of it comes from GFS and Drugmart.
- 27 This coffee shop is awesome. It has a great atmosphere as well as great drinks. They even host little concerts which are a lot of fun too. I wish more places were like this
- 28 Their pharmacy seems like a great place to work if you're too stupid to live and have zero skills to speak of. Shopping here feels like visiting the innermost circle of hell.
- 29 The worst McDonalds I've ever been to. We live just up the street from this one so we've tried it several times. The service is S L O W, it takes forever. The food is just horrible and the employees are always clowning around. Horrible horrible!!
- 30 Horrible service the employees were extremely rude and made my mom feel stupid cause she has a disability and doesn't understand everything and was asking questions and my mom left crying
- 31 Absolute horrible service. Had a $10 off coupon and the cashier was insanely rude not allowing to order a combo even though we ordered over $60 worth of food.

Floors are all oily and slippery too and they are cheap on the condiments.

I used to be a fan of veras on commercial drive but this one is absolutely horrible. Never coming back.

- 32 So yummy! Been going here for about 7 years now. Never had a bad meal! Looks a bit messy and un kept but food is great. Asada burrito is my usual order.
- 33 I went to the place couple times now. The tapas here is in a good portion (not too small) very delicious and they have the best sangria!!!!
- 34 Horrible. I ordered the ceviche and the first bite I had pubic hair in it. And they didn't even comp my bill. Fucking disgusting
- 35 Absolutely NOT the pizza was bad.. The chefs on duty could not be bothered to clean the hearth... result pizza that was served with ash embedded into the crust... after a few bites I was almost spitting it out.... plate was black/grey with combined with the oils from the melted cheese was just disgusting... this is a cardinal sin... new staff needed...management clearly not taking the time to either train the staff or ensure standards of cleanliness in food service...or that staff do not get lazy.....better places but not in glendale...
- 36 way too overrated.

the bouncer bullshit about guest list. Dropped him $40 and suddenly there was no guest list. Waited in line for a long time, and very disappointed when I finally got in. Seriously, my spotify plays better music than the dj here.

- 37 A hidden gem! The classic schnitzel is amazing.
38 This is another great market, just because it's always clean, I'm not scared about cockroaches, etc, on the produce.

They have a great variety of staples, which makes this a fantastic place to have within walking distance... which it's not, for me.

Price-wise, you can do better. Some stuff's maybe 10% more than elsewhere, but quality does count, and so does all-in-one-location convenience for its wide array of stuff.

- 39 The light shows at night are the only reason this is a three star attraction. Because other than the golden nugget, Fremont street is pretty bad. But to the positive first, the light show is very entertaining and the different shows each time are nice. We were there on sunday and they played a lot of 70's music (doors) which is alright by me.

My wife and I stood in the middle of the street in awe of the light shows. We just havent seen anything like that before. It was even more interesting to stand at one end and watch so you could take in just how long the show is.

The bad... well, fremont is considered old vegas, and apparently old vegas is dirty, smelly, and full of bums, alcoholics, and impersonators. It was just really dirty and the people were rude.

Considering that it could have just been a bad day when we attended, so we will give it another try the next time we are in Vegas.

- 40 La comida esta buenisina buen servicio I las mangocheladas ni hablar the bomb.. Nuestra mesera fue Karla I nos dio muy buen customer service lo recomiendo :)

- 41 Smells bad.

I walked in and it hit me. Can't say what it was, but it smells the same bad way at the S. Lamar location. It was a sour, foul water, smelly feet, combo of some sort. I didn't make it past the lobby.

The S. Lamar location smells really bad in the bus area at the back of the theater and in the bathroom — and it's the same smell in both locations!

I feel nervous eating food that is served to me in the dark as it is. The fact that there's a bad smell just makes it nonsensical to eat there.

- 42 Would have put no stars. My boyfriend and I went there tonight at 9:30pm to get some food. Too bad they already locked their doors. We double checked what time they close and there's incorrect information on two sites. One says 10pm and one says 10:30pm. Just thought the managers should be aware... only lazy workers close their doors 30 min or maybe an hour before closing time. Booo you suck. Honestly not coming back to this location, that's just stupid and lazy. Don't say your open till 10 or 10:30pm but close your doors at 9:30pm.

- 43 I'm totally addicted to the fox-a-Roni! And when in season the watermelon margaritas are crazy good! Totally worth the wait. Every time.

- 44 We ordered the 2 XTRA LARGE PIZZA and 40 wing combo for our work lunch. We got 2 large a hot soda and short on the wing. We called and they where very rude. We have been ordering for a while and the lady said she's been working there for 6 years and nothing has changed . Prices went high and no more delivery . We are never ordering again . They lost a lot of customer today .

45 Great little sandwich shop . I haven't had pastrami like this since my last trip to NY . And the bread ! Yum !

46 I am somewhat surprised by the bad reviews this place is getting . This may be the exception and not the rule but when I went this past friday the crowd was ok ( a bit frattish , but not bad ) our bartender was incredibly nice and the nicer drafts were only $5 . Not my favorite place , but nothing horrible either .

Maybe I just had great luck ?

47 By far , the most disgusting steak and cheese sandwich I have ever seen or tasted . Dry and mushy , just like the bucket it came from . The Gyro sandwich tastes like the back of a donkeys ass . Just pure garbage ! $9 for a beer plus tax and gratuity ! 4 beers $40 , why ? The tea cups had smears from the lips of previous customers . The chili was cold , sloppy and microwaved especially for us . Five hours later and I still feel nausea , indigestion and a headache . Just open a can of dog food and it would be the same as this dump . I can buy their tables and chairs for less than 10 bucks ; so cheap . Decorations on the wall are so poor and stupid . The employees were so embarrassed to serve this peasant food . The owner of this place is a LOSER for serving this crap . He must really go out of his way to buy the cheapest food available from any food distributor . Even the fries suck ! Wait till you see how stupid the soap dispenser in the bathroom is . Must be a retard to buy that dumb-ass dispenser . It was probably on discount . The TV at the bar plays reruns of FRIENDS , if thats not stupid enough . Whoever wrote a good review about this place is obviously accustomed to shit food and not being able to cook . Only a teenage punk with dirty underwear would say that the food in this place is good . I cant wait to come back and see it closed ! Places like this do no good for the community and only benefit the money hungry and unappreciative owner . My review is an exchange for your shit food ; you bought it when I wasted my money for a stupid wannabee sandwich .

48 this place is awful .

—went on a saturday . . . . . only brunch food until 3pm .
—bartender absolutely rude and uninterested
—2 of us had soup . . . . had to ask for spoons and napkins
—had to send mine back as it was cold
—no apology from staff or anything .

and the place wasn't full for a saturday with multiple football games .

49 Weird place

Extremely expensive for what it is Careless service
Dirty filthy floors
Oily food
Soup tasted RANK SPOILED
Ok also their "spanakopita" is DEEP FRIED and 500 calories !!!

Why?? God help them.

- 50 Service is TERRIBLE!!! The wait staff is rude, lazy and SLOW. It took 15 mins for someone yo take our drink order and another 15 for refills...
- 51 rude counter attendant. Ice coffee tasted bitter. Looking forward to the coffee place opening just down the street.
- 52 Don't even bother! The costumer service sucks at this location! The cashier lady was quite rude and unpleasant that she left us no choice but to ask for return.
- 53 Service is beyond bad. Have currently been sitting down for the past 20 minutes without service. :(
- 54 The most delicious wings I've ever tasted. Goddam. I don't know why people say the employees are rude, they're really nice and out going.
- 55 I've tried giving this place multiple chances, but damn. Waiting 15 minutes to get a beer. No place to sit because right now I'm looking at 8 dirty tables. There's at least 6 staff just roaming around. It's pretty dirty here!
- 56 Terrible service. Ordered falafel pita and fries. Pita was terrible. I got fries 20mins after i ordered. Gave me fountain drink without ice. Lazy staff. Terrible experience. Never to this place again
- 57 Wow, this is just bad. Bad bad bad, I don't know how else to describe the restaurant.

– ONE OF THE WORST salads I've had in my entire life. Lettuce wasn't fresh, the combination of ingredients was terrible. Some odd beans were mixed in and didn't go well at all with the sweet dressing.

– APPEAL IS NOT THERE. When you come to a place in this restaurant category, you expect to see good looking girls and eat average food, maybe enjoy some beers. Anyways, I won't go into details, but Twin Peaks missed the mark significantly on both points.

- 58 I love to come here with my dog for Sunday brunch! The food is quality. The dirty chai is amazing. Don't dress in your Sunday best because you WILL get a little dirty if you're out with the pups!
- 59 Awesome chicken, coleslaw some of the best we've ever had. He had the Tongue Torch hot BBQ sauce. Very hot and tasty. Great place.
- 60 Horrible place! Sticky floors, worn furniture, and the drinks were watered down and expensive.
- 61 Mmmm this place sucks ass period ...Food, Service, Ambience just bad I could probably get better food in a prison.
- 62 First time trying Alligator! D= Like chik-kin.
- 63 Over all.. The food was good..

But the employes had a shitty attitude

Definitely not coming back

- 64 Good food, very bad service! Why everybody working there is in such bad mood? I guess they are not paying them enough! I always get the wrong order and they are always very defensive
- 65 Chick fil a inside Perimeter Mall has no sense of customer service or urgency. The slowest, sloppiest team I have ever seen. Such a shame.

- 66 Pro: Arctic Monkeys were playing. Con: The girl working was so rude 67 bad service... waitresses more interested in drinking and talking to their friends and guys picking them up ...do NOT come to this shit place...period
68 Good crust and quality toppings...not bad at all.
69 Food is terrible, ambiance New Orleans decor, but not quite the right feel, service terrible, didn't have silverware for our appetizers, food took 25 min, Strip prices, not really worth all the inconveniences.
70 I lived down the street from Bova's and swear by their baked goods. Their chocolate cake, mini cannolis, and gigantic whoopie pies are the best. Also, if you find yourself looking for a late night bite to eat they have tasty Sicilian pizza slices and if you are lucky they sometimes make spinach mozzarella pastry turnovers. They are sooo good!

I almost never go to Mike's Pastry anymore.

- 71 I regret not finding a Starbucks. 5 dollars for some of the worst cold brew I have ever had. Also the smallest cup of cold brew I have ever gotten for 5 bucks too. The ice cubes of the cold brew make your drink super bitter and borderline undrinkable as they melt. Learned my lesson. Watch out for this place.
72 Terrible service. Incredibly rude staff. Incompetent hostesses.
Great drinks, but absolutely not worth going to.
73 Not bad if you are into little touristy places. Expensive. Not quite an Irish Pub feel either
74 Lo más malo que e comido son estos nachos y el tiempo d espera demasiado y te sirven el agua fresca con poco hielo malísimo
75 Wouldn't return. Over decorate and food is boring.
76 I hate Americanized Mexican.

This place is just like all the rest of them.

Huge, obnoxious menu.

Ugly, sticky venue.

Dry, pukey rice.

All at a cheap price.

Everything looks and tastes the same.

Super, mother-effing lame.

Jumbo margs that taste like ass.

Next time, I'll surely pass.

- 77 The best chicken and waffles I've ever had. Puts Roscoe's to shame!
78 dirty with paper-thin walls.
79 Disappointing night! So salty that I can't taste the meat. Had much better steak even in Hometown buffet. The manager asked how was the food. I can't begin to say salty because I don't think he could do anything. I opted say ok but wanted to say terribly salty.
80 I'm guessing the owner has never lived in a place where poutine was a popular dish. Overpriced, undersized and missing flavour.
Also the restaurant seemed kinda dingy and dirty.
81 This place sucks dick service here is horrible recommend going somewhere else plus rude ass clerk
82 I went here on a trip with the program I'm with for the summer.
Thank god, because I didn't have to pay for the awful, awful food

- I got. Not worth your time or your money. Don't go here.
- 83 Usually I love dragon tower. Sometimes it is average and sometimes great. I wish the food was more consistent because the staff is always excellent.
- 84 Closed down for rodent and bugs. I guess the mice and rats were the chef special. Dog shit place
- 85 Worst experience ever!!! The working stuff was really rude and even asked me to f*ed the shut up when I was ordering because I didn't NOTICE he was busy.
- 86 Worst Chinese restaurant ever. Service n food were both horrible. Dont go to this place if you do you will regret.
- 87 the buffet charges too much for bad quality food. The floors are so dirty my family just got new shoes and they turned black when we walked in. 3 of my family members stomachs started to ache after we ate the sea food.
- 88 This place really sucks. There's no service at all, I've tried a pizza with prosciutto crudo and parmigiano. It was tasty but when I tried prosciutto and parmigiano separately, I felt like something was wrong. Pasta looks scary (I am Italian, so I expect pasta to be cooked properly, and not to be a sticky mass of yellow overcooked and greasy stuff).

To summarize: avoid this place.

- 89 I think the Barbacoa I ordered had turned. No other reason for how bad it was. It tasted like a wet goat wrapped in a sour washcloth.
- 90 dirty dirty dirty and the to go boxes are drippings with oil and weight about 2 pounds each. we got a refund the and will not be back
- 91 I went on a Monday night. It wasn't very busy. Our waitress was great however the food was not. I got boneless wings and those were hard. A friend of mine ordered the chicken/bacon sandwich and her burger came cold and they served our entire table cold French fries. I'd rather go to All Stars on Rutherford.
- 92 Horrible place! Worse service I've ever experienced and the most unbelievable service and actions shown my manager. They screwed up on the bill which was clearly a misunderstanding by both parties. No one there speaks English. The manager comes and gets in customers face yelling. Food was nasty too. Horrible place to go when you're visiting from out of town and trying to enjoy your weekend! 0 stars
- 93 Worst food! Burger was greasy and flavorless! Service was horrible. Sitting at the bar they forgot my husbands drink...really! We will never go back!!!
- 94 Filthy place bathroom flooded smelled like shit gambled plenty but still got a bill. Waitress/ bartender was awful. The only entertainment was watching the owner harass the bartender. Won't step foot in here again
- 95 Rude rude rude .. African American women gets flustered at me that she made my burgers wrong and was making faces when I came back in with them in my hand . This isn't the first time they've had an attitude when messing up my order ..
- 96 If you get seated outside, I hope you enjoy the smell of sewage and smog. Regardless of where you're seated I hope you enjoy bad remixes of already bad music. A terrible experience overall.

- 97 Favorite dive place in Phoenix. Too bad they closed the Chandler location. 7q x 7q with black beans and chicken rice is the way to go!
- 98 Love the Henry's in Portland... the one at the airport has terrible aggressive service. Don't recommend
- 99 We go to this location a few times a month. Today was just awful. The coffee tasted like coffee grounds. My entree was missing a lot as shown in the picture below. This is their new strawberry bake. It looks nothing like the picture on the menu. The floors were also very dirty and their sample pie was moldy. Just terrible.
- 100 St. Louis south of Finch, Toronto.

Just look at the stairs, dirty as hell...unbelievable just like a war torn country.

Beer: Warm

Wings: smelly, burnt oil for sure and disgusting.

Pleasee dont go there.

Terrible experience

Absolute embarrassment in front of my guest.

1.3.2 Low Values

1 Service and food were great.
I'm a frequent traveler who doesn't like chain restaurant, but for Seasons 52 I'll make an exception.

Great place for the weary traveler who enjoys fresh crisp food and excellent wait staff.

2 Very nice place, friendly and attentive service. My only complaint is the food was luke warm and marginally cold! I had the hash and eggs, the hash was tasty but cold, the potatoes were warm. My wife had ham and cheese in late and it was warm. I prefer

3 Owner and staff are extremely knowledgeable about healthy options, supplements and products. Huge range of specialty goods here, all responsible, organic, vegan or veg friendly options available. Generally such kind and welcoming folks, if you come often they will definitely remember and offer a nice warm smile at every return. If you need healthy food and bulk options in Roncy this is the place.

4 Very quick and food was on point! Came during lunch hour 12:00 pm. Small area but clean and maintained.

5 Can't beat $2.99 chicken Tuesdays! Super fresh and amazing quality. Excellent store layout with weekly specials. Beautiful fresh flowers on the way in!

6 Fast and simple. Great family spot. There's a playground on the side. Food is simple. Clean environment. Spacious too!

7 Good beer selection. But not so clean and very crowded.. Washroom aren't cleaned properly.

Had burger was a little below average.

8 Awesome hot & sour soup. Bathroom is not clean at all. Not sure about this place anymore.

9 Don't need to do that again. Went through the drive thru at 715am on a Sunday and there was no line. This should have been my first clue. Ordered a dozen and brought them home. I couldn't wait to

- dig into my fresh warm donuts!! They were neither fresh or warm and were a HUGE disappointment from Krispy Kreme of the past. Lesson learned. Won't make that mistake again.
- 10 Updated decor and outdoor seating are a nice plus for this location. Solid and consistent OS performance. Bourbon selection needs expansion—but The McCallan is available from the Scotch side of the Pond.
- 11 Excelent!!!! AYCE with sashimi!!!! First time I got in Vegas. I will come back for sure. Thank you Daniel, super good waiter
- 12 Probably the best cheesesteak I've had in Orlando. The restaurant is clean and the staff is very friendly.
- 13 Aisha at Self Check out was very helpful and friendly! Helped me download Cartwheel app! Looked up a price for me and helped me save some money i work around the corner this will be my taget thanks!
- 14 Since 2012 Ive come here for tacos and drinks. Friendly staff, prompt service cool music and unique wood carvings all around. Coco Loco and choco taco make life better!
- 15 I am very impressed by the cleanliness of this location! We are here at 8:49 Pm I'm a Friday night and our tables are so clean! The floor is as well I always notice that first anywhere I go. If the floor is dirty I'm out of there!
- 16 Great broth, fast fast service, and restaurant is clean. Hell, even the bathroom is clean. These are things that I want in a restaurant.
- 17 Excellent customer service.... Waitress was attentive.... kept refilling our drinks... food was authentic and fresh... hot... well seasoned. We has Shrimp Fried Rice... Sweet & Sour Soup... Crab Ragoons... Spicy Basil Shrimp... Red Dragoon Sushi Roll... Every bite was fulfilling and savory.... We will be back...
- 18 When was the last time you ate food at the airport that was not only fresh but super delicious? For me the answer is... Never! Until I came to Madison, Wisconsin. The Mad Town Gastro served me a bowl of Thai vegetable soup that was fantastic. Fresh vegetables. Fix spicy broth. Super tasty. Special thanks to Cindy who served it up!
- 19 Its walmart. This store is well stocked

Ample parking

- 20 Delicious and Clean Pho! I get the usual Pho Tai & Thai Iced Tea :) Very friendly and great service. Restaurant is very clean too! Highly recommend, check them out!
- 21 Love This ARCO /AMPM It's right up the from where I live quick service & clean,,
- 22 Best option in Logan for food. Great booze selection (St George & Hendricks especially). Food is good; filling and fresh. Staff is the highlight, I've had Jose as a bartender a few times and he is efficient, friendly and very conscious of guest timelines.
- 23 I love Panera. The food is fresh, healthy and delicious. This Panera has lots of cozy seating and just added a drive thru, which is awesome!
- 24 Kind and friendly staff. Went above and beyond to make sure my husband and I were happy with our menu selections. Everything was fresh and delicious. They have plenty of vegetarian and gluten free options. Great variety of coffees and specialty beverages along with fresh smoothies and juices!

25 Best Place on the strip ! Food was awesome. Bathrooms clean and Service was impeccable!

26 Family oriented , owned. Very fresh ingredients ,all made from scratch. My new favorite pizza place.

27 Excellent sushi , clean environment and fantastic for children. Simple and delicious .

28 Ok, so... I'm really picky about my water places. When I'm in CA, I drive clear across two towns to find a place with great service and quality water. (The CA location has curbside service and lets me buy gallons in advance on a loyalty card so I don't have to deal with a cash exchange each time or even get out of my car!) Now that I'm in AZ, I needed to find something similar. Fortunately , my friend took me to a Water and Ice in Chandler after a play date at KTR (awesome place for kids , btw). We only went that day for their Thrifty ice cream (the kids adored it) but after that first introduction , I started noticing Water and Ice shops around the area.

Last week, I'd had enough with our yucky $0.25 a gallon water machine water. I searched for a Water and Ice that is located by my work and found this location. I went in and was happy to see that they offer great water service , the same delicious Thrifty scoop ice cream, and most importantly , a free water bottle cleaner!!! All of this and they're still only $0.25 a gallon. Now if only they'd let me buy $15 at a time (12 gallons) so I didn't have to deal with money each time. haha

A guy named Victor was working there on the day I arrived and he helped me fill and take the full bottles back out to my car. I really appreciate that!!! I'll definitely be back frequently , and even bring my lil guy in for ice cream.

They also have other other snacks , drinks , and water supplies there.

Oh and btw, since I still had water machine water in my machine when I got home, we were able to do a taste test on the two. Water and Ice water didn't have the weird aftertaste the water machine water had.

Definitely see ya there!

29 Excellent pizza. Create your own. Unlimited toppings. Made fresh right in front of you. Friendly. Great for kids & large groups. Affordable pricing. Salads , flatbreads & variety of beverages , teas and infused drinks.

30 If you are Chinese , make sure you get the spicy frog and sliced fish Szechuan style. Five star.

31 Great local restaurant. Buckeye Roll was fresh & tasted great. Staff was very friendly. Will go back to this restaurant.

32 Seriously the best sandwich I've had in a long time. The bread is legit , soft warm and crunchy , fresh ingredients , bomb sauces...had one this morning and already craving another for supper!

33 It's an efficient , accurate Starbucks.

I can run in here , get coffee and still make it to work on time.

- 34 The service need to be better. Take to long to get a refill , no extra napkins when asked. Floors need cleaning ,
- 35 Very friendly and fast service , coffee is fresh and bold. I got a bagel which was deliciously fresh and toasted perfectly , crisp shell with chewy inside .
- 36 The food was delicious and it 's pet friendly dining . They even brought out fresh water for our dog .
- 37 Amazing service! Staff here is so friendly and helpful. The food is great , and always fresh . We will be regulars .
- 38 This is our favorite fish and chip shop! I find fish and chips are expensive take out to begin with , but its worth it . We have always had super friendly dining experiences , and they are very family friendly .

The Greek salad is also an amazing addon , but be sure to ask for dresssing on the side .

- 39 A wonderful breakfast spot. Healthy choices yes but plenty of less healthy ones if that is what you want. I had the avacado toast with basted eggs and my wife had the bacon and onion hash. We split a kale juice which was surprisingly delicious. Great strong fresh coffee and friendly service .
- 40 Great service , delicious food! The meat tastes extremely fresh!! I suggest this place in a heartbeat!
- 41 The best Menchies in the lower mainland. Most amount of flavors , super clean , best service , and most important of all the best yogurt .
- 42 The food and service were good and tasted fresh .

I had Greek and my companion had Italian and both were great as was the Calimarie appetizer

- 43 This is a lovely little spot with wonderful food choices and extra friendly help . The owner saw we were new to the restaurant and made sure we understood the items on the menu. Terrific choice!!!
- 44 Great food , attentive service. Great atmosphere. Chicken and waffles was savory and fresh. My wife enjoyed a fresh greens salad with house dressing (lemon basil vinaigrette and Philly cheesesteak sandwich. We'll definitely be back!
- 45 Place is super clean. And the food looks and tastes very fresh. I like fresh , over the counter places , where I can build my own meal. This is that spot. Mediterranean menu. The chicken in my bowl was made to order and I added lots of fresh ingredients to it. Finished product was great. Need one of these in southern highlands!!
- 46 Delicious healthy food for a phenomenal price ! Fresh wonderful and tasty sauces , amazing service thanks stirKrszy !! I'll tell all ma buds bout this low key Mongolian joint
- 47 While I enjoyed the smoked medium wings and waffle fries , I'm giving this place 4 stars for the sole reason that it 's the first place within that area that 'll have the NFL package. No more trips up north to Cover 3 on W. Andersen or downtown!
- 48 Now this was tasty. Ramen great flavor and sushi fresh. Only complaint is pricy but it 's vegas.
- 49 Came in to check out the new neighborhood bar right by my house and was pleasantly surprised by the service I received. The bartender Ashley was prompt and super friendly! I appreciate her great conversation, and I will most definitely be back !!! Thanks again, keep up the great work.

- 50 Delicious Food, the Queso Catfish was AMAZING. My husband had the green Chillie burger and the beef tasted great off the grill. Green chillie cheese fries and onion rings were very tasty..

Updated to a lower review because when I revisited, the waitstaff was horrible, guy gave me my drink in a blatantly dirty glass..

- 51 Good place to grab a quick meal. Decent prices, neat and tidy.
- 52 Terrific gourmet experience. All dishes were complex and delicious creations. The staff was delightful giving a warm welcome and friendly service. Can't wait to return.
- 53 Best fast food ever!! Make sure you try the Ice Tea or Lemonade. The chicken was AMAZING! Best place to get food when low on time. Free refills and friendly staff are just an added bonus. Chick-fil-A is a great fast food place!
- 54 Miso soup on the house, smoked salmon till was different but delish, and the mix-mix was good as well. Here is one healthy meal.
- 55 Delicious food & warm, friendly owner & environment. I love the authentic dishes- especially the PR!!
- 56 Great breakfast and lunch spot for tasty, healthy gluten-free options. If the coffee was top-notch, it would deserve five stars. Nice, spacious, warm & friendly environment with great staff who make you feel welcome.
- 57 Good cortado/cappuccino. No wifi. Nice Baristas. Clean. Good seating for discussions. Average pricing.
- 58 Lovely place to sit and cool off after walking the trail around LadyBird Lake or to just sit and people watch folks on land and on the water. Had 2 great meals here, both on the same day, as we went back for seconds after spending some time on the water.
- 59 I liked the service offered to me by the student staff. Friendly, full of energy and nice. Will revisit because of excellence in service.
- 60 Fantastic buffet breakfast and smoothies! Everything at the Palazzo and Venetian is first class including this breakfast buffet w delicious bacon and sausage and huge english muffins and delicious fresh strawberries! Highly recommend!
- 61 We're beer snobs but I'm sampling away at the beers. Nice staff and clean teaching the bartender about California beer!!!
- 62 Got the breakfast shake and egg white sandwich. Healthy, fast and delicious. Will definitely be back!
- 63 The service is quick and the prices are still cheap. The food still tastes great, except for an excess of sauce on their shawarma. However, cleanliness is an issue here with the place just looking rather dirty. Also, kitchen cleanliness is questionable since I got food poisoning after eating here.
- 64 Delicious donuts - we had the Monet and the Michelangelo. Made fresh. Warm, sweet and yummy!
- 65 The servers were friendly and well presented. Their uniforms were clean and hair pulled back. They made more veggies quickly for my order.
- 66 This new place is terrific! Super fresh food, great flavors, modern atmosphere... we will be back for sure!

- 67 Absolutely amazing. I had the healthy choice meal, all veggie and it was delicious. The owners are very friendly, and it is a welcoming environment. Will definitely continue to visit.
- 68 I went in to pick up my neighbors order for her. Had no idea this place was in Orlando. The staff were very friendly and took the time to explain the process. Next trip will be to pick up my own groceries :)
- 69 Love this gem. Tons of fresh goods for your enjoyment. Plants, fresh bread, yummy asian cuisine, cheeses and more!
- 70 Amazing pretzel and cheese/mustard dip! The pretzel came out fresh and very warm. Highly recommended if you come here!
- 71 Great dim sum, one of the few places in town for an authentic Chinese meal. Needs some work on cleanliness, bathrooms are quite dirty.
- 72 Very clean, food is good, girls are hot! What more you want?
- 73 Long lines at other places forced us in here. SO glad we stopped. Friendly staff (we sat with Talia at the back bar), strong drinks, solid food at great prices.
- We will make this a stop every time we come down to PDX.
Make certain to check out the Bloody Mary bar. It's second-to-none!
- 74 Super delicious fresh spring rolls!
- 75 Here again. The location on piedmont is by far my favorite, all of the servers are wonderful. I had Marlon today and he went above and beyond to make sure we had everything we needed. Had the roasted chicken soup and lavender latte. Yum!
- 76 Favorite donut shop! If in the area this is a must stop. The donuts are cooked fresh to order.
- 77 This place is dirty as heck. Had to order to go because one of the previous tables had been cleaned (cups, napkins, food all over tables). On the plus side the manager lady is very nice and kind.
- 78 Awesome food ... very friendly staff. Even the young man who was the cashier was very polite. Has the 2 meats and 2 sides for 8.49, very filling and fresh. Will come back again.
- 79 Amazing place in downtown crossing for working, catching up with friends, or stopping by for great coffee. Great selection and variety of healthy options at a reasonable price. The coffee is delicious and the free WiFi is quick!
- 80 Friendly service and decent prices for trips to Mexico and other US stops. You can also purchase tickets over the phone.
- 81 Delicious Pasta! Very clean, romantic music, the customer service on top. I never have problems going here!
- 82 This was my third visit there for lunch and very satisfied. Grabbed a the chicken salad mixture and kale salad both great, healthy options. I appreciate how friendly and helpful the staff are. Even though it is not restaurant with wait staff, their employees make their way around to ensure your meal is good and to clear your plate.
- 83 Glad this location is open to help lessen the crowd at the location closer to my home. (51 at Carmel Commons)
- 84 Stopped in for breakfast. You should too! Good food, friendly staff, lots of regulars. Simple menu and the pricing is right. Clean.
- 85 Love this pizza place. I try to make sure I stop by for a slice whenever I'm in town!

- 86 Love this location. Right near my house, great staff and the line moves quickly most of the time. But, if you come by in their peak hours, make sure to allow adequate time.
- 87 Follow up— management reached out to me and said they would fix these issues and they sure have. I now love his place and stand by it.
- 88 I Thought the donuts were excellent. The place was clean and very friendly. I will for sure go back. Since they are new hope everyone gives them a chance.
- 89 The food was fresh and appealing. The fajitas was sizzling and the octopus was cooked perfectly. Would definitely return.
- 90 My favorite place in Tempe. The food is great, the prices are reasonable, the staff is friendly, and the atmosphere is relaxing and quiet.
- 91 Great hot dog and fries today. Grilled and bacon wrapped. Dining room is clean, service was fast, friendly and food is fresh
- 92 Great 50s decor ambiance and exceptional service. Very clean and fresh food. Glad to see a manager take so much pride. Other McDs should learn from this one. Will come again for sure.
- 93 We had a great experience at Bay 13 tonight. The food was fresh and healthy and the service was incredible. I am surprised by the number of negative reviews on here. Perhaps Bay 13 is hit or miss, but it hit it out of the park tonight.
- 94 This place is incredible!! Delicious food and wonderful people making it. Make sure to try it if you haven't.
- 95 Al always Luckys delivers the wonderful fruit, produce and clean eats we need to keep our bodies healthy. Ran across street to Giant Eagle for mother in laws ice cream and whoa...don't go there.
- 96 Great food

Fast and friendly

Very clean place

I found a bone in my taco meat please check before serving carnitas.

- 97 Mr. Kim, Mrs. Kim, their son Harry, and several of their staff are very helpful.

I have been buying fish from them for many years.

On Saturday, I almost always buy fresh salmon fillet and smoked salmon, and sometimes, fresh cod or fresh Chilean sea bass.

For Christmas eve, I buy smoked salmom (2 to 3 different types), a whole smoked white fish, herrings marinated in wine.

One of the Best places to buy fresh fish and smoked salmon (not salty).

- 98 Their flatbreads are guaranteed fresh because although it took a while to make, once they come to the table, you could tell they were made from fresh ingredients. Their sorbet dessert is great. Would strongly recommend.

- 99 Friendly staff and clean rooms. Proximity to lots of restaurants and highways. We love the fresh fruits and omelette station at breakfast! Swimming pool is warm...definitely a hotel we would go back with the kiddos!

- 100 Went to stingers soft opening last night... the new owners have really cleaned the place up! Modern and clean with a wonderful dance floor! Great country band Silver Sage was playing. It's a far drive for me but worth it!

1.4 Portion Outcome

1.4.1 High Values

- 1 Best BBQ in Atlanta— old school spot that's always busy. A must for people visiting out of town
- 2 One of the best pizzas I've had. Thin delicious crust with awesome flavored toppings. The Dougie was amazing. I love their Stubborn Sodas too.
- 3 i had the seco lamb, it was ok, a little tough. the starters and desserts are great too ^_^
- 4 This Starbucks is super small. It might just be a Boston thing but its really small.
- 5 Scott helped me pick a really great BCAA and whet isolate. Just talking to him briefly I could see he really knows his stuff! Def great for business and this GNC will be getting lots of repeat business im sure. Thanks Scott!! I'll be back soon. Just moved to the area so am happy to find a knowledgeable associate at GNC!!
- 6 Usually I go to the Pasadena, California, restaurant, but since I was in the Phoenix area, I wanted to pick up their English Muffins to have with breakfast.

Our group of guys were staying the weekend in Phoenix, and everybody thought the muffins were great.

So when in town, have LGO mufins to go.

The bakery at the store looked really good.

- 7 A HUGE shout out to the owners and to our server!! First time here and we will be definitely be back!! It truly feels like your at a family bbq.. awesome experience!!
- 8 I spend there few hours of almost every day, service is really good. Staff is really friendly, I get delicious sample sometimes. One time one of the staff broke my Stabucks mug and I get free coffee and new mug immediately.

This busy place.

- 9 Simple, not what it used to be. Tiny portions, long wait times, stuck up servers, mediocre chain style food. Don't waste your time or your money.
- 10 The food was really good, just super expensive for the portion sizes. $3 for a teeny, MAYBE two bite taco. Cool patio. Its a little hidden but its right across the street from ASU stadium.
- 11 Overpriced/tourist pricing. $5 for a small (1scoop) Bland chocolate chip gelato and stale cone. Walk just a bit further down Hanover Street for good gelato.
- 12 The Thai tea is delicious! Service is a little slow but the quality of the food makes up for it!
- 13 Sashimi was really fresh and tasty. I have never tasted sea uni so sweet and delicious. Beautiful presentation for all the dishes. The only drawback is that it's too pricy for such small portion. The $$$$ sign is real. Good for high budget dining.
- 14 Went last night. Had the Tom Selleck's mustache cocktail and really enjoyed it. Wine list was solid but tended towards either $60 or $100+ with nothing in between.

The food was delicious , but the portions were very small. The steak in particular was a tiny portion for the cost. The bill for four of us with one $60 bottle of wine was over $200 and I think we all left hungry. I don't mind small portions if the prices are slightly lower , but I just don't think it's worth it.

On the plus side , the service we received was fantastic. Our waitress was very attentive , the timing of dishes was perfect , and our drinks were always filled .

- 15 Rude staff , expensive food , tiny portions , terrible ambience. DO NOT GO for Indian food. Guaranteed to leave a bad taste.
- 16 Went for Mother's Day! It was lovely. Only down side is my sister ordered a small salad and it literally came out with like three small bites of lettuce. Overall it is a very good Italian restaurant
- 17 I've been here several times the food is always fast and flavorful. Good service. Nice portions. The only reason I'm giving them a 4 stars is because their siracha cap is always so dirty even in the morning so it clearly isn't being cleaned. Gross.
- 18 Friendly service , great breakfast , and small hometown feel...what more could you ask for? First time here and we loved it!
- 19 My new favorite breakfast spot! Service was top notch and food was amazing! I had the truffle egg sandwich and it was a flavor explosion in my mouth! Great place!
- 20 We always visit when in town! Lucky we haven't had to wait to be seated or for service. The chips and salsa are a good start and we always get the guacamole. Consistent flavor and portions with the food.
- 21 Take out was in very small portions and had a slight bitter taste. I wish I liked it more! The bulgogi was okay but the soondooboo had something off about it. The ban Chan was also very small.
- 22 A little hidden gem. Nestled inside a cool little market is this awesome tiny japanese restaurant that seats about 7. The owners/chefs are a super nice and fun group. The menu is ever changing and the quality is always top-notch.

Brb. Will finish write up later

Recommended.

- 23 This is a smaller DQ and I believe the menu is smaller as well. I can recall the last DQ I went to had a variety of food as well. This one only had hot dogs. But we were there for the ice cream so it didn't bother us.

I've never been super impressed with DQ. They only have soft serve and only have chocolate and vanilla. They will make other flavors for you but they have to mix it in so you can only get it in a cup.

- 24 Amazing !!!!! The fish was super fresh their wine selection in really great and the service is friendly and caring. One Little girl was acting up and one of the waiters gave her mom a chi-chew candy to make her happy super nicely (making sure to ask the mom before letting the girl see it , in case she wasn't allowed to have it .

- 25 New owners. Really top of the line. Been mentioned in the Oregonian as one of the top restaurants in town
- 26 Simple, friendly, tasty. What more can one ask for? Turkish bakery and basic Turk foods are the specialty, and they do accept cards and make good coffee! Enjoy :)
- 27 Delicious, N.Y. slice. They also have great subs! Highly recommend. Clean place, friendly staff, only down side is no delivery.
- 28 Great burgers and I loove the sweet potato fries!
- 29 Best kubideh (kofte) in town, period. I always get the Kubideh plate with shirazi (coban) salad and cacik (tzatziki).
- 30 This is a great little bagel shop. I got the breakfast bagel and really enjoyed it. They offer great prices, great selection and great service.
- 31 Really good place with a ton of options. A perfect place for a date or a Sunday morning coffee. Definitely worth checking out. Try to get a seat by the window or one of the outside tables. Support small businesses in Somerville!
- 32 A little pricy but really yummy croissant breakfast sandwiches!
- 33 Very good french place. Although the portions are very small for the price. $12 sandwich was tiny and came with no side. But nevertheless was delicious. The Madeleine cookies were to die for.

As well as the cappuccinos.

- 34 Went out on a date night tonight and this place was awesome! The food portions are huge! Service is awesome! Our server Louis was wonderful! Everyone is wonderful and welcoming there. I would definitely come back. My only regret is that I didn't take any pictures! Lol!
- 35 If you love crapes and assortment of crape options, this is a place to visit! From savory to sweet, the sky is the limit. I highly recommend avocado crape, that is my favorite crape! I tried sweet crepes, those are good as well! I always mention to make my crape just little bit crispy it makes it even better... Inexpensive, tasty and creative little crape place!
- 36 In town for business, ran into this place looking for a good lunch. Had the Reuben Amazing! Just the menu says. The tomato basil soup the best I've ever had! Great service, great food!
- 37 Awesome food and awesome service. We got the big abdu sandwich and the Mediterranean plate with grilled chicken, and had the orange cinnamon flan for dessert. All the food was outstanding—big portions of home cooked delicious food. And the owners were extremely pleasant and made the experience even better. Will definitely be coming back for more.
- 38 Mmm...one of my favorite dining destinations in Montreal. In the heart of the action – great wine lists and a beef carpaccio to DIE FOR!

Yes, I realize it's a little touristy but it's great! Never had a bad time here!

- 39 Definitely not run of the mill! Small with a small but delicious menu. Has a home made feel, and the owners are always around. Very reasonable, and wonderfully fresh ingredients. Try whatever the wait staff suggests, but the gnocchi are the bomb! Can't miss with the caldo verde either ;)

- 40 Great little place to relax and enjoy a good cigar. Good selection and great service. Will be back for sure.
- 41 Our server, Dominick, did zucchini chips on the house since it was our first visit. He was very friendly and had great recommendations. Caesar salad was delicious. Pasta portion was pretty small...Tasty though! Can't beat their $8 margarita pizza on HH.
- 42 Great business with the best specials. 3 tacos, chips, beans and one soda for $6.99 or 8 tacos, chips, beans & 2 sodas for $16.99. Best deal for your buck for great authentic style Mexican dishes. Worth the money and time. Personal favorite.
- 43 Excellent food and atmosphere located within a historic village.... I will certainly be back! So glad I found this gem while passing through town!
- 44 Always good anytime I've been here. Currently eating in rascal house right now. The pizza if their making it fresh is worth the wait. If you can't wait for the hot, greasy and deliciousness that is rascal house pizza then go to Little Caesar's.
- 45 One of our favorite restaurants in Las Vegas. Try the sangria, OMG! The food and the atmosphere are top notch. When will have friends come to town we always bring them to this restaurant. So far there's not one - I need to warn you about. Everything has been delicious.
- 46 My fiancé and I came here a little while back and really enjoyed ourselves! The food selections were great and had a little bit of everything for everyone. The brewery had a great selection of beers and one of the best sours I had ever had. It was a great way to spend a cloudy day!
- 47 We tried the Provence. Was very tasty. However, extremely small portion size. $12 for a main course and was about 4-5 bites worth. 10/10 name. Good crepe. Bad value.
- 48 Low wait times. Diamond & Seven Stars receive front of line courtesy.

Food was good tasting, portion size is small for prices.

Plus a small salsa bar: which is nice!

Lots of open soda machines in the food court.

Very nice & friendly workers inside La Gloria.

- 49 Great food and service. Awesome to support a hard working local business that wants to make sure you are really taken care of. Thumbs up!!
- 50 Delicious tiny expensive tacos! My only real complaint is that they do not do to go orders. Great food and service.
- 51 Overpriced small portions. No bread either. Definitely not a place to go unless you want to overpay for mediocre food. A small pretzel for $3 and served with butter and packaged yellow mustard. A menu of items that are made with cheap ingredients.
- 52 CreAsian seduced me the first time with their grilled chicken gizzards on an skewer. Flavorful & perfectly textured. The only thing stopping a 5 star review is the ridiculous portion control: 3 individual gizzards the size of a penny! on a stick for $3.50. It's good, believe me! - but $1.16 for a single gizzard is unseemly. Who knew chicken gizzards have become a delicacy at CreAsian. You can get a pound of gizzards at Fry's for $1! So the mark up & portion control are my only quibble. Otherwise, this

- spot may survive on this confounded & cursed corner of Apache Blvd.
- 53 Pretty delicious, there are a lot of good burgers in town, and this is one of them.

The truly amazing thing was the expedition of the line. They have that down to a science.

- 54 Cute little place in JP. Had brunch there, great frittatta, great biscuit. Hipster-like atmosphere, but not annoyingly so. Good prices.
- 55 Chicken has good flavor and some spiciness. Cole slaw and potato salad are a little bland.
- 56 The food was pretty good and the service was excellent even though it was busy. The atmosphere was a little loud,
- 57 The best fried chicken & fried pork chops in town. Ox tails is one of the specials, a very tender meat. Corn bread, and the tastiest mac n cheese ever.
- 58 I had the katsu don, and it was veryveryvery average. While the sauce was nice, the tonkatsu was small and the rice mushy. The small portions may just be a result of it being take out, though – the portions in the restaurant were quite large.

Probably will not go back.

- 59 Everything at the crab shop is fantastic. Yes, pay a little more and get the halibut, it is superb, however, the cod is great as well. We take the time and the drive at least once a month. The decor is simple, but adds to the charm. If you are looking for fresh, look no further.
- 60 The burger tasted amazing *** only thing is 1 small onion ring isnt enough for a big burger. The small sitting area could have been cleaner.

Other than that, service was alright.

- 61 I just love this little gem in old town!

They have stellar service and an excellent beer selection!
The pizza never fails. Crust to topping ratio is perfect!
They also have a great happy hour!

- 62 Muscadine has become our go to in NE. Great food – large (homemade style) portions. Owner is incredibly friendly and very hands-on.... the staff is great. Small and sweet place with a great vibe.

No waiting + good food + small business owner = great spot

- 63 Over the top DELICIOUS oven fired pizza! The fig, arugula, Gorgonzola drizzled with rich balsamic pizza was a treat to my taste buds. My son had the Quattro Carne pizza meat lovers. Says it was the Best he has ever had. Simple little place – family run – Italian style done with authenticity. We can't wait to try the pasta dishes next time.
- 64 What more can I say, beautiful place packed with people. Amazing food, great vibe, music playing, memorabilia on the walls everywhere. Be prepared for the prices to be a little higher and the wait to sit a little longer but totally worth it...

- 65 We absolutely loved this place! This is a foodie's heaven for sure. Not only can you try everything in the store (which we tried a lot), but the staff is really friendly and helpful. They have a list that makes pairings and have sizes from small to large. The larger bottles you buy once they are done, you wash it out and bring it back and they will refill for $1 off the price! There are so many different olive oils and balsamic vinegar's to choose from and all of them are really good! I will definitely be back soo :)
- 66 Took forever to get my food. Server was not attentive and spent most of my time waiting to get my drink refilled. Additionally sides are very minimal and I ordered a medium well burger and it came out medium rare. Not coming here again
- 67 Great sandwiches. Cool spot. Very chill.

I went to the grand opening last week and he served little roasted pork toasties that were awesome.

I've been back a couple of times. Glad to support a local business and talented chef.

- 68 If you want a nice little French meal, then this is the place! Consistently good food and service. Great for business lunches.
- 69 Honestly, pretty lame place. Most of the eateries are lame (McDonalds etc.) and it felt old, small, and cramped.
- 70 Tried All you can eat menu, newer seen such a small rolls.) Small menu to choose from. Definitely not coming back.
- 71 One wing place that I appreciate the taste in downtown Toronto is here.

They sometimes do little events like stand-up comedy. If you're tired of those franchise wing taste, go here.

- 72 We've been to Angela's many times and loved them all! The menu is limited: Chicken wings, Salads—Caesar or House Italian, and Pizza with a wine and beer.

Our favorites are the chicken wings and the shrimp pizza. I've never had chicken wings like these before. They are always delicious and come with slices of pizza dough to add to the taste.

The shrimp pizza comes in medium size only, but is great. The other pizzas come in medium and large and are tasty as well.

Service is usually good, but sometimes spotty. If you're sitting by the window on the Route 1 side, service is so-so. With that, ask for seats on the first floor or at the bar. That is my only negative. Wishing you the same great food experience!

- 73 Great food and great service, only negative a small place so can get bit crowded at times, but food makes up for it
- 74 Yummy tacos. The tortillas are the best. They're a little on the small side so order a few if you're trying to get full.
- 75 Not impressed. Ambiance was great. Service was great but food was nothing spectacular. Small menu and a little pricey.
- 76 We stopped by here a little after midnight & ordered two chicken nugget happy meals for my kids as well as food for myself & my husband. We got back to our hotel to find we only had one happy meal with nuggets while the other happy meal had a nugget container filled with ranch?! The burgers were sloppily thrown together & the French fries were cold & stale! Even the sodas tasted a little flat! I don't expect much from McDonalds but the opened ranch really grossed me out & ruined the whole meal for my family!

- 77 Such a great place for italian food in the north end. Best arancini ball ever!! Only a few items on board, but wicked cheap. Only open for lunch during the week days, and cash only. But highly recommended.

Its worth the wait in the long line.

- 78 One of my favorite places in Montreal, hands down. The food is delicious, expertly yet subtly prepared, and the definition of comfort food. I live in NYC, but my wife is from Montreal and this is a must-visit spot for us every time we visit.

The atmosphere hasn't changed in years, if not decades, and I hope it stays the same forever. The nostalgia runs deep here. There is no concept here and that is refreshing. It's just good, delicious food served by nice, wholesome people.

The onion soup is spot-on and as good as it gets. The salad is exceptionally simple and fresh; I don't know what the garlic dressing is made out of, but it's completely addictive. The last time I was there, my friend's 8-year old son was even asking for third and fourth servings (no joke). The escargot is elegant and will warm your stomach. And then of course there are the crepes. I am partial to the one filled with champignon, bechemel, and cheese; drizzle it with a little Canadian maple syrup and you have basically just lived your best day.

Get over to Ty-Breiz and get down to enjoying simple pleasures in life.

- 79 Small custard spot. Great service and great ice cream. Clean location and friendly staff
- 80 We were only in town for 1 day, but this was a great find. The food was delicious and the servers were super friendly. Only issue was one meal coming out later than others, but we were very happy with our experience.
- 81 Great little cafe hidden in the strip mall off Baseline near the 60! Relaxing patio area. Peaceful, enjoyable place with excellent food and all day breakfast!
- 82 Nice trendy place in gas town. Been there a few times! Great appetizer!
- 83 Small, order-at-the-counter place with only a few tables, but the authentic Greek food is great.

I highly recommend the gyro.

Really cheap prices, and very fast service.

- 84 Rude waiter. Bad food and small portion. Asked for a cup of water for the kids and we were shouted back. Will never come again.
- 85 This is such a cute little place!! You can sit and eat your delicious Chinese food. the lady upfront that's been there for years has always the best customer service.
- 86 I love everything about this little place. Charlotte has a million breweries and tons of yogurt shops, but is seriously lacking with local and quality ice cream. I was about to loose hope until I found this little gem of dairy heaven. Seriously, this place is amazing. The location is perfect, located on a side street in Elizabeth right around the corner from the Visulite.

The shop is small and simple so expect to take your ice cream to go or grab a seat outside. This shop is locally owned by a couple, so sometimes the hours are a little odd.

The owners are kind and the ice cream is homemade. The flavors are diverse, everything from your staples to ginger and mango ice cream. The waffle cones are always fresh and the while the prices are a little more than you will pay other places, I'll gladly pay more for the quality. You can tell the ice cream isn't super surgery which makes it the perfect summer treat.

87 Great ambience, decent service, horrible pizza.

I'll keep it simple. Imagine hot rubbery tough dough sitting in your mouth. You chew and you chew and it just won't go away.

Unless they change the recipe this is once again great ambience and underwhelming food.

88 Wonderful little find! I am originally from Texas and this is as close to Tex-Mex as I have ever found in Orlando. They have margaritas as big as your head and the prices are comparable for the area. Definitely a place you should head for a great meal.

89 Nice small locals casino in Henderson. Good comps and good games and a A WILLIAM Hill sportsbook.

90 The best sushi place in the world. Little pricey but totally worth it!!!! The chef's board is great and don't forget to try oyster shooters! They are an explosion of flavor in your mouth!

91 Had been here before for my anniversary so I suggested it for brunch for my family. Called for a reservation and the hostess was rude right of the bat. My children got sick the night before we were supposed to go to brunch and my poor mother had to pay 25$ per person to cancel our reservation. There were 8 of us all together I have never heard of such a ridiculous penalty. It really makes me wonder who the hell they think they are. Brunch is big business in this town. No one else charges you money if you have to cancel. I will never be eating there again, and I will warn everyone I know against going here.

92 Like the environment. My friends tried cheese cake and they loved it. I tried their blooming flower tea and we great.

Owners were nice as well.

93 Every bartender was efficient and friendly. The truffle fries hit the spot for a mid day snack.

94 Small gay bar, but it packs people in and it is always a good time. Lots of lesbians! Has two levels and a small dance floor. Good music and cheap drinks! Love the back patio area.

95 Food is good, fries are ok, but the fish is kinda small in size, bigger pieces will be better

96 For take out home made pasta it's the best. There are only a few small tables to sit down at and they're usually taken.

97 really good coffee and home baked goods, the owners are chill and knowledgeable. rare gem in richmond, to be honest.

- 98 I hear this place is closed down now. Went there in Novemeber to see and hear Ken Ford play and I ordered some Gumbo. Sorry but the food here was so nasty and overpriced for the small portions you got. I have only been twice and both times the food sucked!!!
- 99 Again 5 star food and service! Ambiance is great!

A few rolls and the amazing BipBimbap....

Love Lucy, Little Bella, and Chad! See you soon!

- 100 The food is always amazing and fresh. Doesn't matter if you dine in or have it delivered it's perfect. Great people always happy to see or hear from their customers. Great local business give them a try.

1.4.2 Low Values

- 1 Had a wonderful service !! 5 stars because of the impeccable service by EUGENE! So wonderful and taken care of!! Not bad for drinks $$ wise or food! Pizza was good and light! Not too heavy! Was big enough to split with people ! Will come here again! Very comfortable seating!
- 2 Great bar food. Live music. Big play area attached to restaurant. Tons of families with kids outside on the patio. If you like no kid zones, this ain't the place for you. Large selection of beers. South Congress eggrolls can't be missed. Also had the Pinches Pie which is a large plate of chili pie topped with a fried egg. Ooo wee...don't do any heavy lifting afterwards. You got to let that baby digest. Well worth the potential heartburn.
- 3 We used to come here every week. Service is getting progressively worse. Seem like not enough people employed so there is a big waiting time. Ones came on Friday there was just one person cooking, making waffles and coffee... Food is ok. Coffee is not good. Watery even when you take small size espresso based. Will find something else...
- 4 Authentic fresh noodles and rich broth that didn't taste msg laden at a decent price – will come again when the soup noodle craving hits :) ...
- 5 I went here for dinner on a friends recommendation while back home in Orlando. Inside, the decor is very modern with a hint of cultural details which was nice.

I ordered the tikka masala which came with chip-like appetizers with various sauces to dip them in which were amazing. When my entree arrived however I was a bit disappointed in how small the portions were. The chicken was in a tray of sauce which both were very small and the rice was not that big either. The food itself was good however it was hard to justify the amount I paid

- 6 This place is pretty fantastic – everyone is always super nice and the food is consistently hot, fresh, and delicious. I've never come across anything I didn't like and the garlic naan with paneer kadai is particularly wonderful. The portion sizes are enough for dinner and lunchtime leftovers the following day so pretty generous overall.

7 SMOKED SALMON.

CREME BRULEE.

THIS IS ALL THAT YOU NEED TO KNOW.

That should be enough, anyway. Those are two mind blowing orgasmic food experiences right there.

I can't wait to go back. I desperately want to try out the brunch options on my next trip.

8 I pass by nearly every day and finally decided to stop in. Was not disappointed. Had Grandma's Pork. Just enough spice and absolutely delicious. (My spice tolerance is very high from growing up on Indonesian food). I like the decor, it is very trendy and Kendall Square, and a nice addition to the area.

9 I ordered the "Super Hot" wings and the waitress double looked at me as if shocked that I would ask for them.

I'm a major chili head and have yet to find wings that I found hot enough.

The super hot sauce finally gave me what I wanted. Eating them was great my lips were burning like they were terribly sunburned. The coleslaw was average, nothing exciting. The price was good for the amount of food we had. I will return for the super hot wings

10 Delicious, fresh and yum-filled.

Also, slow, rude and forgetful.

A reasonable trade-off? I haven't decided yet.

11 Got the turkey hash Benedict and it was so good! The portions are huge and it's pretty inexpensive compared to most other places! The servers are very kind and friendly!

12 Very fresh sashimi in large portion! Great place if you are craving for sashimi and many kinds of hand rolls, better quality than those all you can eat places. Will come back!

13 Came here on SAT night around 11pm. The crowd doesn't roll in until around 12:30am.

This place has 2 levels. Upstairs has a small dance floor and a small bar.

Downstairs has a nice sized bar with stool seating area. Slightly tight down stairs.

They smoke heavily in this place. Especially upstairs.

There are a few VIP sections with good space.

This place is actually located on 6th St off of West Peachtree St. Good luck with parking.

94.5 was broadcasting after 12. There were several tracks that were replayed over the course of the night.

Not really a dress code from what I could see.

14 This place is a one of a kind. Great for groups. Expect a large crowd and a wait if you are trying to get a table.

15 Love this place. Excellent food and drinks. Love the iced coffee, really big portions. Such a good value. Best kept secret in Orlando

16 I only tried the sushi and they were sooo delicious!! The chicken dynamite rolls were a-mazing! They're double the size of regular sushi i'm used to! Some are hard to handle and too big to fit in

- your mouth so they tend to fall apart but I didn't care — I would rather have big portions and good value for my money. This place was definitely that!
- 17 Good food. Good atmosphere. Server Jeremy was fantastic. He was extremely polite and we hope he waits on us again .
  - 18 Been to other locations before , and this one seems okay. Was greeted upon entering and was advised to seat myself. The tea that was served was not super hot , more like luke warm. Waited about 2 mins for someone to take my order. The food came fast and temperature was sufficient. The food tasted the same as other locations , so no complaints there. Fast food , good location , ample parking available. Nothing negative to say.
  - 19 Loveeee this place. It's pricey for pizza , but it's quality and they're large. Best of all it's a BYO which is so rare in Atlanta.
  - 20 Love the food. Have the diablo shrimp burrito. Also the flan is awesome!! :) really flavorful and reasonably priced. Will definitely be back!
  - 21 Best lobster roll I have ever had. The lobster is juicy and huge portions. The made to order clam chowder is to die for. Great selection of Oysters to choose from. Small and limited seating so get here early or you will be waiting outside.
  - 22 Pizza was a-ok and moderate beer selection. Nothing mind blowing , but they do accommodate large groups very well.
  - 23 Please do yourself a favor and venture of the strip to the Peppermill. Huge portions and affordable prices for the amount of food you get. And the best part , the food is great! Chicken Fried Steak was on point! Drinks were huge & reasonably price. The decor was the most brilliant , grotesque thing I'd ever seen.
  - 24 We always call in for pick up orders and the girls that answer are very nice. Always super yummy ESPECIALLY the chicken fried steak and eggs!
  - 25 Great food and great atmosphere. Reasonably priced. But food took overly long to arrive.
  - 26 Pathetic , Stale , Tasteless food. Found an insect inside my dish and upon asking was told that the light was too bright to be helped. Strongly non-recommended.
  - 27 Pulled pork , bbq sauce , mashed potatoes , baked beans , corn bread. Unreal. AND cheap considering the massive portions. Must go.
  - 28 Portions are HUGE! Our server said , "you order too much food!" Ahaha! Very authentic and delicious. Definitely will be back!!
  - 29 Huge and comprehensive menu , excellent pad thai , and biggest portions in Boulder. Got takeout here on both Christmas Eve and New Years eve before heading out to party. Thanks for being open when no one else was!! A+
  - 30 Awesome food in this little restaurant with a huge parking lot. You get large portions and wide variety of side. The sushi to me was just OK. The service is slow and there really seemed to be a communication barrier between us and our servers.

Don't expect anything fast or any smiles but do expect good food..

- 31 Chicken enchiladas are awesome! I stopped in last week. I like the vibe , despite the heavy family presence. There were a bunch of kids , but the place is big enough so you don't feel like kids are on top of your table. The wait staff was on point and the decor is fun. I definitely plan to return. I think my one and only qualm is the name. The Original El Taco, also known as the original the taco.....

32 Fresh and delicious but also healthy and can be as hearty as you want!! Toppings are also really good..

33 I am here to try famous "Lobster Roll" however not quite impressed. Not much Lobster for the price and bread was to overwhelming and can't taste the lobster!

The place is conveniently located and the service is really good.

I must try the other things in the menu for a better review about their food quality.

34 Staying at the Swan, this quick service, sit down restaurant was very good! My wife and I both have food allergies, to which the staff and chefs paid close, close attention to!

My wife got the Buffalo Chicken sandwich with cheese fries. The chicken was braised, but would have been better fried. The buffalo sauce was rich and the cheese was excellent.

I got the signature burger. WOW. A bacon guacamole spread (yum), caramelized onions, tons of bacon and 2 4-6 oz burger patties!! I also got the cheese fries, which are thick cut steak fries with a delicious cheese sauce.

Drinks are priced well. They have some craft sodas, beer and wine, and also a great ice cream menu for dessert!!

This is a must go to, for a quick, but delicious meal!!

35 A very busy location but is adequately clean and the service is fast the day of review post. Lots of staff in the back and cashier has a smile greeting customers.

36 $10 for a sad protein salad. Not even enough to be satisfied. Go to panda next door and get yourself a teriyaki chicken bowl that will fill you for $6

37 Five ladies were lucky enough to get a high top tonight. The haddock special was just that. Also the swordfish was outstanding. The service was very good. The music was so loud that we could hardly hear each other, which was very annoying since we hadn't seen each other in a year. Head banging music wasn't what I expected in a fine eatery. Will I go back for the food? Yes! I'm hoping the music will live up to the fine dining.

38 We opted to sit outside because it was SUPER LOUD inside (it's also attached to the Hilton). I had the tofu tacos which are the only vegetarian option, so luckily they are really delicious with crystallized ginger, mushrooms, and fennel. My mom said the fish tacos were pretty average. Fried Brussels were also delicious and the food came out really fast - even before our drinks, though we got those in a reasonable amount of time too.

I'd probably hit up a food truck for tacos next time I'm in Austin, but this place isn't bad at all.

39 Great and fast service, excellent food! The place was clean and has a casual atmosphere. Portions are large. Oxtail was amazing!!

- 40 Really solid food, quality ingredients, very accommodating for large groups.
- 41 Got lunch special toasted half turkey sandwich added mayo mustard and avocado. Yummy wheat rye bread. Generous portion with tons of real roasted turkey breast. Came with side salad with roasted red pepper vignagrette dressing. Lunch special doesn't come with chips so I added it.

Delicious!

Husband had lunch special with corned beef on white rye. Massive amounts of beef, he loved it.

I

- 42 Definitely a place to go if you're looking for good, fresh fish. Just like the other reviews point out, the rolls are great with really good fish. Not overly done, or too complex, but good flavorful rolls. Friendly service and reasonably priced as well.
- 43 I thought this place was a cool and fun place for my daughter and family. Overall a good size playground with designated areas for certain ages and a healthy amount of other children for the important aspect of socializing. Great for adults too who can sit back and watch their kids interact or also be there with them and enjoy their time with the kids. Great how they also have a good and beverage location and there're no limit on how long you can be there for the fee. The entry fee is reasonable for what they offer and it's great for several hours of fun for the kiddos and parents. Most of all its indoor with AC which helps during the extreme summer months heat. No complaints and will be back again.
- 44 Huge portions and great staff! We loved this place. Quick and yummy.
- 45 The mushroom grilled cheese is unusual and delish! Don't know what kind of pickles they serve, but they are wonderful. Sweet and dilly at the same time. Huge portions. Excellent lunch!
- 46 Just heard, Walmart raised 25 million....not donated but raised.....again read carefully...not donated but begged for 25 million...Walmart is a Billion dollar company and just raised $$$$ good for them hope they get rich (er)

- 47 I should mention that when it comes to Coffee Shops, I am primarily concerned with:

- a) How late they're open
- b) How much space they have
- c) Seating
- d) Ambience
- e) Quality of Drinks/Food

I all but one of these categories, I'm quite satisfied! They are open late which is great if you're a night owl who likes to get out of the house to work sometimes. It's a large palce with lots of seating, and the decorating/general feel is very groovular.

The drinks and food are only so-so. It's hard to compete with Stumptown and Coffee House NW.

I will say though that they're largest size is HUGE. It's like 5293580 oz. or something close to that I'm pretty sure. The largest size kind of looks like a ridiculous prop a clown would use to make fun of large coffees. So like, I don't know if that's a good or bad thing???

- 48 Eat before you go. Tapas is a miss communication. Portions are very small. More like hors d'oeuvres. Left hungry. Not even enough to share. Three items for 25 dollars. So after paying 60$ total I was pretty disappointed. Frankly there are better dining options in the hotel.
- 49 Decent food, excellent atmosphere and service.

The prices are a bit high, but the portions are big so perhaps it balances out...

- 50 Meh. Tbh this is kinda my response to a lot of the Cameron Mitchell restaurants around Columbus now. Very generic foods at very non generic prices. For what they charge I would expect more. The steak is just ok, and you can get better steak in a number of places. They offer a Manhattan flight which was not good. The bourbon selection is pretty good overall, but the cocktails themselves were not great. There are better places to spend your money in Columbus.
- 51 Great service by Grace and fantastic food. The guacamole was unique and full of flavor. I had the seafood enchiladas which were the bomb!
- 52 I ordered the pad thai from here and it was OK. It was a large portion for the price I paid, but I have had better. It was kind of dry and not extremely flavorful but I still enjoyed it.
- 53 Great place for dinner and show! We had the caesar and wedge salads...both were generous servings and delicious. Kids had the chicken strip platters....again the serving size was very generous. Adults had the NY steak and churrasco steak. Generous serving great taste!
- 54 This place is the best Ethiopian restaurant in the Valley. Every out of town guest we bring to Cafe Lalibela comes away impressed. Vegetarian options are mostly vegan and are therefore lighter than those at most other Ethiopian places. The Doro Wat is also a must. This place never disappoints.
- 55 Soooo good!!! They have an extremely large selection of bagels, omelets, salads, etc. If you have picky eaters, you can also order customized food. They also have amazing coffee!!!
- 56 Very ipa focused, but I had a scotch ale that was good!

Venue is large, with plenty of games to play and a large projector screen!

- 57 Who said Starbucks was good?

The Dancing Goats Latte with extra vanilla has the most exquisite taste... almost like a dessert. And I'm not a coffee person. Luv coffee in here.

- 58 It was just okay. The frozen drink my mom got wasn't fully blended, so chunks of ice remained. The portions were huge but the whole menu seemed overpriced. And WHYYYY, dear Jesus, do the outdoor cabanas not have AC? It's 100 frickin degrees!
- 59 Great service and yummy cocktails! Trevor, Chandler, and Lemos were attentive, funny, and made for some great conversation. Definitely recommend the pillow talk drink. The manager, Jayven, also checked in with us to make sure everything was going well. Already looking forward to my next visit!
- 60 Fantastic food. Portions were were adequate for an 18 year old boy. They were huge. Loved the place! Great service.

- 61 The service was great. Nice atmosphere— great TVs for watching the games. Menu covered all the bases. Burger was perfectly cooked— brioche bun! My husband had ahi tacos and was very happy with them. Would come back again to watch game with group. Couch seating also available. Upper deck bar is nice and lively too.
- 62 This place is great! We went on a Sunday morning. I had the enchiladas. The sauce was perfection with just the right amount of heat and smokiness. The egg on top was also perfectly cooked. I was really impressed and can't wait to go again. They are heavy on local sourcing which is just icing on the cake for me.
- 63 Phil's meat is always great but the bento cart out front is one of the better $5 meals you can come across in Portland. The skewers are stacked generously with fresh meat and onions on a large portion of rice and then topped with Phil's special teriyaki sauce and of course the sweet chili sauce.
- 64 I was in the area and was looking for a quick bite. Staff was extremely friendly. Got the original Philly cheesesteak and a philthy sized original poutine. Philly cheesesteak was tasty, but the philthy sauce was a bit sweet for my liking. The poutine was amazing!! Portions are big and can be shared.
- 65 We had edamame, rainbow roll, Louisiana crab roll, mango sake mojito. Yummy food, good service, fun music, clean bathrooms.
- 66 I had the legendary bowl of red chili, XX spicy which was the perfect amount of spice. I got a large which is a very generous portion. It is very thick and hearty and very tasty. Highly recommend!!
- 67 Delish food, huge portions, somewhat slow to receive food but that allowed us to enjoy the half priced wine
- 68 Large portions, reasonable prices, and entertaining watching the dancers dance while waiting on my food
- 69 Mediocre food that's too heavily seasoned with sesame oil. Service was slow and inattentive. Not sure why my dear fellow yelper thought so highly of Big Wongs. Definitely not what I'd consider authentic.
- 70 Wonderful service, great food and a wide menu selection.
- 71 Talk about yummy authentic Thai food!!

What attracted me to this restaurant was their lobster tom yum pad thai.

We came here for a birthday on a saturday night, lucky we made a reservation as the restaurant is quite small with limited tables.

With a big group, we pretty much got to try almost everything on the menu — from the fried fish cakes to pad thai to fried rice, curry and mango sticky rice.

The only one downfall that we had was that there were a few items we wanted to order but was not available( ie. chicken wings & thai iced tea icecream), and the meat in the paneng curry was also a but dry.

Overall price is also pretty good, comparable to other similar thai restaurants. We paid about $30 per person including tips.

Items i would recommend:

Lobster tom yum pad thai ( if you can't eat spicy you might want to skip)

Chicken pad thai

Pad Ka Pao – my favourite**
Khao Soi

Remember to also check-in on yelp to get a free yummy thai iced tea !!!

- 72 Delicious! Absolutely perfect for mango lovers! The mango pudding was rich and creamy. I also got the Mango Mania drink which was filled with everything mango.
- 73 One of my favourite Greek restaurants in the city. The chicken gyro and plate are both very good. They also give huge portions. If you like Greek food then you should try this place.
- 74 The oyster selections are good. Like to try different oysters for reasonable price. Be sure to arrive early cuz always packed. Kinda like a hidden place.
- 75 Best Value! Go to the pub and order some of the smaller dishes. None of them are over $9.00 and the portions are huge. You can also get this outside on their patio. The patio is a great place to hang out in the Summer time. The ambiance is not like other patios. It is quiet and clean with unique structures.
- 76 This place is so good. I don't have any negatives! Please try if you're in the area. Ive eaten here twice and both were amazing. The steak salad is so big and filling. Possibly the best steak I've had in a salad in my life. I also recommend the falafel balls!
- 77 I'm not really a fan of eating something that I could easily make at home, but I had to try Anton's since it's a Burnaby institution and as a resident of this city for over 3 decades, I just have to try it because everyone is shocked to hear that I haven't eaten at Anton's and they're famous for their very large portions of pasta!

A coworker convinced me to do my very first food challenge and I wasn't even hungry at the time of the challenge because I ate a big bowl of oatmeal with nuts in the morning and a lunch of rice chicken and veggies, but I assumed have eaten this large amount of pasta — after viewing the pasta dishes photos for Anton's — during carb loading before a marathon/ultra marathon.

I had the Linguine Con Salmone Affumicato which is smoked salmon in dill cream sauce. When the pasta arrived on my table, I was definitely shocked by the very large portion size. The linguine tasted heavy and firm and I wished there was more sauce. I couldn't really taste much of the dill sauce, but there was a decent amount medium sized pieces of fresh looking smoked salmon. Unfortunately, there was also a fishy taste to the salmon and it would be nice if they added something to eliminate the fishy taste.

I managed to finish my dish, but the pasta was not exactly amazing, but I did receive a pen right after I finished everything on my plate. Five days later, I still feel full from eating the plateful of pasta. The feeling of fullness resulted for me to eat less and I ended up losing a considerable amount of weight because of it. So, if you want to lose weight (which I don't need or want to), try eating the whole thing!!!

- 78 I love AAamazing Salad! The Rainbow Wasabi Bowl is my favourite, but any of the bowls are really delicious. Haven't tried a salad yet but they are very popular too. The owners run the restaurant, and they are always very happy to serve everyone and know the regulars etc. A small portion of every purchase goes to SickKids hospital too. I love having a healthy, fresh, and affordable place to get lunch in Kensington. Similar places like Urban Herbivore are much more expensive, but also bigger portions. I find AAS portions are just right (nothing goes to waste), and the price point is appropriate for those who buy lunch frequently. Each bowl or salad comes with a drink too. They also use the app RITUAL for fast ordering via Apple Pay, and when you pick up in the restaurant you get to skip the line. They also have a stamp card – for every 10 bowls/salads, you get one free (unless you pay using RITUAL, then you can't get a stamp).

Love this place and I hope they have continued success!

79 decent coffee. large cookies. busy study environment. hip.

80 Cozy, laid-back pub with a good selection of beers on tap. I expected mostly American food but they have a wide variety of menu offerings! We ordered the Korean fried wings, a steak-topped pizza and fish tacos. Service is friendly and it's also a good spot in the North Quarter area to watch a game.

81 This is a great place to study or to get your post-workout smoothie!

The ambiance is great for studying, just loud enough to keep me from feeling antsy and quiet enough that I don't get annoyed by other patrons.

This is possibly the best cafe for a balance of coffee and food. I would actually eat here, as opposed to most coffee shops. Really, 90% of the time I'd rather starve than eat the stale baked goods.

Also, right next to Princeton Club.

82 Decent food. Historic location..... If you like heavy burgers this is the place.....

83 My co workers and I always order this as carry out and bring back to the office. It comes in huge portions so you can easily split with someone else.

84 Very well organized. Nice calm place to eat. Food was decent for a large scale massive operation. Good value too.

85 Bread is delicious, especially the chocolate zucchini! Employees are friendly and helpful, always willing to answer questions. I also appreciate the free samples. I'm sure I'll be back many times.

86 One of the largest Asian market in Phoenix. Its gigantic.. Really bad smell when you enter.. But you get all Asian things there. You get lot of Indian drinks here.

87 This is a great spot for a quick Japanese lunch. They have a huge selection of all you can eat Japanese food and excellent bento boxes. The quality of the food is amazing for the price which is extremely affordable. The service is also excellent and they will accommodate for all dietary restrictions by subbing veggie for shrimp tempura or a cucumber for a California roll in the bento boxes and meals. I recommend this as a really good option for great food at great prices.

88 Please note: this is based on the smoothies only. The last one I had, berry something... had huge ice chunks in it, the consistency wasn't great and it tasted bleh.

I've experienced much better tasting smoothies at better prices for the size at places like The Juicery or Mother Juice in Boston.

- 89 XS, the best club in Vegas! It's very big & so pretty by the pool & dance floor. Girls, better wear some comfy heels, otherwise this big place is gonna kill ur feet!
- 90 Love this place. Great donuts and super-friendly staff. Love that they use non-GMO and organic ingredients as well. They will also cater to just about every dietary need or restriction.
- 91 Don't ask me why or how I've lived in Charlotte almost all my life and I JUST now tried this place. What was I waiting for?? The dessert/bakery case is enough to give Amelie's a run for their money. Their menu is as big as The Cheesecake Factory, but way easier to read. Of course, when in Rome, do as the Romans do, so I ordered a gyro platter. Delish. We also got the stuffed grape leaves appetizer and honestly, that was big enough for a meal. Our server was on point, friendly and knowledgeable. I can't wait for my next visit!
- 92 Maybe the worst pizza I've ever had. Asked 3x for a well done pizza and the cheese was hardly melted. What a fucking joke!! $40 laying on my hotel floor uneaten!
- 93 Hard to find, but worth the search. Had the chile relleno taco plate. Switched out the tamale for a chicken enchilada. The only disappointment was that this combo didn't come with rice & beans. Margarita was excellent. Victoria was attentive & friendly. Salsa could have had more zip. Chips ample & crisp.
- 94 This is a great place for lunch. Casual and quick, the salsa bar is great. Food is good, not super heavy, and large portions. The location is a bit sketchy being over at the Metrocenter, but worth the risk of getting mugged for this tasty mexican cuisine.
- 95 Had the Chicken Almadine—excellent. Wife had the macaroni and cheese—very good (a little spice for her taste). Huge portions, cool atmosphere and excellent service.
- 96 Just because I'm a Michigan alum doesn't mean I don't enjoy a good tailgating Saturday on OSU campus every now and then, especially during the warmer part of football season. I've pushed my way through VC on a variety of occasions as this place is always packed for any home athletic event. My most recent visit was a couple of nights ago before the OSU/Michigan hockey game. Good beer specials/prices and tasty bar food. A majority of appetizer and sandwich options are well under $6 — have to appreciate a bar recognizing that bar food is cheap and therefore should be priced as such. Their pizza, on the other hand, is rather steep in price — we got a 14" (the largest size) that was $16.50. But their pizza is very good, even though our server told us they were all pre-made? I'm guessing she meant crust, sauce, and cheese part were pre-made considering we customized our order. Don't expect excellent service prior to sporting events due to crowdedness and the servers are all college students. Also don't expect any presentation of your food — my fried zucchini was served on a paper plate. I would ask for a different dipping sauce, like ranch — the sauce I got was better for shrimp, but for $3 I can't really complain.

- 97 The booths were clean, the service was quick, and the menu was large. We both enjoyed our breakfast!
- 98 Their huge dance floor is exactly what I was looking for. I had no problems service, the back bartender was incredibly nice, and the music selection was up to date with just enough throw back moments. Great place to bring a party of people there's enough room to hang and then go off and do your own thing WITHOUT LOSING EVERYONE. Huge plus in my book.

Perfect place to let loose your dancing bug.

- 99 Really great food and service. Very reasonably priced, especially if you hit happy hour. They have great beers on tap and they're big.
- 100 The most delicious, gluten free desserts and speciality baked goods!!! Look no further!!!

We have been back several times. Great service!

Diagnosed with celiacs 8 years ago... this is, hands down, the most delicious goodness I've had!!!

1.5 Waiting Outcome

1.5.1 High Values

1 Very expensive, uncooked home fries, slow service, long wait....
Will never go back. Bad service, dirty tables.

Stay away.

2 This place... I mean wow!

Adam is on point and the cooks Manny and Philly know what they're doing! They have a system down to a tee. The service and food is excellent.

This is my second visit here. The first time was for a hardy dinner. The second time, an epic mound of breakfast deliciousness.

This spot has a low lite feel with people flocking everywhere.

Don't come, I don't want to have to wait too long for a table.

P.S. Watch out for the piping hot plates!

3 Good food and atmosphere, but make sure allow for a long meal.
They screwed up our name on the wait list, wait time was not what we were told, excessive wait time to place order, had to ask for ordered drinks 2 times, excessive wait time for food (25 mins), then it took another 20-25 mins to pay the bill. Breakfast was good, but not worth all the screw ups and no apologies!

4 Pitiful!!! Long time customer and showed up at 11:33pm to grab a quick bite to go and the goofy waitress tells us last call was at 11:30pm - then don't say you are open until 12:00pm!! - last call?? Last time I will eat here!!! Used to be a cool place, but NO MORE!!!! It is a shame when the cool owner goes home early and let's the wait staff suck the cool out of the place!!!

5 Good food. Price is ok. Wait time os to long.

And i wish their portions were a bit bigger

6 I love this place! Ice cream and other desserts are delicious. The service is always great. Gotta support small businesses with quality products!

7 Had the mini curry the gyoza and the chicken ramen! Super delicious! Good service as always!

8 Trendy Mexican eatery tucked away off of Camelback Ave. Our second choice for dinner because the wait was too long elsewhere. Surprised there was no wait here. Not your ordinary Mexican fare. Upscale without pretension. Gourmet

But approachable

9 I love this place whether I'm in California or Nevada! Linguini and Clans and the Grilled Octopus!

10 Awesome! Our server, Jimmy, helped the four of us put together a dinner of 9 delicious dishes. The sea bass and the cucumber martinis are a must! Jimmy was the best server I've had in a very long time. Thanks for making our dining experience one I'll never forget.

11 I am a HUGE fan of corporate Chick-fil-a. I grew up in Georgia and not only love the food but believe in their mission. This particular location can't seem to get it together. Every time I come here, I usually have a long wait, they are out of an item or my service is "off". I've never seen the GM either—which could be part of the problem.

12 This place has so many great options! My favorite thing was the Thai Tea float it's really to die for. They gave us great customer service and we didn't really have to wait long for anything

13 My chicken couldn't be more seductively dressed! It's grilled to perfection with ample peri peri sauce – I like it in mild. You can pick any number of side dishes and they do have a good variety to select from! This is my idea of comfort food. Mmm delicious!

Oh & the owner at this location is very courteous. Despite being a fast food chain, he will walk up to your table to ensure you've no complaints.

I am deducting a star off for that awful rice they serve! Why is it still on menu at all locations?????

14 Friendly baristas, great coffee and cool art on the walls! They can make all their espresso drinks iced and their muffins are chock full of fruit, really good. I'm so glad I live close by...

15 Pretty great, the food is good and so are the drinks (can you tell I'm trying to meet word count?) well I hope you guys have found this useful (what am I doing?) if you want to eat some food I drink a drink, go to firebirds because they are good!

16 The food was very good and the portions huge. We had great service and I especially loved the seafood enchiladas. We hadn't been for quite a while and glad our friends suggested it.

17 Went to Cheesecake factory last night with my family to celebrate my birthday. Long wait as to be expected but our service was excellent as were our meals. Huge portions and fairly priced. We will be back.

18 The first time I came here, I was in awe of how great everything was. We ordered at the bar and the bartender was attentive and focused. The food was great, and the portion of food was ...a lot.

I came here a second time for weekend brunch. My friends and I laughed nervously about how bad the table service was, and I was even sassed at while asking for a water refill. In addition to waiting for a very long time for everything, the food was not good.

I'm willing to go back another time, and I hope that was just a bad day for Blackheart.

19 Amazing food great drinks and service. Definitely recommend the maple bourbon chicken

20 Want to try interesting local beers and cask ales?

Go to brydens.

Want killer cheesy, messy, pub nachos? Brydens.

Want to escape hipsterland and just relax at a dive-esque bar?

Bry-dens!

21 The food wasn't memorable nor remarkable. My wait time for my order was 10 minutes. The food is cooked to order and the place wasn't crowded. Average tasting food with a long wait time. Probably won't return.

- 22 I love ordering delivery from Senor Pollo... my favorites are the catfish, the fried chicharones, and the burritos. They are really always timely and accurate.
- 23 Place sucks WiFi terrible after you pay for foe show I want service. Bouncers are rude accept my friend is cool there rude and bartenders all want tips cash tips in my well up there NEVER GO AGAIN ever
- 24 Always, reliably good food, friendly service, minimal wait. Glad to have this place nearby.
- 25 I sat at the bar. Great atmosphere. The BEST burger I've had in a long time. Dare I say the best in Phoenix? I think I dare.
- 26 La Fiesta is the crown jewel of Curry Ford Road's casual restaurant row. Good food, friendly service, fast preparation, and good value. I love the complimentary salsa carafes and the inexpensive Modelo Especial. I always get the burrito/taco lunch special but the shrimp plates look fantastic. I may expand my horizons for the new year.
- 27 Great place! They are very nice and very generous with toppings! I will be back this was the best pizza I have had in a long time!
- 28 Nice spot right in the center of the Montrose neighborhood. The wait was a bit long, but the food was good none the less. Definitely will do a round 2!
- 29 Always a great meal at an affordable price. Atmosphere is always welcoming. Quick service healthy portions and always friendly!
- 30 Great food. From the Gyros to the Athenian Stir-Fry. Always tasty.
- 31 Construction has made it a little more difficult to find but that doesn't seem to have hurt their business any. This location is always packed not matter what time of day you go but they are usually properly staffed so while the line might be long you usually don't wait too long for your actual drink.
- 32 Kudos to the chef who keep the taste always consistent with great quality. Special appreciation to Rana for humble hospitality.
- 33 Good food if you already ate. Super small portions super pricey. I paid $70 for two to still be hungry typical neo California influence in Austin.
- 34 very delicious and HUGE donuts and good latte! The line can be very long during busy house but service is quick, so you never wait too long in line.
- 35 Excellent service. Fantastic dishes.

The owner is always in the floor greeting the guests and personally getting involved in service.

The food is always fresh and of excellent quality.

- 36 Food is amazing service is always great. Price is ideal. The best! Carnitas quesadilla is my go to.
- 37 Over priced the wait was long and my food was cold. Do NOT waste your time on some wanna be soul food
- 38 The food was very tasty and the place smelled of authentic mediterranean food. Flavorful vegetarian options as well! I will definitely be returning to this restaurant.
- 39 Good food. Long Wait. I had the Guacamole Omelette (fresh tomatoes, avocado and added bacon). Would go back on a non-Sunday.
- 40 Large range of beers, enjoyed their flight of mostly lager-style beers. Poor service, had to ask for water and long wait times between the server attending the table. He ended up being cut and the second server was better

- 41 Great neighborhood Italian restaurant! The staff is great and the wine bar is a fantastic addition. We have been long time regulars and consider Vincitorio's a second home. The wine list is excellent and they have something for every price range.
- 42 I go here every time I go to Las Vegas but they need to speed up their time on how long the order take because I spent over 30 mins in line on a Wednesday evening and I think the time was a bit over but the food is amazing and it's something you should try when you visit Las Vegas. I believe they take their time on making the tortillas handmade and the guacamole on top makes it amazing. I always go for the carne asada tacos and stop by 7-11 for a soda because it's a bit expensive their for drinks so I need to go somewhere else for that.
- 43 Long waits & the food was good but nothing spectacular. The scones/biscuits are way overpriced & you get the smallest amount of jelly to go with it. I got the granola & it was ok.. I wouldn't wait 1.5 hours for it again though.
- 44 I love coming here after a long rigorous hike. The AÃ aÃ Power bowl is refreshing and filling. The bowl has just the right sweetness and hits the spot every time.
- 45 Without a doubt, the best pizza I have had in a long, long time.

The location is awesome. It has that cool pizzeria ambience.

The staff is great.

Oh yeah, the owner's pretty cool too :-)

- 46 Hands down the best sandwich shop around. I have been going here for a long time now. They pack every sandwich with plenty of meat, cheese and produce. They never disappoint and you will always leave very satisfied.
- 47 Best sandwiches I've had in a long time. Go for the chicken schnitzel and roast beef sandwiches. Top notch
- 48 This is my favorite place in all of Portland. So beautiful, so peaceful and relaxing. There are benches all over where you can sit and enjoy the garden for all long as you like. The teahouse is perfect. Delicious, authentic teas and sometimes there is someone playing a Chinese stringed instrument (forget the name) that lends such a peaceful air, all while looking out over the garden. Don't leave Portland without a visit here.
- 49 Godawful expensive food with a wait that is so long that you wonder what on earth they're doing.

No, really, folks could drop $80 anywhere else and have a fantastic dinner. The only exception: the volcano ice cream brownie desert.

- 50 This place is incredible.

Been to Vietnam about 7-8 times now.

This is just like home super scrumptious incredible

- 51 I love the outdoor seating! & since it's cold the Fire pit is great to sit around & drink & eat! :) also huge portions great food specials
- 52 I came on Father's Day expecting a hassle but was pleasantly surprised. The food is very good. All of the employees were so sweet, I haven't had that kind of customer service in a long time!!

53 it is a good one and the view of outside dining is awesome.
the waiting time is a little bit long, so I suggest to make an appointment in advance.

54 Amazing! Top notch quality food. So much better than Bellagio's buffet. King crab legs, shrimp cocktail, prime rib, lamb chops, sushi, dim sum... oh and delicious desserts!

55 We've been going to Siam Orchid for a long time and consider it our favorite Thai restaurant in Phoenix. The couple that own the restaurant are always friendly and gracious. They prepare the food to order and are willing to spice the dishes to your liking.

56 Trina's is one of my favorite places because:

-Food and cocktails are consistently good. Really good! Mac and cheese is the best. Arancini and squash blossoms are both excellent but they're seasonal dishes, so they're not on the menu all the time.

-Service is fast and friendly. This place is pretty small but somehow the wait is never very long.

-Prices are pretty reasonable.

57 Great Sushi place in a convenient location. Food is always fresh and the service is always great. Definitely recommend this place to Sushi lovers.

58 The beers are flavorful and delicious and the staff are always pleasant and helpful. The food truck is also great!

59 Several review since mine of people hating it. Still don't understand as the selection is HUGE and the food is always great. Have never left here once unsatisfied!

60 The sushi was okay. But we waited for an extremely long time to get our next dish... Though not a bad place to have a long chat with ur friends but definite not a suitable place if you are starving even it's all you can eat...

61 Two of us went to brunch. On line reservations were easy even thought I had to push the time out twice. Greeted promptly and seated at a comfortable booth. Wait staff came right away with water and ready to take our drink order. Food arrived in perfect time (not rushed or too long). My friends french fries were not hot and mine were super hot, we got the attention of the wait staff and a refreshed batch were dispatched quickly. The interior is beautiful and calming. The restaurant isn't noisy. Looking forward to going back for lunch or dinner sometime soon.

62 Loooooooooove the food, service is fast and always good. highly recommend the mango drink, tikka masala, and garlic naan bread.

63 2nd best pizza in town, always a ton of toppings and cheese. Garlic bread here is also superb.

64 Go here for lunch once in a while. The food is always good, old school and super yummy, but the service is too long of a wait sometimes.

Worth going back to all the time.

65 Crazy long wait time and horrible dining ambience. Squished 5 people in 4 people sitting.

66 Slow service. Basic breakfast buffet at higher price. Food was hot and tasty but took long time to get refills and check. Total check was $34 without tip for an avg breakfast seems high to me.

67 Food was good service was sub par. Took a long long long long time to get our food. Should be called bad juju 68 I had the pleasure of getting wonderful Chinese food for my family to go, and a glass of wine at P F Chang's last night. If you ever want fantastic Asian fare and great service, this is the place. You will be very lucky if Gina is your server, she's great.

69 Great breakfast joint!

Loved the steak and cheesy eggs.

The chocolate potato donut is addictive.

Great menu, especially the tapas style options for the professional foodie grazer.

70 Long wait, but definitely worth it. Nice, big, filling, well built burger. I got the mushroom Swiss burger. The fries were also delicious. 2 guys running the place. Would come here for the food again if I wasn't bowling.

71 Arrived around 8:40pm, decided to sit in the bar area. All the tables were dirty. I had to ask for service, not what I expected from a Ruth Chris. Finally got our waitress, she was cordial and tried to make up for the shortfall. I thought the attention to detail for this fine restaurant needs to be revisited.

72 This place is awesome!! We have been twice now and had a great experience each time. They have a great covered patio. Excellent michaladas and fajitas. I had their enchiladas on my first trip there and they were fantastic. Very fresh and not mass produced. Wait staff are knowledgeable and the manager stopped by our table during both visits to make sure our experience was good. I highly recommend Tacos and Tequillas!

73 I'm happy to hear they are closed. One of the worse places I've ever worked in my entire life.

74 Awesome large pizza with canadian bacon and mushrooms. Yummy chicken fingers. Great service great food...

75 The Reggie and the Reggie Deluxe were tasty. Gravy was served the way gravy should taste. There was a wait to order but worth the wait!

76 So freakin good!!! World class. Worth the wait.

Grab a cider from Atlas while you wait.

This place is the real deal.

77 Great food, felt nostalgic..was waiting for long for this chain to open up in Austin and now that it's open will be a regular here.

78 Really disappointed, I ordered a meat lover pizza and add three toppings on it, and they just gave me a pizza have nothing but that three toppings on it. I payed $19 for it, and I waited for a long time. Never gonna order it again

79 Had the Monday night dinner buffet. Was very disappointed. Used a 2-for-1 coupon and still thought it overpriced. The place reminded me of a hospital cafeteria.

80 A tiny restaurant with classic middle eastern dishes and decor.

We visited on a Friday night for dinner and the place is packed. We were lucky enough to get a seating without much wait but we had a hard time getting the waiters attention to place our order. If not for the long initial wait, I would have rated the place with a 4 star as the food is good (not phenomol, especially the falafel).

The tea and coffee were served in an ornate turkish cups. The restaurant I believe sells the serveware if anyone is interested.

81 Just as i've said before. Im a Walgreens girl.

My daughter is turning 25 this year and Im doing a scrapbook, of her life up til now.

Went in today at 1pm and had about 4 of those disposable cameras to develop.

By 1:15 they were texting my phone and telling me I could pick them up.

Now that is fast photo processing.

82 We ordered delivery here Sunday night. Number 1 and number 18 and it arrived less than 40 mins.

Awesome pizza thing crust and quality toppings. One of the best pizzas I have had in a long time!

83 Every time I visit Markham, I always find time to come here for their Hainan Chicken with rice. Although I don't care much about the soup that comes with the meal, the chicken is deboned, tender and juicy. The flavor is amazing. That's why I keep coming back. There is usually a line up waiting for a table, but I never had to wait too long. Today (Sunday), we arrived at 1pm and got a table around 1:15pm. Food arrived quickly so we didn't have to wait for long.

84 Meh over priced. Wait time takes too long. They are trying to be a upscale fast food but food is mediocre

85 Slowest food truck I've ever even heard of. 40 minute wait!?! Never again. He was offended that we even brought it up. Only go here if you care to wait and wait and wait. And it wasn't even busy.

86 Everything I have had here is delicious including their sushi. Don't go when it's too busy or you may have a long wait. They are also on uber eats. Kosher meat family style place.

87 Always liked the old Finz. New atmosphere is spacious with a large central bar. Food and drinks are still great. Definitely a staple on the list.

88 The food was great, and the atmosphere as well. However, the service was terrible. It took a very long time to get a drink. Some of the meals served were incorrect and had to be sent back.

89 Nice friendly spot. We were enjoying a 15+ person family reunion and all headed here for lunch. The staff put most of the tables together for us and were extremely accomidating. Salads and sandwiches were imaginative and tasty. All of us were happy with our very different choices.

90 This was the first coffee place I tried in the northwest since I'm from Oklahoma. The girl working was so sweet and the extensive and creative menu was so awesome! I got a gold rush and Cookie Monster and they were both soooo good. I want to have a gold rush coffee every morning.

91 First time here but it sure won't be the last! Best chicken teriyaki I've had in a long time. Can't wait to explore the menu.

92 I just ordered the make your bowl with udon and double white meat protein and veggies. Absolutely amazing!! I used the app for delivery and am completely happy!! Also, I tried the green curry sauce and love it. Lots of food and very fresh.

- 3 I love their food but every time I come to the establishment in drive thru 10 mins before they'll acknowledge you very rude the majority of the time always short staff just rudely told me I'll tell you when I'm ready theirs only two of us... you'll spend atleast thirty minutes waiting... Please do better.. several times I've just left
- 4 After about a 30 minute wait with some free beer from karbach we got our brisket sausage and short rib. Food was great and reasonably priced , friendly staff and great atmosphere. Austin is the home to the best BBQ in the world , and this little spot is within the top 10.
- 5 I can't speak for the food at The Black Rose however I can tell you it is a great place to enjoy drinks and Irish music. I found the service to be very quick and friendly which was amazing considering how busy they were.

The band was playing authentic Irish music which along with the quality drink and service made for a great night out.

- 6 Found this place wandering around on our first day in Toronto. Started our day drinking here. Very chill place. The owner and staff were very friendly and chatted with us while we enjoyed our drinks. Had a Canadian cider. It was pretty good. This is a great place to hang out during the day or even for nightlife. Highly recommended.
- 7 Visite a midi avec un groupe de collÃ gues . On a rÃ servÃ et on a bien fait car un vendredi c'est trÃ s populaire. Les collÃ gues sont dÃ jÃ venus et apprÃ cient particulieÃ rement les pizzas au feu de bois. Nous sommes plusieurs Ã plutÃ t viser les salades repas. Le menu est long , il y en a pour tous les goÃ ts.

La bouffe Ã tait bonne, pourquoi donc 3 Ã toiles seulement?

Le service Ã tait terrible. La serveuse pas sympa. Nous faisant des remarques bizarres Ã plusieurs reprises. Visiblement on gÃ nait. Ou alors elle est pas dans le bon mÃ tier. Elle a irritÃ notre table par son manque de professionnalisme . AprÃ s on a attendu plus de 30 min pour nos plats. Donc la pause de midi a traÃ nÃ en longueur et les collÃ gues se demandaient si on arriverait Ã l'heure pour nos rÃ unions de l'aprÃ s -midi. Peut-Ã tre qu'ils Ã taient Ã cours de staff , que le menu propose trop d'options diffÃ rentes qui rend la prÃ paration plus longue... si le service avait Ã tÃ sympa on aurait probablement laissÃ couler mais c'Ã tait pas le cas.

Bref une expÃ rience mitigÃ e .

- 8 Backcountry Pizza really hit it out of the park tonight. Their poutine's gravy was just the right smooth consistency and full of beef, pork, and duck flavor and cheese (I'm guessing Gruyere) melted right into the fries without being overbearing. When the chicken parmesan over pasta arrived ($12) I was surprised that it had three large strips of chicken. The chicken was covered in melted cheese, which was perfect for this dish. The service was courteous and fast.
- 9 Another new joint right in my neighborhood. I was intrigued by all the photos posted outside advertising their food so I decided to try it one day. While there are many items I would like to try, their prices are quite high leaving you purchasing only one item per visit.

- 10 I used to love this place. That was way back when it didn't have much competition.

Past 2 visits, I've been pretty disappointed by the so so sides of brunswick stew and super sweet baked beans. While the actual ribs were fatty and pretty tasteless. The sauce was the only saving grace for the ribs.

Unfortunately, Fat Matt's has gone down in my list of BBQ shacks around town. I'll stick to my favorite, Fox Brothers. Sorry Matt!

- 11 The space is lovely. It's a great spot to rest after a day of shopping in the neighborhood. I love how the place is laid out. Coffee is good. Choose this place over Starbucks!
- 12 C'est bon quand c'est long ... Super bon brunch mais le service est trÃ s trÃ s lent. On Ã tait une grosse table mais on a eu nos assiettes presque une heure aprÃ s notre arrivÃ e. Par contre, Ã a valait le coup d'attendre, c'Ã tait bon ! Ils m'ont mÃ me fait un chaÃ latte rÃ ussi alors qu'il n'est pas Ã la carte.
- 13 Does not take apple pay instead wants to use their own app witch is extremely inconvenient and selfish and I called customer service before hand to make sure they took apple pay and I stayed on the phone for 10 minutes waiting before I gave up and just went to academy witch I called before first and they answered very fast and were very helpful, fuck walmart
- 14 Big fan. Great fusion. Short but good menu. Great value. Plenty of Gluten free options. Deadhead heaven.
- 15 Restaurant decor is upscale and inviting. Food was very fresh, very good. My wife and I enjoyed everything, ordered several sides to sample with pita while waiting for entrees.

Only suggestion I'd make is to offer a combo option of the sides... with only two of us dining, one portion of a $5 side is plenty for two people. So we shouldn't need to order 3 sides (enough for 6-8 people) just to sample hummus and other sides. Offer a combo mix of say any three for the same price and quantity; $5 suitable for two people.

The other reason is that even for two of us that we each have a preference, and for us to order more than one side means a lot of uneaten (too much) food, so a combo plate with smaller portions of each is ideal.

- 16 Worth walking the extra blocks south from the tourist traps on Water St. The blueberry on soft serve original in a cone was deliciously smooth and rich without being too sweet.
- 17 Near Tarragon, fast service, outstanding Latino dishes, ribs mole, Mexican sausages, Caesar with pork rinds and anchovies. Secret - lemon grass.

Buffalo milk ice cream

- 18 Got there before the lunch rush. My food was prepared correctly and was brought to the table fast.
- 19 It's like walking into a dream world. The desserts are perfectly crafted with high quality ingredients. The macaroons are the MOST delicious treat on the Planet (and yay gluten free!). I always buy a box of them when I'm in the area and dream about them when I'm not in Salem. Don't leave town without checking them out. Love this place.

20 Wonderful service at the bar by Danielle. Magical Dining Menu was yummy! My hubby was on a guys golf trip so needed to distract myself with wine and fabulous Italian food. Enjoy!

21 When I lived in Atlanta, this cafe was one of uber faves.

Years later, I am thrilled to return to such amazing service and delicious food.

I love this neighborhood, I love this cafe, I love the service!

A hostess literally opened the door for us, and, the waiter was so helpful concerning our gluten and dairy free needs.

I was bowled over by the hospitality.

I will return again and again.

Thanks!!!

22 The fried mushrooms were awesome! Pepperoni pizza was great, good crust. Wings were great, we got BBQ and hot, only thing is I would like a little more heat on the wings. The ranch is good too, finally found a good pizza place that delivers.

23 Adele the bartender was very friendly and outgoing and kept me company since I was the only one at the bar after a lunch rush. She made a kickass Chili Chili Bang Bang Margarita which hit the spot and the chicken tinga burrito was solid as well.

24 Bucket of Lonestar beer, $8. Turkey and Provolone sandwich thrown on the panini press, $5. Seeing a comedy show with beer and a sandwich at the Hideout Theatre, sweet Saturday night!

25 Shout out for a great experience for this gluten-sensitive gal. I ordered the Kitchen Sink without the bread, and the server immediately asked, "Celiac?" Music to my ears. The food was absolutely fantastic! When I'm back in the area I will find you again!

26 The short rib and amish chicken were excellent! I loved the soy ginger salad recommended by Shannon our server! Service was excellent too!!!

27 Our reservation was for 4 people at 7:30pm on the Sunday before President's Day. After waiting outside in the cold for 45 minutes (no heaters), we left. Here's why:

- 1) Ahead of us was one table of 4, who had been waiting since 6:30pm.
- 2) A limo showed up with another foursome – they were being allowed to cut the line.
- 3) It's small restaurant largely comprised of 2-seater tables. When one would open up, it was offered to a party of two. They would not consider holding a table for 2, waiting for a second table to open, and combining them. Who runs that place?
- 4) Most patrons had a Groupon or other coupon, so they dug in their heels and waited. We might have waited another hour before getting a table.
- 5) I am 9 months pregnant.

Clearly this restaurant cares nothing for its patrons because it requires you to have reservations and then seats you without any regard to order or arrival time. They couldn't offer us time estimates. In fact, the guy in charge of the reservations told us to complain to the owner. Who runs a business like this?

- 28 Absolutely love this place. I came in for a quick drink and ended up making a night of it. Kyle and Oscar are the best! The food and drinks are to die for. I had the frosè to drink and the goat cheese mac & cheese, & the pimento cheese dip to snack on. Definitely will be back!
- 29 My first Yelp post. Took a date there for a quick bite to eat. Was very impressed with the establishment since I pass by there every other week. Have ate alot of Italian food in my day and must say it is one of the best. Food was cooked fresh, service was quick and my lasagna tasted great. Would be five stars if the food was authentic. overall experience – great.
- 30 This was a wonderful conclusion to our business trip to Montreal, a brilliantly relaxing experience after all the hustle and bustle of the past couple of days. The tea selection was vaster than anything we'd seen since our favorite tea shop in the Boston area closed, and the menu MUCH more detailed. The tables themselves (and their chairs) were works of art, and of course all the lovely cabinets around us were filled with more lovely items. And then the TEA came, and we were briefed on the specific drinking ritual and tea set for each of our chosen teas (I had an oolong, so I had a different set than my partner, who had selected a white tea). We had only had an experience similar to that once before, and the lady demonstrating was so skilled and quick and informative that our previous experience paled in comparison.

When we return to Montreal for pleasure, I can guarantee at least two trips, and possibly daily trips, to the Ming Tao Xuan.

- 31 The smell grabbed me by the nose and sucked me back in. Then I heard these words...Buy 5 get 1 free.SOLD!!!

Its difficult to do a cookie wrong, but i must say they got the cookie making right 100% here. The peanut butter chocolate chip is by far my favorite. I could have eaten 6 of those things. The small location is perfectly located next to the kids play area. What's better then running around, having fun, then grubbing on delicious soft cookies. Im all about the sugar overload.

- 32 Fun environment, friendly staff and decent food! Short, sweet and to the point!!
- 33 Won and lost alot here.ended up with a $20 food credit at victory cafe.no towels at swimming pool.
- 34 Small and cute shop with heavy traffic and fabulous hot chocolate. Recommend taking out!
- 35 Food was ok, but Groupon usage was a nightmare 1st time trying to use it they said they could serve us but there was a $5 cover charge? 2nd time they let the us use without a surcharge, but the bill came to less than 40$ before tax so she said I'm going to add the difference to the total? Needless to say don't use a Groupon here

36 This is one of my favorite breweries to go to in Portland. The servers always know what they're talking about and are great at making suggestions. Their gluten-free options are amazing. AND every single time I have the sausage or cheese board, there's something new and different.

If you haven't been there before keep in mind that it's crowded. Like, all the time. You might have to wait to get seated or stand around the bar for a bit before you find an open spot. But the beer and food make it worth it.

Oh, and they also make their own whiskey now.

37 Excellent pizza and atmosphere! Great place to share with family and friends!

Pizza came out quick and hot!

Friendly staff and was very helpful!

38 Sweet hidden gem behind the children's museum.

Sandwiches are amazing, I like the roasted lamb with tomato chutney, goats cheese and focaccia.

Pastries are incredible, several dozen to choose from, I am a sucker for a sticky bun. Theirs is nice and yeasty.

Had a salad for the first time today, the chopped Greek with lemon thyme and green goddess dressing... dressed and tossed to perfection. In a world full of lazy salads, this one did it's homework.

The high prices reflect terrific ambience and great food.

39 This is an awesome spot for a brunch with friends. The ambience is light and enjoyable, a good spot for a saturday morning with a day ahead of you. The breakfast is good, especially the avocado toast and the spring break diet (I add sausage), but I recently tried the lunch and I thought it was even better. The two lunch items perfect for a summer day if you're lucky enough to snag a table outside: 1) shrimp cobb salad (i took off the blue cheese and added a hard boiled egg). 2) fish tacos with blackened codd were also phenominal

40 Food was amazing and our server Christina was the best!!! She made our last day in Vegas great!!

41 Called in, told 30 minutes, checked with the supervisor 40 minutes later and told I'm still within the waiting time frame I was told and to wait another 10-15 minutes. Huh?? She repeated another 3-4 times that I'm still within that 30 minute frame that I was promised. I guess in her world 40-55 minutes is the same thing as 30 minutes. Last time checking in here! I usually only have a problem with this location burning my pizza to a crisp, never experienced this before. But needless to say it's always an issue.

42 Was in last week for about the 10th time and food was awesome again... Mondays are half price pasta and pizzas so it's a great time to try it out... awesome food every time, would have given 5 stars but the older lady bartender ricki with short blonde hair is always rude, her service and attitude is always poor.

- 43 Horrible customer service and charged the wrong amount to my card. They never showed up with the pizza and refused to take back the charge. This is bullshit. Should of looked at the reviews before I ordered. Please just go to dominos...
- 44 I'd fly back to Vegas just to eat here. The short ribs were worth every buck! A must try.
- 45 This place Permanently Closed a short time back. Thought I would miss it because it was close to my house, but all I miss is Jasmine and Christina. Good Luck, Girls, in whatever you do next. Take Care. Walt
- 46 Last time ever at this place. Quality of food was above average but that does not make up for everything else. We waited over one hour from the time we finished our salad before having our main courses served. Portion size was very small it looked as though we got the last order of Bolignese and they just gave us both half. Prices are on the high side for the area but that would be OK if the experience, quality and portions were above average. They were most defiantly not
- 47 After tipping $2 cash, the blonde bartender woman looks right at us and says "neither of you left a tip?". Sneak your own beer in, this place is a joke.
- 48 Management has apparently taken my recommendation and changed the staff working at the bar. Went there last Friday night and the bartender was both friendly and professional. And the drinks were fantastic. The only way I can describe this change is like when your best friend finally wakes up and realizes the girl he is dating, although good looking, is the most annoying person on the planet and dumps her. Its like I have my old friend back. Thank you Central Kitchen management for making the universe right again.
- 49 Good tasting pizzas & stuff for some quick bites without having to cook.. I like the $5 with minimum two orders such as medium pizza & pasta.. Quick service. Guy at the register was nice. Compared to Domino's this is more like real pizza. Greasy and tasty and less like it came out of the frozen section.
- 50 Food was decent, waiter was abysmal at most, messed up our orders a lot, and I didn't understand the bringing out our sides first before the main course? Just created a bigger mix-up
- 51 Really good Greek food and quick! Chipotle style....the inside is really nice too with plenty of seating!
- 52 I would find somewhere else to go Sunday after 7. This place looks like it was put through the ringer and out the other side. Short staffed and the salad bar looked like there was a food fight before we showed up. It was just not a great experience.
- 53 Visited on a Thursday night around 8 pm. Pizza choices on cold tray like at Sbarro's. Reheated by the slice. ugh. Very disappointed.
- 54 $17 for burnt toast and cold coffee. My day was filled with despair and emptiness. If you're looking for a terrible breakfast thats expansive this is the place be.
- 55 Very tasty sauces make this Latin chicken and pork chain a treat. Service was quick in late afternoon. Tasty quarter chicken with black beans and rice, roll and drink for 5 bucks. Great deal. Don't expect gourmet food, but this is way above average for a fast food chain.

The curry mustard was my fave sauce.

Could stand to be a little cleaner. But this one gets a lot of use.

56 My party of 5 arrived at 8:00pm only to be told it would be an hour plus wait because they were short of waiters. There were many empty seats but service was just so slow for a Wednesday evening in Orlando near Disney. We walked 5 minutes to the restaurant and I immediately asked for a glass of water and was told our waiter had other customers to serve before he could bring me a glass of water. It was 30 minutes later when he took our order. He then said he had orders to calculate for other customers so we needed to hurry up and order. My tilapia tacos were delicious however at that time I had lost my appetite and wasn't hungry anymore.

57 This place is clean and the food is good enough. That being said the atmosphere of the employees yelling at each other in the back room and the service is horrible. The potstickers taste like jimmy dean breakfast sausage wrapped in wontons and cooked to a crispy cracker like finish. No need to try this again.

58 Total GARBAGE! Head waiter has a serious attitude. Looked down his nose at me when I asked for white wine. Stated, we don't serve blush wines real snotty.

Ordered food and it was cold plus there wasn't enough there to feed a bird. Stay away people, just avoid this crap.

59 The short: Great food, great service. What else can you ask for.

The long: line up for the diner was so long I decided to go to the deli side instead. The servers and cashiers were fast and friendly. I bought a couple pounds of meat along with everything else to make the sandwiches at home along with a couple of poutines. The food was amazing and relatively cheap. Amazing experience overall and will definately visit this place again next time I'm in the city.

60 I always order food from there when i have chance. I love their wrap combo, that comes with wrap fries and can of soda. Gyro wrap is probably best meal in pitt.

61 My server MARLENE was a shining example of SUPERB old school customer service.

She provided menu assistance and options not on the menu for my party. The FISH-Fry was excellently seasoned as was the Tri-tip.

My one and only complaint involved the fish: being from Florida I was expecting whole fish, not fish sticks.

The lava cake was our dessert of choice: and WORTH the wait. Warm chocolate drenched in chocolate syrup and vanilla ice cream....MY LAWD!!!!

62 Amazing!! The ladies were so sweet and the grandma was making homemade corn tortillas on site.....delicious!!

63 Dirty inside. Not like other five guys stores I've been to. And when I e-mailed the company, I got a standard, middle finger reply. Disappointing.

64 Cancelled our reservation 2 days prior to arrival. Shady.

65 This was my favorite she usual dinner spot, when I lived just up the street next to the west Roxbury court house. The food is great, prices are reasonable and there is always a great conversation to be held. I miss this place.

66 Wow, just wow! My boyfriend and I just left and this place was so delicious! I had their rotating cocktail to start and then the Serious Moonlight cocktail and I couldn't have been happier. The food was nothing short of amazing as well! Definitely try their beef and lamb casuela, it will always be on the menu even though it's a rotating menu.

We sat at the bar and there was a wait on a Monday night so I would suggest making reservations before you go. We live a few blocks away and will undoubtedly be back again!

67 Walked in 20 minutes before the restaurant closed and were turned away for dine in. Totally disappointed for a Saturday night!!

68 The Nigiri is quite good and my wife loves the white tuna. Other than those tips I can't really say anything that hasn't been mentioned before other than to warn you that the quality of the Sushi seems to vary depending on who's there.

When both guys are there never had anything less than Excellent

69 Visited this restaurant on a whim while running some errands with the family. Service was prompt courteous enough but somewhat cold. We ordered fried calamari for an appetizer and that was the only enjoyable thing that we ordered. My brother order Pho which was so bland. I had the Pad Thai which was oily and tasted like dirty oil. My mom had the triple delight which was also very bland. All in all i would not recommend the this establishment.

70 Quick, fantastic Japanese tapas style. Some sashimi daily specials, make reservations

71 Great meal after our Vegas Ragnar experience. Gary was spot on not only with his recommendations and with his service and his personality. Delicious and wonderful.

72 First time in at Southern Rail was for brunch on an early Sunday morning. My fiancÃ and I first tried the beignets which were FANTASTIC! My main was the avocado toast which was both savory and sweet. My fiancÃ had the catfish po boy which I demanded half of and it was amazing. Highly recommend - seriously delicious!

73 Lunch on the patio 78 degrees outside. Thought I was in French bistro. Food delightful and service spot on.

74 A pleasant surprise in downtown Phoenix. They make, serve and deliver a delicious, made to order pizza in 12 minutes. PERFECT choice for lunch. Priced right.

75 Tried again just to be fair, NO better. In fact I think they are worse than before. Food was cold and management was unresponsive. I remember this place being so much better!!

76 Great authentic food! This is better Indian food than I've had before. Nice people too!

77 Super poor service, horrible Texas margaritas & gross food - I was sick in bed the entire next day!

78 Well, we were both disappointed. Had been to Mugsy before, but this time it fell short. I ordered the kraut dog. My dog wasn't hot, just warm. I thought the kraut was grilled, maybe not, but cold kraut didn't cut it for me. Maybe grilling the bum would have been a good idea.

My wife ordered the Ruben dog. Too much mustard, though the kraut was grilled, the pastrami was not. And her dog was also just warm.

We were both bummed.

This is one reason I hate tipping before I've even tasted my meal.

79 Great coffee and food.

A very lay back environment, I wasn't too fond of the customer service aspect, that is the only reason I didn't give JoBot five stars.

80 Disgusting job on cleaning the rooms. Dried pee stains on both of the rooms that were assigned to us. Managers did not care enough to speak to us personally about the situation.

81 Going here for 12 years and more of a value now than ever before. Meals start at just $4.99 and open late till 2am - Have not seen any Chinese BBQ there 82 Stopped in for lunch and talked to the owner. Everything is made in house by family members. Food was really fantastic! Gyro plate hit the spot!

83 AK's is practically the only delivery option for those in the Fort Point area (especially in the fried foods/pizza range), and every time we have used them they have been prompt and the food has been pretty decent and certainly fills the junk food cravings, and the prices are really good.

My only real complaint is that the buffalo chicken pizza does not have sufficient (any?) buffalo sauce! More sauce please!!

84 Our service was bar none! The charcuterie and cheese tasting was delicious. The painted hills 21-day aged New York was very good and my juicy 14oz ribeye was the best steak I've ever had. I can't wait to come back!

85 Utilisation d'un coupon Groupon avec réservation la veille. Bon sandwich et excellente crème dessert. Resto propre mais manque de décoration et ameublement sommaire. Souhaiterions que le personnel puisse comprendre et s'exprimer en français.....

86 After a long hike my friend and I dropped in on Shalom Y'all and found it to be an excellent experience. My standards for quality Mediterranean food are high and Shalom Y'all blew me away. We ordered a bottle of Rose (ROSE ALL DAY) and ordered several appetizers and pita. The key items would be the Roasted Eggplant, varieties of fresh made hummus, and the fresh baked pita. We could have sat there and eaten the pita all day. Thanks Shalom Y'all.

87 Pretty good once the food arrived - we did have an hour wait and were a little peeved when the table next to us got their food before us. But, the food was really good.

88 The concept of a waffles joint that serves all sorts of waffles is great. However, you would expect a place that serves mostly waffles to know how to make a perfect waffle. Mine was very brown and crisp. Not only that, but the wait time was too long. We waited a good 15+ minutes before the food was served. When it came out, it was served on paper plates. The bacon and eggs could have been made better at home. When paying for food you expect the presentation to be better than what you would do at home. For the price paid, it was not worth it. It was my first time trying it and I won't be going back.

89 Absolutely killer!! Try mixing the short rib with the cornbread for a sweet and smoky flavor in your enchiladas. First time in, but definitely not my last. Good value for the quality.

- 90 First time since RE named. Great upgrade. Fish tacos are nice. Always liked this place before... Still like it! Perfect corner for hanging out on a warm afternoon.
- 91 Second time in. Previously experienced the pork chop and tonight the scallops. Wonderful and the butternut squash was amazing.
- 92 They place looks awesome, however, the staff completely ruined my experience. They were very rude to us as we were waiting for a bike crawl in the back parking lot. We immediately left before getting drinks.
- 93 My friend hates to wait. Too bad – it's Friday and we didn't make reservations. Shame on us. So, I convinced friends to stay and wait it out. Pretend we're on vacation. Wait! We ARE on vacation!!! Nice people watching while having a glass of vino and waiting. Look everyone! Chill out!!! So.. finally in and bing bam boom – great service, fun servers.. and the food! Whoohoo! We split the chicken mushroom pasta dish... delish. However... the short rib dish was really really over salted. Too bad. But that's a rare miss for North – one of my faves.
- 94 Just because they moved to a bigger location (and replaced Panera) doesn't mean that the wait gets that much shorter, especially if you have a group of more than 4 hungry people.

Their hotcakes and corn beef hash are very yummy as usual. The service is fast and feisty like before. Also, CASH ONLY. Even with their attitude and the wait...I haven't been able to get breakfast as good as this so I'm willing to tolerate anything.

My must-get is strawberry hotcakes with a side of corn beef hash. You can't go wrong with that!

- 95 Staff is friendly and helpful. CASH ONLY. Nice place to study on a slow day. Cool donuts that actually taste good too.
- 96 Great donuts! Just don't go there an hour before they close because they don't have anything left. At least keep it semi-stocked before you close.
- 97 As close to Lombardi's (NYC) or Pepe's (CT) as you'll get here in AZ. All locations here are good (the one in Tucson is smaller and the wait is usually relatively short). Excellent quality, flavor and staff. They know what made Lombardi's and Pepe's successful and they've draw on that. Yummmmm
- 98 Excellent experience at Kodo the quality of the fish is on another level, the blue fin tuna and black rice are superb. Service is efficient and the restaurant interior is beautiful.
- 99 Excellent food in a cozy space! Nice reproduction of a First Nations' favorite: the bannock taco, but this one features excellent fresh ingredients and has been amped up with excellent execution. Staff is wonderful. An excellent grassroots First Nations enterprise.
- 100 I choose Panera Bread for a quick bite when traveling, and seek out this location when in the area. My experience is consistently positive and different than other reviewers.

Panera of Westwood is well-run, clean, fresh food, and employees have positive attitude.

Pluses:

- * Self-serve coffee carafes are time stamped so you're assured of fresh
- * Free Wi-Fi
- * Soup choices rotate

Sandwich or Sandwich-Soup combo are popular choices. Steak and Arugula sandwich is particularly tasty

Nearby Route 128 Train Station (Amtrak and MBTA), and shares parking lot with Wegmans Supermarket

Panera Bread prices are generally about 20 percent higher than neighborhood alternatives

Tips:

- * Avoid peak hours for fastest service
- * If you don't have your "My Rewards" card handy, cashier will look up your number
- * If you come in near closing, some items are often sold-out, such as the baked soufflés

1.6 Training Outcome

1.6.1 High Values

- 1 Great experience all around, especially the buttermilk rabbit leg and Brussels. Chill atmosphere, great drinks & food, and cool bartenders. Thanks for a great first night in Pittsburgh!

Food – Buttermilk Fried Rabbit

Drink – Salinger’s Sling

Seating – Main bar downstairs

- 2 Very good quality, fast-food sushi. Not quite as good as Akai Hana, around the corner, but cheaper and faster; good for takeout. We really like their poke bowls.
- 3 New options on the menu and some favourites too. Large portions and as good as Nonna makes. The order in the picture was half of the total portion. Service is good and not pushy.
- 4 Food as always, some great some not (griddle management issues... pancakes shouldn’t be burnt or taste like hash). The flannels and hash keep up us coming back. Service is not as good or consistent as it was in Scottsdale (and, yes, I realize what an odd statement that is).
- 5 I’m so glad I discovered this place right by my work! I moved to Vegas for about a year and haven’t been able to find a poke place that I liked. This place has really friendly customer service as well as **BOMB** poke. I am a salmon lover and their fish selection was pretty fresh! I really liked the variety in their add on selections as well. Glad to add this to my places to eat for lunch list
- 6 Had the rotisserie chicken with a wonderful lemon sauce and asian style duck breast. Delicious sides and charcuterie as well. One of my favorite restaurants in Boulder!
- 7 Great food, great prices...fantastic local eatery!!!! The risotto was awesome and my wife loved the Black Bean sandwich.
- 8 Just too good....If you like burgers and great service...Make a trip!

They also have an awesome Raspberry Lime Ricky as well as their frappes.

- 9 The food & drinks were so good! We had the salt & pepper popcorn chicken meal, as well as the chicken tender meal. Our orders got mixed up with someone else’s at first, but was quickly corrected. Danny was great and provided excellent customer service! We will for sure be back!
- 10 Geisha is the place to be! John was an excellent cook and gave a great show the food is amazing as well! And I also recommend the drink lights at Havana. love this place
- 11 The protein pancakes are very good and filling. Bring a big appetite for those. The Denver omelette is great as well.
- 12 Great outdoor heated hookah patio (though a bit pricey for hookah). Hummus is great. Espresso is great.
- 13 The Special Beef is AMAZING & Samosas both veggie & Lamb are very flavorful & Deelish—I really like the charm of the place as well—Friendly service & fair prices—Definitely amongst my fave Indian spots is the 503 for Dine in & Takeout...hell for Buffet as well

- 14 Very long (1.2 hour) wait for some of the best bbq in town. The brisket was smoky and flavorful. The pork ribs were amazing as well as the turkey which surprisingly were smoky and added a different texture to the other meats as well. I also tried their sides (beans, cole slaw and potato salad) and pint size was way too big for 4 girls. Potato salad was amazin! The chorizo sausages were also very good.
- 15 WOW!! Homemade delight! This small place has so much to offer you must check it out, you won't be disappointed. As soon as you walk in you can smell fresh baked goods as well as see them. I ordered the Benedict with friend green tomatoes and my friend ordered the southern, both were absolutely scrumptious! Perfect brunch food loaded with flavor. Will definitely return to try other menu items :)
- 16 Best brunch ever! The steak and frits with poached eggs is as good as it gets. The mimosas were excellent as well. If you are ever visiting Montreal, please don't hesitate to experience this amazing brunch!
- 17 This is THE place to watch sports in downtown Vancouver. Best wings I've had in the Portland metro area in the 3 years I've lived here. The bartenders are great as well
- 18 Clean food, no msg taste. Bossam was a good dish to share. Sullungtang was done perfectly. Tasted like home cooked meal and that's as good as it gets for Korean food.
- 19 Love Salad & Go, I usually go through the drive-thru which tends to be on the slower side (reason 4 not 5 stars) I love their seasonal salads and dressings as well as the Cobb salad. I always get a mixture of the lemonades which quench my thirst every time!
- 20 Pretty darn good pizza if you like crispy Roman style pizza. Nice little patio outside as well as cool setting inside.

Great wait staff and service. While I was there for lunch, one of the owners came out to say hello which was a nice touch. Definitely will be going back.

- 21 They have great gluten free pizza crust! They have a decent selection of toppings as well.
- 22 Great brews and food is delicious. Great portions for price. Atmosphere is great. Back patio is excellent on a hot summer day.
- 23 holy smokes if u want the best seafood in the entire city this is the place to go. never had an experience as good as this before.
- 24 BirthdayPak team loving Tryst tonight. My boyfriend said the Charles was his favorite cocktail ever as well as the ultimate burger. I had the scallops which were amazing. Our bartender Andy is a class act. If you have never gone Tryst.... go... a true gem!!
- 25 I loveeeee saloniki! Everything I've had here has been absolutely incredible - great flavors, and fresh ingredients with hefty portions. They've also got great meat as well as vegetarian options. I almost always opt for the salad version of the meal, but the pitas are super good too as they put rosemary fries in it. Beware the lunch rush line though - take an early lunch or else be prepared to be late getting back to work!
- 26 It is now the 14th of May and I have yet to receive a response from my response to Lori, the owner of Barcode, concerning her employee, Chris, behavior in humiliating myself and my date on the 11th. Lori asked for me to email her personally which I I've done and she would send her personal phone number as well as review the security tapes. I advised her to most certainly review the tapes I have not received a response. I will keep yelpers updates as much as possible.

- 27 Recently traveled to Portland for a weekend getaway with friends and stumbled upon this gem in downtown. Great breakfast spot with a detailed vegetarian and vegan page (awesome and helpful) as well as outdoor, sidewalk seating and not a long wait for brunch!
- 28 Hands On Charlotte held an event to view the Wells Fargo Lights. The food was great, the atmosphere was great and Chelsea and Thomas took awesome care of us.
- 29 Waited for over 45 minutes in line for 2 cups of ice cream. Service was a joke and the icecream was nowhere near as good as Waxhaw Creamery. Don't waste your time or money.
- 30 Good vibe, free sam Adams beer glass and great clam chowder soup. Take the trolley after the sam Adams brewery tour.
- 31 This place is located in the West Island, behind a strip mall. Place was pretty full when we got there on a Saturday evening. Their specialty is sushi but we had a craving for teriyaki. Took the salmon teriyaki as well as the beef teriyaki. Salmon was well cooked and delicious but beef wasnt good. Took some tempura as appetizer which was good. Sashimi plate was satisfying as well. I find the tempura plates are overpriced...overall good. Enjoy!
- 32 Been to New Orleans...this place is just as good as anything there. Today's shrimp in cream sauce was outstanding.
- 33 Popped in for a swift pint before meeting friends for dinner nearby.

Corner bar is a great little addition to S Lamar, nice ambiance and attentive service.

- 34 We had the chicken wings regular and spicy, they were just as delicious as at Pok Pok without the long wait. Parking is a nightmare as usual.
- 35 not as good as former owner. cole slaw plain. no sweet and sour as old days. bland. fry fish ****. baked we got boiled soggy out a heat bin??!! 0 fish boil not try yet. anyone know. used to be good!!
- 36 Skip the chains. This place is fantastic, great service, great food, fantastic beer – recommend the Tucher
- 37 We were staying at the Glidden House next door and walked over for a light dinner of pizza and salad. We were blown away! The golden beet salad was amazing and was a good starter for a shared pizza. The dessert was great as well as our beer and wine. Service was great. Highly recommend!
- 38 Best place great service !!! Such nice employees as well. Highly recommended! And also very affordable!!!!
- 39 Great Mexican Food!! Huge menu, friendly staff, great server Cynthia, the manager went up to every table to check on them. Great margaritas as well. We'll definitely be back.
- 40 The service is OK. The chips were not as fresh as I'm used to but the food was really good and very generous portions. Good mexican restaurant and traditional.

- 41 Taco Flats is a great place for tacos, some of the best in Austin. Can't go wrong with The Gringa and Pescadito. The beer is always a good selection (especially as far as craft goes). The seating could be a little improved. Also, some of the items tend to be a little too hot, if they carry jalapeños as an ingredient. The guacamole is sub par considering the price point (only has a few ingredients). But as far as tacos go, you can't go wrong here.
- 42 Great food, great atmosphere. Outside area is amazing and great for parties. Try the mole ribs – falls off the bone and big portions.
- 43 Great food great service! Nice atmosphere! We will come back again soon! Yummy yummy bigger space
- 44 Good place. Very clean and the staff at the front end are super friendly guys. The bigger guy at the front will call you by name and knows a lot about the menu. I can appreciate friendliness as well as a $7 bowl with all organic healthy food in it.

If you can't, go back to McDonalds.

- 45 Hippie Chickpea Burger, Five Dollar Rita, and the sweets(sweet potato fries and onion rings)

The meal was delicious and filling for about $18.00. Nice atmosphere as well.

- 46 Kafenio is a great place to eat, work, study, or socialize. Lots of natural light. Breakfast all day. They make great omelettes, Greek style potatoes, and falafel. Friendly service. There is a small wood bar, as well as lots of tables and booths. There is indoor and outdoor seating.
- 47 just wanna give a huge shout out to Omar!! he has great service. was very attentive with our orders and very precise despite the fact that we were a big group. he was on it with the refills as well as with anything else we needed. he is definitely a great addition to your team. keep it up omar
- 48 Look....lots of Caribbean food places in Toronto...but very few as authentic and great tasting as this place. Great value and great food
- 49 Best Pho restaurant in Oakville! Really delicious food and good service as well. Our favourite thing to get here is the Pad Thai and Pho Vuho special 201!
- 50 We chose to eat at this location because it had fairly high reviews in Google and it was not as hip, not as crowded as some of the other places nearby. Also, it was around the corner from our hotel.

The portions are huge. The pad thai is delicious. As is the Bangkok noodles. And the dumplings are delightful. Basically everything was completely yummy and there was more than enough food for two people. If we'd had a way to reheat it, we would have brought at least half home with us. Instead, we ate as much as we could.

Service was perfunctory. We did wait a little long for our bill, but I'm getting used to that even in the states.

- 51 Great pierogis!!
- 52 Really good for fast food, they grill the meats when you order them. Had the chicken and beef kebab and it was pretty good, and it came with three sides which seemed like an amazing value.

Only complaints that the salad was a bit watery as well as the roast potatoes, but the meal was well worth 9.99.

53 The food here is amazing! The service is impeccable as well. Definitely one of my favorite places to go to for brunch. The chicken and waffles are amazing.

54 What a sweet place! Love the omelet with pepper cheese and lobster. The yummy pimento cheese was a great side. The new bar was a great location for me since I'm visiting from Raleigh. Thanks for a great meal!

55 Great restaurant for bunch, or lunch had the eggstravaganza and it was amazing! Everything is priced very well, the service is good as well as very inviting layout. Definitely will be going here again!

56 Love love the sausages and biscuits here! Eggs Benedict is also really delicious here! Good atmosphere as well!

57 INCREDIBLE beer selection, wide and diverse. A great pub if you're looking for more than the usual selection. Fun and rowdy crowd, a great spot in Harvard Square.

58 We stopped here to meet family and we were impressed. The service was great and the food even better! We had several different rolls as well as fried rice, sesame chicken and Thai curry shrimp. I would recommend to anyone wanting quality food at a fair price.

59 Wow. The burrito I had was amazing. The server was experienced and well versed on the menu. The tea was great, love the mason jar glasses. Can't wait to come back. I love the decor, dark and moody.

60 Very tasty. Their doughnuts weren't as sweet as most doughnuts. All sorts of unique variety doughnuts. They serve Mothership coffee.

61 I've been going to this place since I was a kid and the food is amazing! It has a nice atmosphere as well.

62 Fantastic sushi! Honestly worth the detour. The lobster sushi is off the charts as well as the smoked salmon. Great speedy service and quality ingredients at a decent price point! Worth it!

63 While the reviews of this restaurant are evenly distributed across the board from one to five, I would have to say that I was quite happy with experience. First they have a nice selection of craft brews including Devil Ale from Santan Brewing as well as other AZ brewers (unfortunately no HopKnot). The complimentary bean dip as well as the salsa with chips were tasty and if you want more heat there is a small salsa bar with more options. While not in my 'hood, if there is something I wanted to see at the nearby Harkins, I would definitely come back and check it out.

64 drinks, amazing. food.. ehfff. definitely can take a pass. watermelon drink has like no flavor, lol. mangonada, bomb as expected. but the strawberry horchata.... now that right there is the star of the show! match was good as well. the hot cheeto corn texture gets weird when the crunch from the cheetos goes away, it'll get kinda soggy you know.

all in all, i would return to the Green Acres location in Florida as i was only visiting in Vegas.

65 Ssndwich was decent but not as good as I had heard. Nice location and restaurant was clean. Staff were nice.

66 Lovely staff and service. The food is also super good, particularly if you've never had Filipino food before. I've done both their regular dinners as well as the large party meal. The first is definitely enjoyable, large portions and a good variety.

The second is a blast with good people. The food isn't as good since it's made in bulk but the experience is unforgettable. Absolutely must do, at least once.

67 Best steak I've ever had! Sushi and short ribs were perfect as well. Great view & service! Never had an empty glass of water.

68 The food truck is in aaaaaand Dey wurkin ! Probably the shortest waaait I've experienced since ordering from the prep kitchen . Fries crispy and hot seasoned to perfection delicious as always 69 I have fond memories of Fuddruckers as a child and was excited when we decided to go on a shopping trip. How utterly disappointing. The dining area looked dirty and disheveled. The pies in the case looked like they had congealed there for years. We ordered a couple of burgers, one medium well & one well done. When called up to get the burgers the worker could not tell us which was which. The burger was lukewarm and looked like a hockey puke. It tasted just as appetizing.

This franchise has really gone DOWN HILL, at least as this location.

70 Great food at a great price! Love the bartenders and servers here! Barbara pops open the best Amstel Light in town! And the pizza is amazing!

71 Great food and staff....very dog friendly patio! Several vegan friendly options as well and we will definitely be back.

72 Great American food place around a lot of Italian restaurants. Great food and service! I had the steak tip salad. Top notch!

73 Yummy, but wait was twice as long as the estimate. The service was great and got our food quick.

74 Pizza is always fresh and great value! The weekday specials are always good deals as well. Staff is very friendly and prompt!

75 I am a huge fan of Illegal Pete's. I have visited all locations in the Denver area. Great margaritas! Great food! Great happy hour!

76 Free show....cheap eats.....great people watching...ZIPLINE!!!!

Good place to pick up cheesy vegas souvenirs and a great time for all, whether you're a tourist or a local playing tourist...ALOHA!!!

77 Simple, but really good. Local owner, small business. I thought was pretty outstanding relative to the price and location as well

78 Went into Red's on October 24th with 3 other people all locals. 2 of us got the Red's fried chicken special. It sucked. The batter is the same batter they use for fish, fried in the same oil as the fish as well. It sucked. Mentioned it to the waitress and she replied that "I have been telling them for quite some time about that dish", yet they still serve it. $6.95 for the "special" not again. There are plenty of other places in Salem to dine. Red's is so overated. I as well as my brothers will never go back again. Good luck with there store your building on rte 1, your going to need it.

79 Yum! Almost as good as midwest-east coast american chinese.

80 Haven't had this in a long time. Every bit as good as I remember. Love it, best pizza in the city. Use the yelp deal it's great!

81 Great place!! Fresh food !! Great service worth every penny!! Love the menu, lots to choose from the prawn tempura was melt in your mouth

82 The burgers here are overall good, nothing fancy. The fries are the thin cut variety. Personally I prefer the thick chips as we Brits would say, as I think they are tastier and more home made so to speak. As for the patty, I also prefer patties that are seasoned rather than plain but that is a purely personal preference.

The price point here is very reasonable as well. I must admit though I still haven't found the amazing burger in TO yet.

83 Not bad, not as friendly and not the same atmosphere as ones in Hawaii but the food is just as good! I will be back!

84 Lately I feel as though they don't care as much.

Twice I've gone now and not received the pickles or be greeted (one time I was greeted lacklusterly).

Both of the last two visits have been not as well made sandwiches as prior visits.

Maybe it just depends on who is working?

Hopefully this isn't a trending pattern.

85 Ya... as good as it gets. Awesome food, great atmosphere, good service. Pad thai (and EVERYTHING else..) the way its meant to be.

86 Its a great place hands down best pizza in az great great atmosphere Off Track Betting bar and pool tables definitely recommend 87 Bocata was the perfect antidote to a cold, gray day in Montreal. We sat at the bar and received great service. Fantastic oysters from PE Island, a lovely stuffed pepper and fantastic cod as an entree. Our waiter made great wine and food suggestions.

88 Amazing amazing! love the food, excellent service. and a great selection of breakfast classics next to some fresh alternatives:) would def recommend 89 Great stopping place for kids as well as adults if you are craving yummy tasty popcorn available in about 30-40 different flavors. Delicious melt in your mouth chocolates will make your mouth water. Penny candies (although no longer a penny) from the current favorites to old time "I remember when we bought these at the corner candy store are available. Some examples are Candy cigarettes in the boxes, BB Bats in assorted flavors & Charleston Chews as well as many others. There are also treats (non candy) & plush. Adults & kids have a good time.

90 ate here with my gf... the food was pretty good but not as cool as the walls and ceiling transforming.... for a cool show and 4 dif scenes ... go here!!

91 I come here regularly and I can say I've had almost everything on their menu and it's all delicious. Just recently I found they had Thai tea and it's DELICIOUS! I recommend getting it.

If you want something sweet as well you need to get their macarons and their macaron ice cream sandwiches. As like everything else in this family owned establishment, the macarons are made by one of the sisters named Binh. She's a wizard at baked goods and she takes orders for parties or anything you want. She can custom make the macarons as well. It's pretty awesome.

Only place I go to eat pho, period.

Egg rolls are awesome, they have springs rolls 2 ways which I like the bbq pork version but they have the traditional ones as well.

If you have never tried it or wondered what it is you gotta try the BÃ¡nh xÃ o which looks like a crepe but it's dericious. Yes I said DERICIOUS!

Bun bo hue is flavorful and on point.

Pork, chicken rice plates are awesome as well, I always get 2 eggs cause #ilovegg

Basically try something new when you come nothing has disappointed me once. This place is affordable and offers free parking as well .

92 So I went back to this place last night, and as always, their burgers are *awesome* and based on my experience yesterday, now the service is *awesome* as well!

Now this place is my fave burger joint in the city hands down.

93 Ate here while visiting Calgary, service was great, food was great as well!

94 My favorite things are their scones and savory pies. Nothing beats a coffee and a classic scone from here. Friendly staff as well:)

95 It's a great place but food is not as good as it could be. Had a philly steak sandwich and it was greasy. Tater tots tasted a little funky too

96 This place has a very large menu. The food portions are also very large and great for sharing. Staff was friendly and the food was overall pretty good. We ordered the orange chicken and shrimp pad Thai as well as the ton ghai soup which was all good and brought out in a timely manner. Will be returning!

97 I love there checkin fingers, there employees are nice & perfect.

Every time I go there I enjoy the taste of the fingers.

Clean restaurant and the restroom as well.

98 Well, well, well.... just an awesome place to grab a late bite. Their burgers are phenomenal! Just try one or all of the and you will be pleased! The staff was attentive, polite and friendly. We really enjoyed our dining experience.

99 This is my go to for comfort when work presents it's challenges! What to have—the Pho, The Pho, THE PHO!!!!!! Either broth is delicious, rich but light, and warm. I eat it regardless of the season but it's especially nice during the chilly winter weather. The beef, the pork, chicken or seafood or many combinations are well worth your time but if you want true satiety, delectable morsels of tender beef and just enough fat try the oxtail. Yes—oxtail! It's simply the best, and my go to 95% of my visits to Phonatic....and many other Pho locations don't offer it. If you haven't experienced it— consider giving it a try! The standard condiments come with it, fresh crispy bean sprouts, fresh basil, fresh jalapeño slices, cilantro (or not for me) and lime wedges. The self serve soda fountain offers standard as well as cane sugar based beverages and fresh ice tea. Also extra green and white onion and pickled as well as fresh jalapeño and lime wedges, as well as a few versions of Asian hot sauce are available. Service is consistently good— once you order at the counter via computer or live person. I see the new location in Cedar Park which I'm very excited about for weekend indulgence. Can't wait until it opens!!!!

- 100 The best naan bread in Ohio. Crispy, just enough oil, and FRESH and HOT out of the kitchen delivered right to your table. Good vegetarian/vegan selection. Service is incredibly kind and quick as well.

1.6.2 Low Values

- 1 Not bad. A step up from Harvey's and other burger joints. Cheese on the cheeseburger wasn't melted and the burger itself was 7/10. Not bad for the price.
- 2 what's the big deal? long lines, mediocre food — not at all worth the hype and certainly NOT worth the wait.
- 3 Love my bar.

This is a pleasant neighborhood bar, fairly new, and run by a couple with often minimal staffing. I feel like the negative reviewers just don't get it, and being that I stick up for what I love, will explain. Maybe some of the food is a better deal than others, but it is over all comparable to, or better than other places in price, and much better in quality. It's a nice BAR. It's not where you go to be fawned over or or eat a fancy meal. It's a place to hang out and mingle with the locals, without the usual St Johns dive bar element. And yes, there is a cat, which is a lovely thing at a neighborhood bar, and who is normally confined to the patio and never anywhere near the kitchen. Self serve water isn't a rarity in Portland bars. Methinks, to the negative reviewers, perhaps Leisure just wasn't what you were looking for. For me...it's perfect.

- 4 I went on Sunday and I guess a waitress called in sick. It took a long time to get service and food was fair. I felt bad for our waiter who told us up front what was going on. I wanted to leave by sister insisted on staying. I will not be going back.
- 5 Had better. Reminiscent of Pyramid Brewery near my hometown Berkeley. Food was mediocre (flatbread was like a microwave pizza on a tortilla, and wings were more like drumsticks) and the beer was so-so. Nice atmosphere though. Waited about 20 min for an outdoors table (friends brought their dog).
- 6 Oysters weren't bad for being in Arizona, but definitely not East coast good. I had 18. House salad I'd pass on in the future. Cup of French onion soup was delicious.
- 7 Beautiful restaurant and the food is delicious! I love the Adas Polo!! You can easily split one of the larger dishes too!

- 8 Love how relaxed and unique this place is not to mention it's right next to MCC I love their winter-melon Milk tea it's so yummy and not overly sweet like Starbucks.
- 9 If I could give it zero stars I would. My brother is in a wheelchair and couldn't get served tonight. He actually left after waiting and waiting and being overlooked. What's the hostess have against a PERSON in a wheelchair?? Get with the program people. It's 2016.
- 10 I've never had a bad meal there. The black bean burger is my favorite veggie burger in this entire world. Hands down.

My meat eating husband says it's decent

- 11 The staff is incompetent, I will never go here again. The sushi is mediocre at best — there are much better Japanese restaurants in Madison, stay clear of this one. Way better options would include Takara, Red Sushi, Muramoto — take your pick.
- 12 Worst dining experience I've had in Orlando. I came in, sat down, and was not attended to by a waitress for 15 to 20 minutes. The food was nothing to write home about, and when I asked for my check it took 10 minutes to get to me. I gave them my debit card and was eager to be on my way, when the bill came back my debit card did not. They lost my card. What? Are you kidding me? It took another five minutes for them to find my card, apparently it got "dropped". Worst service ever. Never returning.
- 13 Horrible prices and the sushi is not worth the money will never go back disappointed sat at counter for 10 mins with no service and there was only 3 tables with people at them
- 14 Surprise!!! Crescent Ridge does not make their own ice cream, it is made by Bliss in Attleboro.
- 15 Nicest coffee shop in town. It's tough to balance being friendly with being unobtrusive but Moka gets it just right. Try the Jamaican roast coffee, it's fantastic!
- 16 This review is based only on their drinks. Have not tried the food yet.

Wanted to try this place out after Tea Infusion closed down. Went in today wanting an refreshing iced tea. Problem is the way they make you an iced tea is by giving you a hot cup of tea with a bag and then a cup of ice. THIS IS NOT HOW YOU MAKE AN ICED TEA!!! Did the ownership not take notes when Tea Infusion was still there? I also ordered an iced chai latte. Also poorly made! The old chai lattes were smooth, sweet and creamy. The one I had today was watered down, chalky and luke warm.

Needless to say if they can't get the simplest tea making down I'm scared to try the food.

And where did all the former staff go?! Miss their friendly faces...

- 17 Worse club ever. They advertised free drinks for ladies but was not true then once got inside there was nobody in there. Dance floor was empty. Go somewhere else
- 18 Well I made the mistake of not using my trusty YELP app before I ordered from this place. I received a flyer for this restaurant under the door in my hotel room. I called and after a brief and not so friendly conversation with a man on the other end I was told the food would arrive in 30 minutes. When I told him I wanted to pay with a card he upped the price to a random even dollar amount so that seemed shady in itself. After 1.5 hours I called back to see the status and got some serious attitude from the same guy telling me the delivery boy had 3 other delivers so it was going to take some time and to be patient. 15 minutes AFTER that some tweeker kid shows up with a cold pizza and soggy fried zucchini! Never never never get food from this gross excuse for a restaurant! Sooooooooo not work $34 bucks! YUCK!!!

19 Service was great! Food was mediocre and not worth the money. With wine for two it was $300.00 plus the burger we stopped to get on the way home.

20 Yikes. Gave them a second chance today, and it was bad. Hot and sour soup was actually sludge. Sludge. Everything else was bland. Paid $15, and all I could eat was a little chicken and fried rice.

People taking the order were nice, as was delivery lady.

21 If I could give zero stars I would, weak drinks and bad music. They pour nasty shots out of sketchy unlabeled bottles. Literally go anywhere else

22 We got our reservation in advance and asked for a seat by the window which we received. We saw a couple of zebras running by before our bread service arrived. It was amazing with a wide assortment of sauces from mild to spicy, loved all of them. My butter chicken arrived in metal bowls which appeared to be small but were plenty filling and very tasty, not too spicy. I also ordered a watermelon margarita which was not that great for the price, kinda bland and they didnt ask me if I wanted salt just delivered it with it. Overall a must experience, but not enough menu for a repeat visit at this point.

23 I'm a big fan of chipotle, but not this particular location. Not sure but I feel the quality of ingredients should be improved and overall waiting time...

24 Hostess was an old, rude white lady who wouldn't seat us cause we had our swimsuits on. We had just come from a pool party. Mind you, we had dresses and cover ups over us so you couldn't even see anything. We were starving and decided to go somewhere else where they had no problem seating us. Would not recommend and will never return.

25 One of the frist people his and could not get anyone to help me. The server how was supposed to come to my table. She went to a different table and then we had to ask for service. Never been to a more disrespectful Ihop in my life. I wait 30 min to get coffee. I would not tell anyone to come to this Ihop. I After talking to the manager the manager made it right.

26 Terrible food and terrible service!!!! The drinks were weak, the food tasted spoiled!!

27 The service was slow and terrible, the fettuccine Alfredo came out watery witch drives me nuts!!!

28 Lobby is not that impressive, but the rooms are. A Plasma TV. This shocked me. I was not expecting much out of this hotel.

29 Bland. This was not at all anything like real Thai food. I was so disappointed after the hype on yelp. Ordered two entrees, one being the typical pad thai, one being an eggplant dish. I'm surprised to find that this place has so many positive reviews considering the food and the smells coming from the kitchen was not in any way a reminder of any real delicious thai place I've been to. I've had thai that was more like Chinese food and this was more white food than either.

Would not go back again.

30 DISGUSTING SERVICE AND FOOD.

The whole employees were all RUDE!

Not one of them sounded like they even wanted to be there let alone cared about your food. The man ordering in front of me asked to wait for a new batch of orange chicken and the worker told him he couldn't wait and then proceeded to put the nasty small amount of left over chicken on his plate even after he insisted that he'd wait and didn't mind waiting. She basically forced him to take it even when he said no. I was blown over by the way they talked to their customers

The food itself was so gross we took a few bites and then settled for getting Wendy's instead because of how gross it tasted.

31 Iced coffee is not cold brew. I don't appreciate being lied to and having my morning ruined.

32 This is possibly the worst steak 'n shake in Atlanta. Not only did we not get served we were discriminated against by what seemed to be the manager. While waiting to be seated for about 10 mins she decided to seat the people that came in after us. We left and never coming back 33 Don't count on the photo in their menu to be anything close to what they serve. I liken it to ordering a Keg Steak, and being served thinly sliced beef. When I questioned them on this, they just said "it's the same thing". I asked the server "does that look the same to you", and she just replied "it's an old menu". Was not impressed, won't return.

Felt like it was a bait and switch.

34 Invited by members for a scotch pairing and tasting event. Little roasted birds served with traditional Scottish sides of polenta and potatoes. Dinner was accompanied by poetry reading and bagpipes. The atmosphere was warm and inviting.

35 By far the absolute worst experiences I've ever had staying at an establishment. It was dirty and smelled bad I'm constantly ran out of hot water.

36 The food is expensive, and the service was mediocre. It's like going to a mediocre noodle shop in Chinatown, but with (a much) heftier check because of the decor and location.

37 Christy makes a refreshing Peartini and Garret makes a yummy raspberry martini. The restaurant is a clean, local place we like to swing by regularly. We get 10% off drinks and food for being LifeTime members. Oh, and I love the floating balls

38 Every single time I've ordered I've been placed on hold for a minimum of 10 minutes for ONE order. This last time I was on hold for 23 minutes and showed up with the call still on hold. There were only TWO tables and not one person to greet us at the door. We went to the bar to speak with a manager and 2 employees did not even acknowledge us. Spoke with manager who is not apologetic and acted like she did not care. Overall, I've been to several Wild Wing Cafes through out the East Coast and this is by far the worst

Wild Wing on the East Coast.

- 39 Just paid 13.50 for a philly cheese, and it was kinda lame. Not worth it folks

Just paid 13.50 for a philly cheese, and it was kinda lame. Not worth it folks

Just paid 13.50 for a philly cheese, and it was kinda lame. Not worth it folks

- 40 Way too expensive!! $75.00 for 3 fish and chips, will not go again.

The fish wasn't big enough and the chips were not up to snuff.

- 41 A total disappointment!

- 42 Not the most enjoyable experience actually not at all close to anything I would like to eat. My waffle was super thin and just had chocolate syrup on it. And the syrup was not good.

- 43 every time ive gone in theyve screwed up my order. just now i went and asked for an impossible whopper with just pickles and lettuce cooked not on the broiler and they still put everything on, including mayo, and im vegan. the meal is over $10 so it was a complete waste of money. never going back

- 44 I'm not rating the food, I assume basic theme park burger etc.... mediocre. Best Epcot drink, coconut pineapple slushy!!!! A/C, Tropical pina colada vibes.....The end.

- 45 Poor service in a small, congested space = unpleasant dining experience. We had a reservation for dinner, yet 45 minutes after our reservation time we were not served food or drink. Watchman, consider better management if you strive to survive in the vibrant Atlanta restaurant scene.

- 46 The hubby and I stopped in for a quick beer before going home. I'm not a beer drinker but oh how I enjoyed this. The bartender suggested lawn boy for me and this is what I get each time. A little popcorn as I sit by the fireplace drinking my beer! What more can you ask for?

- 47 Terrible service. Waited 30 min for the completely wrong order. Never got my food. Instead i got excuses. Bartender was rude. Never coming back to the Hilton or this restaurant

- 48 Super ambiance

Super staff. Cynthia was so kind and accommodating.

Super food. Ribs were amazing and Parminder creme Brûlée.

Chef only speaks to his friends – interesting observing. It's ok.

Highly recommend.

- 49 Renee's is still my preferred breakfast location. I have yet to find a fault, with the exception of popularity can lead to a wait sometimes.

- 50 often my coffee taste burnt or stale. They need to clean there coffee machines just a little bit better.

- 51 Not too bad. A little bit of a hole-in-the-wall Chinese buffet. Reasonably priced. I got it to go and took it back to my room at the Embassy Suites.

- 52 Mediocre at best.

I've been to this place about four years ago and it's worse than I remember.

This wasn't my original restaurant of choice, but everything else had a ridiculous line-up and we decided to warm up in the first restaurant without a line. In fact, there were plenty of empty tables—a sign of warning on a busy Friday night.

Service was a little slow, despite the restaurant being empty. We ordered the Seafood & White Fish Stew, Kimchi Seafood Pancake, and a Spicy Bulgogi Bibimbap. The banchan were brought about ten minutes after we ordered and left a lot to be desired. The Gamjajorim (honey potatoes) were boiled in chicken stock and slightly sauced with corn syrup—yuck. The japchae (glass noodles) were dried out and not fresh.

The dishes we ordered were decent. Not bad, but also not the greatest. I've had better Korean food for a better value. I genuinely enjoyed the broth of the stew—it was just the right amount of seafood flavour and plenty of spice. The kimchi pancake was oily and sloppy, although it was generous on the squid.

Would I return? Definitely not to this location, there are newer and better locations of Ka Chi across the GTA.

53 Everything was absolutely disgusting and not worth what your paying for. I'm a big seafood lover and this was by far my worst experience!!!!

54 Stopped by while out shopping on a Sunday! Cheese board and beers were yummy. Roomy location but parking limited. Will stop again.

55 service sucks. if there is a 0 i would select that. RUDE people . Service took an hour...to deliver. The manager just hangs up if you complain. Or is that the manager. Cold pizza. Rude...While trying to figure out what is going on...they hung up the phone three times. I am calling paypal and protesting the payment unless the manager calls and apologizes. Which I doubt. So everyone fed up with our euclid store needs to call the national office and get new people in that store. Now I worry that they may adulterate any future orders since I complained. And they were so rude. Never pay them first. What a mess. What rude people. Manager refuses to come to the phone. Their nationwide campaign about getting it right the first time is a lie. Dominoes should investigate this store and their lousy incompetent rude owners and staff. We have plenty of places in Euclid to get a pizza. DO NOT order unless you think late cold pizza and rude treatment by the staff is what you like. Lazy. Rude. Incompetent. Jeeezz.

56 I did not realize that the store has its own entrance on Critchey Lane. Ended up walking through the Kit and Ace store on Bloor St, which was nice having to look at all the clothes I could not afford.

It is so cute and tiny. Nicely designed with beautiful copperware and marble countertops. Did not realize till after the name of the store is attributed to Canadian's likeliness to apologize. Had the urge to sing Justin Bieber's 'sorry' while there.

Had a flat white which tasted really good. It isn't a place to sit for a long period of time. It is designed more for a stop and go. There is an open view of yorkville, so the location of this place is perfect.

57 1er impression en rentrant, dÃ coration et ambiance dÃ contractÃ , on s'entendait parler sans trop forcer ce qui est rare Ã MontrÃ al. Le nom comptoir charcuterie et vins, nous faisait rÃ ver , et on s'attendait Ã une avalanche de charcuterie , malheureusement le plateau de charcuterie (le grand) nous as vraiment dÃ Ã u , pour 15$ on a droit Ã 10 tranche de saucisson microscopique , des morceaux de terrine/pÃ tÃ dans le mÃ me ordre , et un peu de pancetta. La charcuterie est ici principalement un accompagnement dans les plats et non la piÃ ce maÃ tresse vraiment dommage. On a quand mÃ me continuÃ avec un plat (pieuvre , magret ...) tous dÃ licieux et un plateau de fromage trÃ s goÃ teux , mais encore lÃ on se retrouve avec des portions microscopique. Du cÃ tÃ des vins , rien Ã dire la carte est fourni et le prix aussi. On a pris un blanc de la Loire pour accompagner le repas , trÃ s bien conseiller par le serveur. CÃ tÃ prix compter 60$ pour un repas complet avec du vin. Au final on aura passer un bon moment mais il faudrait amÃ liorer les portions pour que le rapport qualitÃ /prix soit honnÃ te , et mettre la charcuterie brute plus en avant.

58 I'm a fan.

This was my first visit. I ordered the crepes with egg whites , spinach , mushrooms , bacon.....and it was DELISH!!!! $10 bucks well spent.

Service was spot on.

The place was not terribly crowded thankfully!

59 There is only one word to describe the French toast: mutant! So thick & tasty , I may not eat another meal all year long.

60 The service at this location is poor. Orders are consistently wrong and the employees are rude when you ask for corrections. I take the extra time to drive to the location at Baseline and Elsworth.

61 Wow I should read the review here before I went there last night. Got there seated by the host on a table which isn't clean and surround by the tables with dirty that needs to be clean and wipe down. 20 mins pass by and no one came by serve us so we got up and left.

62 Worst Sam's club ever! Don't go in before 10am if you're not a business member or preferred member! How inconvenient for members of any level!

63 There is not a bad thing on the menu. Everything we tried was in credible so delicious and the cinnamon rolls are to die for

65 We are routinely delighted by the selection , the staff , the quaint surroundings , and the fantastically cheap Sunday Happy Hour.

After numerous visits I have yet to find anything to complain about and that is really saying something.

Unlike some reviewers I can't deduct stars for this NOT being in my neighborhood , so 5-stars it is. See you Sunday!

66 If I were this chef's secret Santa , I would not so secretly gift him/ her a salt and pepper combo!

Cauliflower, gnocchi, Brussel sprouts – all three lacked salt and pepper.
Cauliflower even had some uncooked flour on the inside—gross!! We ended up sending half of our food back; thank God for Groupon!

Cocktails are not that good either. Overall the ambience and music is better than the food!

67 This is a sad review to write as Anzen Hiroshi is closing after 109 years.

This tiny store is packed wabi-sabi with staples like rice and noodles, miso, soy sauce, preserved Japanese foods, tea, spices, condiments, seaweed, snacks, along with a small selection of produce. They have prepared lunch boxes to go. Fresh tofu. Sushi grade fresh fish. Sake. Tea cups, teapots, plates, chopsticks, cookware. Health and beauty items. Traditional Japanese crafts, decorations and toys. Videos and books. Great prices!

It is the old West general store, or small corner grocery that used to be found in America within walking distance of home, or the small grocery in Japan that grew up by adding more variety over more than a century. One report is that over the years, Japanese consulted the store to find referrals to doctors, dentists and Japanese items in town, before Yelp!

The store was originally opened in 1905 in Old Town Japantown as Teikoku Company by the Matsushima family.
<http://www.oregonnikkei.org/exhibit/starting.html> It was in the space where the Boiler Room is now. It was closed by and reopened after the WWII Japanese internment. They were forced by our government to change their name from Teikoku, meaning empire, to Anzen meaning security. In 1968 they moved to the area by what was to become the convention center in the heart of the African American community. The African American community there was being dismantled by the construction of I5, the Memorial Colosseum, Interstate Avenue changes and the Emanuel Hospital expansion. <http://historicphotoarchive.com/mcm/Lecture.html>. The Convention Center was not to come until 1990.

Meanwhile, Anzen expanded with two stores in Beaverton, similarly small and packed.

In 1928 the Moriguchi family began what would become Uwajimaya in Tacoma. After the Japanese internment, they opened their grocery in Seattle's Japantown.

I had heard from staff and Hiroshi's wife reported in an interview <http://portlandtribune.com/component/content/article?id=119979> that she believed the two families had an agreement not to compete in each other's cities. But in 1998, Uwajimaya opened in Beaverton and Anzen closed their Beaverton stores.

Now Janie and Hiroshi Matsushima, grandson of the founder, are closing their last store.

68 1. Ok Music choice by the DJ

2. Unsafe parking lot

3. Overpriced, low quality foods and drinks

4. Dirty floors, specially in the dance room.

69 Ordered two adobado burritos to go. Trying to support Trump owners. Lousy burritos with grisly chopped meat, too many onions, and less than a 1/4 tsp of guacamole.

70 Service was horrible. . Went in at 10am.

The cooks had muscle shirts on ( tank tops )

They didn't greet me or acknowledge me until I said something. Then they told me I couldn't order because the cashier was not there. .

After 25 minutes of waiting the cashier walks in. No hello, good morning, nothing.

She counts her drawer and rudely asks me if I wanted to order or not.

Worst customer service ever!

Will NOT be returning

71 Bad service when the restaurant was empty, bad food, and way over priced. $40 for two burgers and waters. Live in the neighborhood, but won't be back.

72 Ordered on a Tues night in the 8o'clock hour for convenience and so I could order veggies on it (vs nearby slice place). Supposed to arrive 920-30 but did not until 1030 and then was COLD with virtually no sauce or veggies and tons of congealed cheese. Gross and what a waste of my time and $$.

73 Wow. I was so excited to go to swensons for the first time in 10 years or so. I was even more surprised to see this one so close to my parents home.

We pulled into the driveway late in the evening. There was one car who was ordering when we were. They took our order fairly promptly.

We then sat and waited... and waited... and waited... and waited.. we watched the two workers lapping the restaurant and (empty) parking lot over and over again. Eventually we called them over. 25 minutes after ordering, we got our food. It was super cold and clearly had been sitting inside for a long while while the workers chatted it up and watched us hungry and waiting in the car.

Definitely disappointed and we will not be returning.

74 0/5 highly would not recommend. To start, the restaurant was too large and we could not find the entrance. After talking with the front counter, she told us that the wait would be an estimated 10 minutes for a table. The restaurant was fairly empty and there was no reason for them not to give us a seat: tables were uncleaned, not occupied. We've waited for about 40 minutes before we explicitly asked to be seated at a table.

After we were seated, the server was rude, forgotten one of our meals, and never visited our table. I've ordered chicken parmesan, which both tasted horrible (like rubber) and gave me food poisoning. A miserable experience.

75 Not a bad lunch place. Pita was filling and the soda machine has tons of options. I would go again.

- 76 They did an amazing job for my boyfriends 40th birthday cake!! Turned out better than I could imagine!! Highly recommend them to everyone!!
- 77 FROZEN CUSTARD? HOLY CRAP THIS TASTES LIKE ICE CREAM!

Actually...I dareth say, it was better than ice cream. Though I also heard a nasty rumor that it is healthier too. Anyway, down to the review – I had the Dirt n’ Worms – vanilla frozen custard with oreos and gummi worms. The custard was so good, you don’t even realize you’re not eating ice cream! I’m definitely coming back to try the food.

- 78 Showed up with my girlfriend at about 6PM on a Tuesday before seeing a 7:20 movie at International Village (which is about a five minute walk away). The food took so long to arrive that we missed the beginning of the movie, even with wolfing everything down.

In the 50 minutes that we waited for the food to arrive, the server didn’t come over once. Not to check in, not to refill our water or get another beer, and certainly not to apologize for the wait.

The food itself – braised short rib and cornish game hen – was pretty good, but not remotely worth the wait and the bad service,

- 79 D’finitivement un de mes endroits préférés Montréal! J’adore l’ambiance. La bouffe est complètement géniale. La tartine de champignons, un classique, est certainement à essayer. Tous les poissons sont sublimes à galement.
- 80 Dry ass chicken shawarma. I was disappointed. But hey the costumers were buying pita bread by the armfulls.
- 81 Painfully slow service. Food is underseasoned and mediocre. Chipotle sauce is the only bright spot. Won’t come back.
- 82 Seriously the worst. This is the third time I’ve been to Bar Louie and it’s progressively gotten worse. It took 40 minutes to get 2 sandwiches to go (we were 2 of 7 people in the restaurant). I finally got a bartenders attention who went to check on our order. When we got it, it wasn’t correct and was missing ranch. Another 10 minutes had passed before the manager brought out my ranch. At this point it had been 55 minutes and not one person had been by to close out our tab. I walked outside at this point. Apparently the manager wanted to take care of our tab which was nice but would not have been necessary if they had their act together. Not going back.
- 83 Tasty, not too pricey, cool looking place.

Drive by it all the time and never tried it out. Finally did. Had a spicy meatloaf and it was very spicy. Spicy fries were killer too. Not for the faint. Definately something diferent.

- 84 I ate at this restaurant just once. I don’t remember the price but the food was steamed to the falling-apart state, the top of the chopped meat had begun to dry from not being turned over. The owner hovered while I selected food that appeared old and greatly overcooked, re-heated, maybe even left over, steamy & sticky. Not good quality. Eeek.

- 85 The only thing memorable about this place was the server who had extremely antsy behaviour, talked a mile a minute, had shifty eye contact, could barely keep still or get our order right. Completely off putting and unprofessional. Never going back. I don't think I remember the food.
- 86 This small latte was 5$, and I got it half full. I haven't taken even a sip and I got home and realized it was super light feeling. I'm so highly disappointed. Will not be back to this Starbucks.
- 87 Placed an order with postmates for delivery from this place... the food arrived was stinking bad... and tasted even worse... chilli fries and burger... pic attached
- 88 Worst return experience ever. I bought something on walmart.com. Went to the store to return it. They said that it is third party item so return is not possible in store. This looks like Walmart's desperate effort to compete with Amazon. Very poor customer service. This is a disaster relative to the news that Walmart was going to make returns easy. I am never shopping Walmart online again. Nobody should.
- 89 Poor service and customer service even after receiving raw pork and another order of recooked chicken.
- 90 Service could be a lot better. But I love how they offer a variety of side dishes. Haven't tried everything on the menu but I usually order the tofu or pork bone soup
- 91 Bon service, mÃe me avec un groupe. Apportez votre vin. TrÃ s bon sushi. Bel atmosphÃ re. DÃ cor intÃ ressant. Un bel endroit pour avoir une longue conversation.
- 92 I was excited to try this diner as I saw it had 4 solid stars. Food was mediocre, however, the smell it left on our clothes was bad. Our clothes smelled like dirty grease/oil. Probably due to poor ventilation. Unfortunately, I would not go back.
- 93 The only time I have actually made it into Watershed there was a fun dance party going on and I tried a fresh cocktail. The drink was delicious.... I believe it was a lemonade mix. I definitely want to come back for food sometime.
- 94 Excellent cafÃ mais manque d enthousiasme du propriÃ taire qui est aussi barista. On aimerait un sourire, un bonjour, pas qu'un air de bÃ uf ... Il ne nous a pas donnÃ envie de revenir... Heureusement que sa conjointe est parfois lÃ . Elle a davantage le sens de la clientÃ le.
- 95 If you're looking for substandard food and horrible service this is the place for you. The only reason this place is still in business is that it's the closest breakfast mega place to four hotels. I'd rather eat out of the dumpster at McDonald's.
- 96 I wish I could give this place 0 stars! Me and my family (8 people) visited and waited 2 hours to be seated after being told the wait was only 45 mins. My family spent the wait time at the bars enjoying their delicious drinks! After being seated at this cramped table, we were greeted by a short tempered waitress! The waitress could not get our order right. I waited 45 mins for my appetizer, The whole time the waitress seemed to have a sarcastic remark for everything and was being a total b**ch. My sister confronted the waitress asking what the reason for her attitude, the waitress became very confrontational and the situation almost came to a physical altercation. The manager stepped in and apologized and informed us that it was the waitress's birthday and she didn't want to be there so she had been behaving like this her whole shift! However, The manager didn't try to offer us accommodations for the disrespectful behavior of his staff and the poor and unprofessional experience that we encountered!

- 97 Overall a VERY displeasing experience. When first walking in the odor is extremely unpleasant, which could be expected due to the different types of food being cooked on open pots but still not what you want to smell when you walk into a restaurant to eat. The service was horrendous. Waiters and waitresses had no idea what was going on or what the food was they were even handing you, had to be reminded multiple times to get drinks. BE AWARE** everyone at your table must order the same buffet. If you all decide you do not want the buffet one may not order from the menu or else EVERYONE in your party will be charged. My party was not informed of this sitting down, which lead to an argument when the bill was received. The manager was not pleasant at all when faced with a problem. Instead of correcting the issue presented or explaining the bill they chose to get into an argument with multiple people in my party causing a scene. Food was good, But not worth the nasty experience given by the staff. I will absolutely not be returning.
- 98 Not even 1 star – Went to get a order of nugget wen finishing a 30 mile bike ride, walked in with my bike to place to go order was told I could not bring my bike inside. No words like can I help you place order go to drive through or anything, just leave we are not responsible for your bike. So many people that sit in this store and sleep or congregate. lets kick out a person who was getting a to go order and did not want to leave bike outside in this area of town. There was a bike outside not in a bike rack leaning against railing not chained this was not safe. I wouldn't leave my bike outside there is no bike rack anyway and was riding home after a 30 mile ride. In this area there are too many vagrant people just siting around outside this store. not coming back to this store
- 99 It's been years since I've been to Burger Factory I remember it being better but not sure what happened it was horrendous talk to bites threw in the trash it was like eating Gristle bread was dry just all bad this guy the counter was cool give me a free water at least definitely not going to go back a vending machine Burger would be better
- 100 Crab Alfredo my favorite!That is until they put spoonfuls of garlic in the mix. 57 yr old first bad one. FYI they changed all their recipes. Before you order ask. Manager explained if you don't want spoonfuls of garlic you must specify that. I'll remember next time to let the cook know spoonfuls of garlic chunks in every bite – maybe not. I guess common sense was not at play.
